DEATH OF COL. SLADDEN AT WEBSTER CITY

The Webster City, Iowa, Freeman-Tribune of October 26 contains the following account of the death of Colonel S. P. Sladden, of Eugene:

S. P. Sladden, who recently arrived in this city from Eugene, Oregon, and who has been dangerously ill since, passed away yesterday afternoon at 1:40 o'clock at the home of his daughter, Mrs. E. D. Burgess. Mr. Sladden's death is the result of septic poisoning caused by decayed teeth, complicated with valvular heart trouble.

Sidney P. Sladden was born January 22, 1822, at Herne Parsonage, county of Kent, England, and was confirmed in the Canterbury cathedral. He was united in marriage with Harriet E. Pocock December 24, 1855, at Muscatine, Iowa. Deceased leaves a wife and three children—Mrs. Fannie Sladden-Nelson, of Chicago; Mrs. Edward D. Burgess, of Webster City, and Sidney C. Sladden, of New York City. Also two grandchildren, Mrs. James A. Buell and Miss Beulah Sladden. All of these were present when the deceased passed away. Father Sladden called each one of them to his bedside, and after embracing and kissing them was ready to go.

Mr. Sladden retired from the wholesale grocery business in Chicago in 1881 and removed to Webster City, where he resided until 1885. During that time Mr. and Mrs. Sladden's daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Nelson, made their home here. Mr. Nelson being engaged in the lumber business. While the deseased was a resident here he built the home now occupied by C. A. Brennecke and family, and also the residence just east of the Brennecke home.

The funeral was held this afternoon at 4 o'clock at the Burgess home on Wilson avenue, conducted by Rev. J. O. Thrish, of the Congregational church.

The remains will be taken to Chicago this evening, accompanied by Mrs. Sladden, Mrs. Nelson, Mrs. Burgess and S. C. Sladden. The body will be laid to rest at Rose Hill cemetery.

In their great sorrow the family have the sympathy of their Webster City friends.

How Is Your Digestion?

Mrs. Mary Bowling of No. 228 8th Ave., San Francisco, recommends a remedy for stomach trouble. She says: "Gratitude for the wonderful effect of Electric Bitters in a case of acute indigestion, prompts this testimonial. I am fully convinced that for stomach and liver troubles Electric Bitters is the best remedy in the market today." This great tonic and alterative medicine invigorates the system, purifies the blood and is especially helpful in all forms of female weakness. 50c. At W. A. Kuykendall's Drug Store.

GIRL'S LETTER AS EVIDENCE AGAINST THE DRS. ATWOOD

Pearl Lamb Wrote Before Her Death That She Was Undergoing Dangerous Operation

L. Lamb, father of Pearl Lamb, who died in the Drs. Atwood's "maternity hospital," in Portland a few days ago, the arrest of the doctors for malpractice following, is in the city today. He has found a letter in the girls' trunk, which was left in Eugene when she went to Portland, that will be used as evidence against the Atwoods. The letter was written to her parents, but never mailed. The girl stated that she was about to have an operation performed which might prove fatal to her, and she asked to be forgiven for her wrongdoing. She did not mean to do wrong, she said, but told of the temptations that are always before a girl in town, especially a working girl, and she explained that she had yielded to them, only to regret her folly. The letter indicated deep contrition on the girl's part, also sorrow for her folks in their disgrace if her death should occur under the circumstances. She expressed her deep love for a certain young man residing at Deadwood and stated that if she had loved him when she left home a few months ago as she did when she wrote the letter, she never would have gotten into this trouble. The letter is pathetic and indicates that the girl had little hope of surviving the operation.

Watched Fifteen Years.

"For fifteen years I have watched the working of Bucklen's Arnica Salve; and it has never failed to cure any sore, boil, ulcer or burn to which it was applied. It has saved us many a doctor bill." says A. F. Hardy, of East Wilton, Maine, 25c at W. A. Kuykendall's Drug Store.

We make no specialty of any one line; all goods bought of J. S. Luckey, the pioneer jeweler of Eugene are first class and strictly up-to-date. Call and examine. A pleasure to show goods. Prices to suit. tf

STOLEN SUIT CASE FOUND BUT NOT FROM EUGENE

A suit case containing feminine wearing apparel, was found Saturday in the local yards of the Leona Mills Lumber Co., by John Dalyrymple, an employe. The outfit is probably the one stolen from the S. P. depot in Eugene a few days ago. Sheriff Fenton to whom the find was delivered, is now in communication with Eugene to get the property identified, if possible. The contents of the suit case are costly, consisting among other things, of a tailor-made suit and three silk waists. The garments had been little disturbed, the thief evidently deciding that there was nothing in sight that he could use or dispose of to advantage.—Roseburg Review.

Upon inquiry at the office of Sheriff Bown, it was learned that the suit case stolen in Eugene contained surgical instruments, so the one found at Roseburg was stolen somewhere else.
