

OFFICE HOLDERS ARE GOING HOME TO VOTE

Washington, D. C., Oct. 30.—The general exodus from the District of Columbia has begun. The reduced railway rates offered this year are the best ever given by the railroads. Heretofore it was possible to get rates to points only in the middle states, and a few of the eastern states. This year the voter may buy a ticket from Canada to Mexico, and as far west as Denver. The reduced rate this year makes it possible for the resident of the District of Columbia to go home to vote at a cost of only one and a half cents a mile, when in 1904 the rate was three cents a mile.

ments this year will go home to vote. Already several hundred of them have left the city, and it is said that twice as many more will go within the next three days. The Interior Department, Department of Agriculture and other departments also are represented in the general exodus which began today. Those living in the nearby states will not leave until Sunday of Monday. The situation as it is fixed up by the campaign managers who hail from Ohio, Indiana, New York, Connecticut and Nebraska to go home to vote. Only a "Corporal's Guard" will be left at the capital building, where the employees, who are strictly political appointees outside of civil service rules, are all energetic campaign workers in their home states. All of the employees and clerks at the White House who desired to go home to vote were paid off today.

S.S.S. THE CURE FOR SCROFULA

Swollen glands about the neck, weak eyes, pale, watery running sores and ulcers, skin diseases, and general prostration, are the usual ways in which Scrofula is manifested. The disease is entrenched in the blood often attacks the bones, resulting in hip disease, and the scrofulous and tubercular matter which destroys the healthful properties of the blood, and terminates in consumption, an incurable disease. The entire system being contaminated, the only way to cure the trouble is to purify the blood and restore the circulation to a strong, healthy condition. S. S. S. is the very best treatment for Scrofula; it restores the blood supply and drives out the scrofulous and tubercular matter from the very bottom of the trouble and removes the cause, but it purifies the diseased blood with the healthful properties it is in need of, and builds up weak, frail, scrofulous persons and makes them strong in any age. S. S. S. is a gentle, safe, vegetable preparation and is suitable for medical advice free. THE SWIFT SPECIFIC CO., ATLANTA

MINORS WILL BE KEPT OUT OF BILLIARD ROOMS

City Ordinance Will Be Enforced by Police Officers Hereafter

Chief of Police Farrington last evening notified all keepers of pool and billiard parlors and of cigar stores where there are rear rooms that the city ordinance prohibiting minors from frequenting rooms where pool, billiards and cards are played will be strictly enforced. This ordinance was passed by the city council some time ago at the instance of a number of persons who make it a habit of frequenting such places. The ordinance was observed to see whether it was being enforced. There is a frequent ordinance which allows frequenting these places if the frequenter consent of the parent or guardian is obtained. Have you neglected your system and caused kidney and bladder pains in the loins, side, and too frequent a urination? If so, Williams' Pink Pills will cure you. Sold by all druggists. Price 50 cents. MIXED RELATIONS CAUSED BY PRANKS OF DAN CUPID

A well-known Washington newspaper man married his brother's step-daughter, thus his brother becoming his father-in-law and his sister-in-law his mother-in-law. The girl's step-father became her brother-in-law.

There is much food for thought and a chance for mental collapse in the effort to figure out mixed family relationships complicated by unusual marriages, says the Kansas City Star. One man, William Harris, of Titusville, Pa., committed suicide because he ascertained, so he said, that he was his own grandfather. The man left the following autobiography for the coroner: "I married a widow who had a grown up daughter. My father visited us often, fell in love with my step-daughter and married her. Thus my father became my son-in-law, and my step-daughter being my father's wife, became my step-mother. Soon after this distressing complication arose my wife presented me with a son. This son was my father's brother-in-law and my own uncle, since he was a brother of my step-mother. My father's wife also became the mother of a boy. He was of course my brother and also my grandchild, for he was the son of my daughter. Also my wife was a grandmother. I was my wife's husband and grandchild at once. At the same time, as the husband of a person's grandmother is the person's grandfather, I am my own grandfather."

A father and a son involved themselves in a very tangled relationship by marriage. The son chose an elderly woman and the father married her daughter. A child was born to each couple. The difficult question at once arose—what relationship was one child to the other?

Miss Millie Beckenbough, of Minnesota, was married to her uncle's brother's niece's brother-in-law, and no one ever has been able to untangle the relationship.

One of the governors of Missouri, Claiborn F. Jackson, married, one after the other, five sisters. "When for the fifth time," says Arthur Herkimer, the Missouri historian, "Jackson broached a marital proposition to his father-in-law the old man was 80 and quite deaf. This is the conversation that ensued: "I want Lizzie."

