

PRESIDENT SAYS TRICK PRUNG TO INJURE TAFT

Washington, Oct. 31.—Following up the statement issued from the White House regarding the announcement of Rockefeller of his preference for Taft in the presidential election, a second statement was issued today, saying: "The president has received numerous letters and telegrams at this trick of Rockefeller, doubtless made by agreement with the Democratic party, will fail absolutely. In itself it is Taft has said, that if Rockefeller had really wanted to injure Taft he would have kept quiet about it, and that he has chosen for him as being the way in which he can damage him."

ROCKEFELLER DENIES MACK'S CHARGES

Oct. 31.—National Standard Oil Company, and declared: "I have proof positive that for ten days negotiations have been going on between Taft managers and Standard Oil to get the support of Standard Oil all over the country, and to get contributions of $1,000,000, which is the same amount they gave in 1896, 1900 and 1904." "Rockefeller's denials of the relations of the administration and Standard Oil loses its force when it is remembered that he made a similar denial four years ago when Judge Parker declared the Rockefeller managers in charge of Roosevelt's campaign were receiving money from the Standard Oil Company. He has forgotten that both Harriman and Rockefeller confirmed Parker's charges."

Mack says emphatically that Taft and his managers, requiring millions of dollars, made a bargain with the Standard Oil Company in the present campaign and says the publication of the list of contributors to the Republican fund will prove the facts.

CHAIRMAN HITCHCOCK DENIES MACK'S CHARGES

New York, Oct. 31.—Chairman Hitchcock, answering Mack's statement, says: "The assertion that there has been negotiations between myself and the Standard Oil Company in reference to campaign contributions is absolutely untrue. So far as I know there have been no contributions to the campaign fund by any persons connected with the Standard Oil Company in any capacity, nor has any such been solicited to contribute."

Albany College defeated Chemawa in a football game yesterday by the score of 7 to 0.

GREAT PARADE OF REPUBLICANS

New York, Oct. 31.—One of the largest parades in the history of New York occurred this afternoon and was arranged by the Businessmen's Republican Association. Over sixty thousand were in line, and were reviewed by James S. Sherman and Secretary Root. Read-Admiral Coghlan, retired, was grand marshal, while other prominent Republicans led the respective divisions, numbering 42. Two thousand police lined the route.

DEMOCRATS COMPLAIN OF OFFICE HOLDERS

Parkersburg, W. Va., Oct. 31.—George I. Neal, vice chairman of the Democratic state committee, has sent a telegram to Roosevelt complaining of the activity of certain office holders in the campaign. He names Frank H. Tyree, marshal of the southern district; Charles D. Elliott, marshal for the northern district; and George M. Bowers, fish commissioner, and offers to furnish the president proof of their guilt.

FINAL STRUGGLE IN DOUBTFUL STATES FOR POLITICAL SUPREMACY

New York, Oct. 31.—New York, Indiana and Illinois, representing 81 electoral votes and said to be regarded as doubtful states, are the scene of the final desperate fighting in the last day of the last week of the political campaign, and on them Taft and Bryan are forcing their contest for election to the presidency.

Taft continued his tour through Elmira, Oswego, Binghamton, Cortland and Ithaca, with a night meeting at Rochester.

Bryan devoted the day to Indiana, and Kern is also in Indiana today. Tonight Bryan will speak in Chicago.

Sherman speaks at Brooklyn tonight, and so does Hughes. The governor expected to close his campaign tonight, but has decided to address several meetings in New York city Monday.

Hearst, Hisgen and others will speak tonight for the Independence party in Carnegie Hall.

Postmaster-General Meyer will speak in Boston, Debs in Wisconsin, Chafin in Chicago, and Watkins in Detroit.

BRYAN ISSUES APPEAL

Winchester, Ind., Oct. 31.—W. J. Bryan, in winding up his tour of the East, has made public an "appeal to the public" in which he summarizes the principles of the party, as follows:

Honesty in politics by compelling the publication of campaign contributions.

Election of senators by direct vote of the people.

Reconciliation of capital and labor by legislation and by the creation of a department of labor with a representative in the cabinet.

An amendment to the anti-trust law which will exclude labor organizations from the operation of that law.

Limitation of the writ of injunction.

Guarantee of bank deposits.

Reduction of the tariff by gradual steps.

He further says: "With a Democratic victory for the national ticket, with a Democratic congress and with the moral force of the popular verdict, I believe we can compel the senate to yield to the expressed will of the people and permit the passage of the more urgent of the reforms."

Bryan declares that Taft has prestige from the party in power; that he has the aid of office holders and the support of all the monopolies and trusts, and that the leading newspapers are with him and the interests he represents.

After issuing this formal appeal to the people for support of the Democratic National ticket, Bryan at this place today renewed his attacks on Rockefeller and Carnegie because of their strictures upon him in connection with their announcement that they favored the election of Taft. He said every trust magnate was supporting Taft because he stands for the trusts; the trusts would not be very grateful if they did not support Taft. He said: "I have children and I have grandchildren, and I would be ashamed to look them in the face if I was willing to barter away the liberties of the people and sell this nation into industrial bondage to a few great trust magnates, and that is what is being done in this country today."

FARMERS' FAIR AT SPRINGFIELD GREAT SUCCESS

Managers Are Surprised At Attendance and Exhibits

BEST QUALIFIED SPEAKERS IN STATE WERE PRESENT

Attendance Last Night Passed the 1000 Mark—Will End Tonight

The Farmers' Institute and Indoor Industrial Fair, held today and yesterday at Springfield under the auspices of the Springfield Grange and the enterprising citizens of that town, exceeded the expectations of the promoters in its success. While chiefly educational in its scope and influence, a good idea could be gotten of the vegetable and fruit growing wealth in the Willamette Valley, and the skill of the women of Lane county with the needle and in other handwork.

The intention was given up last Thursday of having an exhibition, but so many of the farmers brought fruit and other products, and their wives handwork, that a very creditable exhibit filled over two rooms. While the quantity was large, that feature was not so marked as the quality. Never were there finer apples, finer grained pumpkins, or more skillful needle, crochet and knitted work, quilts and manufactures, representing the industry of the section and of Springfield.

No money prizes are offered those who brought exhibits, but the contestants are given ribbons for first, second and third places in the various classes. This task of judgment will be finished by tonight.

The judges were: Painting—Mrs. Peery, Mrs. Keatly and Mrs. Van Valzah. Sewing—Mrs. Washburn, Mrs. Page and Mrs. Bryan. Manufactures—Mrs. Phetteplace, Mrs. Bryan and Mrs. Ryehard. Fruit—Dr. Van Valzah, Geo. Dorris and Dr. Emery. Vegetables and Grains—H. M. Stewart, J. J. Browning and Paul Bettelheim.

Old Papers. Among the exhibits were two copies of old papers, one telling of the death of George Washington. It belongs to Mrs. H. F. Ball, and is called the Ulster County Gazette. The date of publication is January 4, 1801. One is also in the collection of oddities relating to the death of Abraham Lincoln. A. S. Walker also has the first copy of the Springfield News which came off the press in March 21, 1891. There was also a sugar bowl, owned by Grandma Signor, which was labelled 130 years old.

Over two hundred entries were brought in by 11 o'clock today, with more to come. Besides these there were special exhibits by the Lane County Fruit Association, C. J. Dodd, J. Beebe, Henry Wiley, and others. J. Beebe, who is county fruit inspector, has samples of fruit and limbs taken from trees with various diseases, as samples.
