RANKIN TIMBER LANDS BEING SOLD BY THE SHERIFF

Between 500 and 600 Acres Brodght Over $10,000 This Afternoon

This afternoon at the courthouse Sheriff Bown sold at sheriff's sale between 500 and 600 acres of timber belonging to M. B. Rankin, of Portland, to J. P. Porter, of Porter Bros., contractors, who built the North Bank railroad, for $10,321.

This was land levied upon to satisfy the judgment secured in the Lane county circuit court some time ago by H. C. Mahon, of this city. Mahon secured a judgment for $45,000 and the amount of land levied upon was 900 acres in Lane county and 4700 acres in Benton county. The remainder will be sold some time next week.

Much of this land contains some of the finest timber on the coast and is worth more by a good deal than it is bringing at sheriff's sale. It will be remembered that Mr. Mahon sued Mr. Rankin for $45,000 as a commission on the sale of several big tracts of timber in Lane and Benton counties, and won his suit in the circuit court.