"Hey?" "I want you—to give me—Lizzie." "Oh, you want me to give you Elizabeth, do you? What for?" "For my wife." "For your wife?" "I want to—marry—Lizzie." "Oh, yes; I hear you. You need not arouse the neighborhood."

"Well, do you consent?" "Yes, I consent," said the old man as he shook his head and said slowly: "Yes, you can have her, my boy. You've got 'em all now. But for goodness sake if anything happens to that girl don't come back here and ask me for the old woman."

Richard Ellsworth, of Sonoma, S. D., a man of 60, married Jennie Barrett, aged 20. At the same time his son, aged 30, married the mother of Jennie, a fair charmer of 41. All four lived on adjoining ranches, and there was a double wedding. The girl of 20 became the step-mother-in-law of her own mother, and the son is the father-in-law of his father's wife.

FOUND HIS WIFE HAD MARRIED ANOTHER MAN

Corvallis, Oct. 23.—Revelation that George McDonald, of Morgan, the unfortunate who died at the county jail October 12, was another Enoch Arden, with an unusually pathetic career, has come to light through a dispatch from San Francisco. The dispatch says McDonald went to the Philippines during the war days, leaving a wife and daughter. After the war he returned to find that his wife had married another man having received a report that he had been killed. No message preceded him and his arrival was not made known to the woman. He came on north to Oregon, keeping his secret and his sorrow. He was at Eugene and Springfield, then came to Corvallis, where his death took place in the city jail, following a debauch, probably induced by his trouble.

He had told Father Butler, of Corvallis, that he was married by Rev. Father Netterville, at St. Donomus' church, San Francisco, and that his wife's second marriage was performed by Father Nugent, of St. Rose church, San Francisco. Curator M. S. Boyce has communicated with Father Nugent to help locate the dead man's daughter.

David Parker, of Fayette, N. Y., a veteran of the Civil War, who lost a foot at Gettysburg, says: "The good Electric Bitters have done for me more than five hundred dollars to me. I now take them as a tonic and they keep me strong and well." 50c at W. A. Kuykendall's drug store.

REAR-ADMIRAL CONDON IS RETIRED

Washington, D. C., Oct. 30.—Rear Admiral Albert R. Condon, president of the naval examining and retiring boards, retired today from active service, having reached the age limit under the navy regulations. He was born in Indiana on October 30, 1846, but was appointed from Utah. He entered the Naval Academy on September 26, 1863, and graduated four years later. He served on the Franklin, the flagship of the European squadron, from 1867 to 1869. In 1868 he was made ensign, became master in 1870, lieutenant in 1871, lieutenant-commander in March, 1889, and commander in March, 1897. On January 15, 1902, he was made captain and was commander of the Atlanta from 1900 to 1904.

He was still a captain when he was honored by being placed in command of the powerful fleet and thousands of marines sent to Havana at the time of the Taft intervention. It was the most important naval command since the close of the Spanish-American war. President Roosevelt further honored Condon by placing him in command of the battleship Louisiana, in which President Roosevelt made his trip to Panama for the purpose of personally studying the Panama canal situation. On November 28, 1904, Rear Admiral Condon was made general inspector of ordnance of the United States navy, and still later was appointed president of the naval examining and retiring boards, which position he still holds.

CURE IT IN ONE DAY.
Coughs and Colds Disappear Like Magic When Hy-o-mel is Used.
If the thousands of people who suffer from hacking coughs and agonizing colds would arouse themselves sufficiently to follow this advice, they would cease to complain within twenty-four hours. Here is the advice. If you take it and you are afterwards sorry that you did, it won't cost you a penny. Go to the Hull Drug Co. and purchase from them a Hyomel (pronounced High-o-mel) outfit. It will only cost you $1.00. Take it home; use it according to direction, and if it does not cure your cough or cold, take it back and Hull's will refund the purchase price. When you use Hyomel you don't swallow nauseating drugs. You simply breathe in the soothing, pleasant and antiseptic Hyomel air through the little pocket inhaler that comes with each outfit. As this medicated air passes over the inflamed parts, relief comes almost at once, and cure follows.

Mary E. Bennett, Peru, Ind., writes: "I cannot speak too much in praise of your Hyomel treatment for catarrh. I have been using your remedy for about two weeks, and I have found more relief in that than anything that I have ever tried. I have spent a dollar after dollar getting medicine of the doctor for a troublesome cough which I had, and have tried all kinds of cough syrups and cough tablets, and Hyomel is the only remedy that reached the spot. I had given up in despair, but I feel so much better now that I feel as though I have a new lease on my life."

Hyomel is also guaranteed by Hull Drug Co. to cure catarrh, croup, grip and asthma, and all diseases of the nose and throat.
