

McLEAN DESCRIBES TREATMENT AT HANDS OF POLICE OFFICERS

Thirty Hours Without Water and Food—Five Days in Custody

Thirty hours without food or water, and other persecutions is the treatment that B. D. McLean reports at the hands of Vancouver police officers. He was arrested on suspicion of being the murderer of Jeweler Butterworth of St. Johns, and held for five days at the police station, which he describes as five times worse than a hog pen, and as full of vermin and filth. From Wednesday noon at the time of his arrest, until Thursday evening, McLean had nothing to drink or eat, and for the five days while in the hands of the officers he had to buy his own food at a restaurant.

answer the swiftly repeated questions. McLean returned last Saturday. He says that many of the stories printed of him in both Portland and local newspapers are untrue. For instance the report published that he was married at sea, and that he eloped to do so, is totally false. He and his wife were married in a hotel at Astoria with the full permission and understanding of the bride's parents. A sister of the bride was with them. His numerous friends in and out of Eugene received the news of his release with the greatest joy. The investigation of the officers showed that they had made one of their numerous mistakes in arresting an innocent man. However, such treatment as McLean describes is not due to the most guilty criminal, not to consider the man who is held up on the barest suspicion.

REV. C. A. WOOLEY ON MR. TAFT

Editor Guard—On the eve of the presidential election, the Republican National Committee has issued a statement in defense of Candidate Taft's religious belief, evidently aimed as a vote catcher. In the interest of all who accept the Bible as a revelation of God's will and purpose, concerning the human race, and who accept Jesus Christ as the Son of God and Savior of Men, the following deductions are submitted, as standing out clearly on the face of Mr. Taft's religious creed: First, he rejects the Christian scriptures as of divine authority in religion. He denies the divinity of Jesus Christ; does not believe that he arose from the dead. While, therefore, he accepts in a way the teachings of Jesus, he only accepts such of them as are in accord with the fallible scientific researches and deductions of today. Believes not in God and Christ, of the Bible, but in a God of modern life. Which means if it means anything, to let every man conceive a God after the ideas and inclinations of his own mind, and worship the God which his own mind has created. In short Mr. Taft's religious belief exalts mere fallible human reason above the teachings of Jesus—when those teachings come into any degree of conflict with the deductions of scientific research, and human reason. Now, while Mr. Taft may be an acceptable candidate for the exalted position of president of the United States of America, to those who reject the Holy Bible, as the standard of authority in religion, he is a very unacceptable candidate from the religious standpoint; to those who love the Good Old Book and who have realized for themselves that Jesus Christ has power on earth to forgive sins. We do not find fault with those whose religious ideas agree with those of Mr. Taft for supporting them if they think he is as well qualified in other respects as Mr. Bryan. But how a devout believer in Jesus Christ who says of himself, "I am the way, the truth and the life; no man cometh to the Father but by me" can by his vote attempt to place Mr. Taft at the head of our great nation and turn down Mr. Bryan, a devout follower of Our Lord Jesus Christ, a man easily Mr. Taft's equal in every quality that goes to make up a wise, safe and great president and vastly Mr. Taft's superior in many points, is to us utterly unthinkable. For let it be kept in view, that this is not a mere choice so far as the religious idea goes, as between Christian denominations, but it is from the religious view point, a choice as between bible and no bible; between Christ as the Son of God and Savior of the World; and a humanly conceived and invented Jesus, who though a great teacher in his day, was yet fallible as a guide and not to be believed or followed in all his teachings. To reject the bible as divine authority in religion and Jesus Christ, as the divine savior of men would be to use the language of a great thinker, like "blotting out the sun in the heavens" and then vainly attempting to warm and light the world by kindling fires on the tops of the hills and mountains. C. A. WOOLEY.

FARMERS' FAIR A GREAT SUCCESS

(Continued from Page One.) fessor Howe, of the University, Superintendent J. H. Ackerman, of the state public school system; J. W. Bailey, food and dairy commissioner, and Prof. C. I. Lewis, of the Oregon Agricultural College. The institute began yesterday morning. In the afternoon the first of the program was held. President Campbell told the meeting of the value of education. He pointed out the great influx of trained Eastern men, whom the Oregon youth must compete with in the development of the Northwest. He therefore drew the conclusion that Oregon needs above all things strong educational institutions equal to Eastern colleges. Hon. J. W. Bailey gave a lecture on "Practical Dairying and Farming." He explained wheat farming, and showed how diversified farming pays so much more. In the evening the Springfield band gave a concert. After a splendid recitation by Miss Richmond, six little girls sang a song, which will cause comment among those who heard it for weeks to come. Then Professor Schaefer addressed the meeting on "Oregon History." This morning there was no regular program. This afternoon between 1 and 2 o'clock there was a baby show with nearly 50 contestants. At 2 o'clock Prof. C. I. Lewis, of the Agricultural College, addressed the meeting. He was followed by Hon. J. H. Ackerman and Hon. J. W. Bailey with good addresses. Last night the crowd in the Odd

CLAIMS MADE BY CHAIRMAN HITCHCOCK.

New York, Oct. 30.—In his forecast of the composition of the electoral college which will choose the next president and vice-president of the United States, made public at Republican headquarters tonight, National Chairman Hitchcock claims 325 Republicans or 82 more than will be required to elect. For the Republican ticket, Mr. Hitchcock is sure of New York, Ohio, and Indiana. He also includes in the Republican column, Nebraska, Montana, Maryland and Nevada. In explaining his list Mr. Hitchcock said that he believed his chances were even in Kentucky and Missouri with their 13 and 18 votes respectively. If by chance any of the states claimed should go Democratic, he said, they would be Maryland, Montana and Nevada, with a total of 14 votes. This would leave a Republican margin of 69, and of this advantage he expressed himself as perfectly confident. The National chairman does not include Tennessee and Oklahoma in his list and concedes that the chances in these states are against the Republican ticket. His forecast, Mr. Hitchcock said, was based upon information received by him up to tonight from party leaders throughout the United States. The states claimed for Taft and Sherman, with their electoral vote, follows: California...10 New Hampshire...4 Colorado...5 New Jersey...12 Connecticut...7 New York...39 Delaware...3 North Dakota...4 Idaho...3 Ohio...23 Illinois...27 Oregon...23 Indiana...15 Pennsylvania...34 Iowa...13 Rhode Island...4 Kansas...10 South Dakota...4 Maine...6 Utah...3 Maryland...8 Vermont...4 Massachusetts...16 Washington...5 Michigan...14 West Virginia...7 Minnesota...11 Wisconsin...13 Montana...3 Wyoming...3 Nebraska...8 Nevada...3 Total...325

More Hearst Letters. New York, October 29.—Arguments directed to the workmen and trade unionists, arranging the Republican and Democratic parties were made by a speech delivered by W. R. Hearst in Cooper Union tonight for the Independence League. Two letters from J. D. Archbold to the late W. J. Sewell, United States District Attorney for New Jersey, bearing on what Hearst called indifference of Representative Gardner, chairman of the house committee on labor to "Demands of the plain everyday workingman," figured in the speech and in two other letters which he said were written by Auditor King of the Democratic National committee to D. M. Parry, president of the Manufacturers' Association and to W. T. Maxwell, Parry's secretary. Hearst said the letter to Parry congratulated him on his reelection as president of that association, and on the adoption by the association of Parry's "Anti-Labor Union Policies." The letter to Maxwell, Hearst said, referred to a fight of the association against the International Typographical Union and against the eight hour bill in congress.
