BIG EXCURSION TO CAPITAL CITY NEXT SATURDAY

High School Football Team Will Take Along Two Hundred Rooters

The list at the high school of those who are going on the excursion to Salem next Saturday, November 7, has passed the hundred mark and the special rate, $2.15 for the round trip, is now assured.

The football game between Eugene and Salem is recognized as the fastest and most important academic game to be played this season in the state. Eugene has not been defeated by any team so far. Salem has been defeated only by Hill Military Academy. Eugene is said to have this year the strongest team that the school has ever turned out. Salem is keeping still, but reports from there say that she has the fastest aggregation that the school has supported. It is said that Salem has resolved to win from Eugene this year, if her team is unable to play any other game afterward. The feeling seems to be the same as between the U. of O. and O. A. C.

The enthusiasm on each side grows intense. The local school will run an excursion train to Salem with two hundred rooters. Every night this week the rooters are practicing yells and songs. The team is working down new plays. In last Saturday's game few plays other than straight line licks were used because it was known that Salem supporters were taking notes on the side lines, but in the coming game some of the fastest playing, equal even to the 'varsity class, will be seen.

It seems that several business men have asked if other than students could take advantage of the excursion rate to Salem. This rate is open to all persons intending going their names beforehand to any high school student, who will turn it over to the proper committee, as it will enable the students to figure on the number of cars wanted.

PETER SPAREM DEFENDS OLD BILL OBEDIAH

(Special Correspondence.) Mapleton, Nov. 2.—In the Daily Guard of October 27 Old Bill Obediah gets a roasting from "Purity." We must be cautious not to speak heedlessly against any one, nor testify to more than we know to be true, but we should show that vain talkers belong to the world, though numbers class them among religious people, to the injury of the same.

Mr. Editor, as Old Bill Obediah is very busy now looking after his fruit and vegetables, I am now trying to answer "Purity's" letter. Will say that Old Bill Obediah and his family have never attended a dance in the state of Oregon, so this is falsehood No. 1, and the people who run the Sunday school known as the Union Sunday school dance all Saturday night until Sunday morning. This, Mr. Purity, is lie No. 2. Now in regard to drinking, we all know that Old Bill Obediah drinks nothing but soft drinks, except it be spiked by some one unbeknown to Old Bill, and in this case he would be excusable, and as for Old Bill bundling up his family and going down the river on a Sunday high time, is, Mr. Purity, lie No. 3. Mr. Purity, you misquote Old Bill when you say he clasped us all with himself as on the road to hell. He said that we were all preached to the bottomless pit of hell by a—well, we will call him another "Purity."

Mr. Editor, one would think that our town was a hard place by reading what Mr. Purity writes, but thank the Lord we have one sinless man here. I heard him in public say he never sinned, day or week, and would place both feet on the Bible and testify to the same if necessary. I will frankly confess that he is the only one of this make up in or near Mapleton. We feel proud to have one for it may be the cause of Mapleton standing a while longer. Now, Mr. "Purity Hoops," I will chop off for this time and let Old Bill Obediah write when he likes.

Yours truly,
PETER SPAREM, ESQ.

DEADWOOD ITEMS

(Special Correspondence.) Deadwood, Nov. 2.—O. Wilcutt, of Greenleaf, is in town with his witness, C. Burnett and C. Wilcutt, of Deadwood, to prove up on a timber claim.

Quite a few people of our neighborhood are out to attend court this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Tabor, of Alpha, went to the train last night and met Mr. Tabor's brother Ernest, of Portland, who came down to be with him during his trial.

Herman Steinhaus, of Greenleaf, had quite an exciting runaway with his team and new wagon. Luckily there was nothing broken except the reach.

Mrs. Annie Wilcutt, of this place, is in town today ready to file on a timber claim.

Dick Pope, whose old home is at Deadwood, but of late years of Junction, was married at Franklin to Miss Lena Richardson, of that place. Both parties have the best wishes of many friends.

There is expected to be a wedding at Alpha in the near future. Both parties live thereabouts.

Smith and Ralph Taylor, who reside on Indian Creek, are expecting to reach home tonight, both being fire wardens for the government.

I. Slayter, of Blachley, had a very good horse fall off a bridge and snag his shoulder. They were going to shoot it at last report.

Miss Beatrice Wilcutt will spend the winter in Eugene attending the Sisters' school.

SPORTING NOTES.

Brides and Coy look to be the Yale gridiron stars of 1908.

Billy Neall, the man who took Tommy Burns to London a year ago, is dying of consumption in Southern California.

Jimmy Kane, the Pirate's first baseman, will play basketball with a crack Pittsburg team this winter.

The National Commission at its coming meeting will be asked to reinstate the blacklisted players now with the Tri-State League.

The Cincinnati team will be given a swell time in Cuba, as the Cuban fans are into baseball up to their necks.

Houghton, Daly, Campbell and Graves constitute the coaching big four at Harvard. Each was a great player in his day.

It is said that seventy-three men of the name of Smith played professional ball last season. And "Broadway Alex" is still unaccounted for.

Two Chicago semi-pros will get a ### chance with the big leagues next season. Fred Beall will be with the Chicago Americans and Bill Medwsky with the St. Louis Nationals.

The Troy franchise in the New York State League has been forfeited to the league. Troy never was a good ball town from a financial viewpoint, and the team there has lost money for several years.
