CAMPAIGN IS WARM IN EMPIRE STATE

Rome, N. Y., Oct. 29.—"They are talking prosperity and the papers tell us that they are going to have a great big parade in New York City next Saturday night, with red fire. They are going to have illuminations. They are going to have bands, and when I was in New York I saw them building grandstands along the route for people who will watch the parade. Why don't they take the money and furnish lodgings at night for the hundreds of men whom I saw sleeping on the benches in the parks? I had occasion to ride down Broadway two nights, one time at 2 o'clock and another time at 4 o'clock in the morning, and there were not less than 300 men sleeping in one park on benches, and they were protecting themselves from the cold by tying newspapers about their limbs. While these men have not the money with which to buy lodgings, the Republican party is spending money for red fire in order to prove that it is the party of prosperity."

That is the way William J. Bryan concluded his speech at this place today. The meeting was held in the opera house, and Mr. Bryan was introduced by Rev. Mr. Peabody, of the First Baptist church. Mr. Bryan's

Big Taft Meetings

Syracuse, N. Y., Oct. 29.—Republican cheers have sounded in the wake of the Taft special train which today visited Lyons, Canandaigua, Geneva, Seneca Falls and Auburn. The climax was reached tonight in this city with a big parade, two meetings and an overflow. There has been no lack of auditors and demonstrations where ever the Ohioan has tarried. Despite the heavy campaigning required of him yesterday in Greater New York, he showed little effect of the strain today. He has hit at the roots of what he considers the Democratic fallacies in every speech, and has been free in expressing his optimism as to the result next Tuesday. Governor Hughes has been commended in very strong language, likewise the remainder of the New York state ticket and the vice-presidential candidate.
