Greatest Demonstration in the History of Lincoln

Lincoln, Neb., Nov. 2.—The greatest demonstration in the history of Lincoln was given to W. J. Bryan by his fellow townsmen tonight on his return to his home city at the close of his campaign. Non-partisan in character, it was participated in by Democrats and Republicans alike, and when the Democratic candidate was escorted through the streets, he was cheered by almost the entire population of the city. The reception was tendered him as a citizen of Lincoln rather than as a candidate, and in the speech that he made he avoided all reference to partisan issues. In the parade which followed his automobile from the Union Pacific station however, many political transparencies were carried.

Bryan Moved to Tears

Mr. Bryan reached his home city at 8:30 o'clock. His train was met by a tremendous crowd, and as the score of carriages and automobiles forming his immediate escort started across the viaduct from the railroad station the great parade fell into line behind him. The parade moved through the main street of the city, through solid masses of cheering humanity, and returned to the Hotel Lincoln, where Mr. Bryan spoke, overlooking the public square.

Mr. Bryan's speech was greeted with vociferous cheers. The candidate was moved to tears as he made an affectionate reference to his wife, and when he closed, the demonstration accorded him was such as he rarely had experienced in his three campaigns.

Solemn Pledge to Supporters

"I believe I am going to be elected," he said. "More than that, I believe that it is going to be more than a bare victory. I believe that there is a stirring of the conscience of the American people; a moral awakening, an uprising that means a sweeping victory, and I will swear in your presence that no one who votes for me will ever have occasion to be ashamed of the vote he casts." In the course of his speech Mr. Bryan said: "There are unpleasant features in public life, but its rewards far outweigh its unpleasant parts, and nothing has occurred in my life that I appreciate more than the cordial reception that you have given me in my home city at the close of this campaign. To have lived among you with the publicity that attaches to the present campaign and then to have this evidence of your good will makes this night memorable in my life. While it has sometimes been humiliating to have it thrown up to me that my city has never given me a majority (votes)—while, I repeat, it has been humiliating, yet, as a matter of fact, I have always had a large complimentary vote from the Republican citizens of Lincoln.

Speaks for Republican Votes

"Without the votes of many Republicans I would not have been elected to congress in 1892, for my majority was only 140, and without that election I would not have been nominated for the presidency in 1896. Therefore I can feel grateful to the Republicans who gave me my start and whose votes were absolutely necessary to my election on that occasion. And whatever the Republicans of Lincoln do in the future, they have done enough in the past by laying the foundation of my political career to make me their debtor while I live."

Last Speech of Campaign

Marysville, Kan., Nov. 2.—William J. Bryan concluded his campaign of the state of Kansas and of the United States before an enthusiastic audience here tonight.

It was the last political speech of the campaign, his address to be given at Lincoln being non-partisan, but simply a talk of a neighbor to his neighbors. Mr. Bryan realized that it was the concluding speech of the campaign and his words were given with more than ordinary feeling. His peroration was delivered with all the earnestness at his command, and as he declared that he had given an impulse to honest politics and helped to create a sentiment in favor of reform, he was wildly applauded by the large audience. Following is the conclusion of the last campaign speech made by Mr. Bryan in 1908:

Has Stood Rigid Test.

"Ladies and gentlemen, I am now 48 years of age. It is eighteen years since I began my political career as a candidate for congress. I told the people of my district that if elected I would not try to get their hands into other people's pockets; that I would simply try to keep other people's hands out of their pockets. For eighteen years this thought has run through every speech and act. I have tried to apply to government the Jeffersonian maxim of 'equal rights to all, special privileges to none.' I have tried to help make this government a government of the people, by the people and for the people.

"For eighteen years you have had a chance to scan my every speech and act. While republican leaders have disappeared as a result of investigations, I have invited the scrutiny of my opponents and have outlived their criticisms and their misrepresentations. I know not what the future has for me; I know not whether it is the people's wish that I be their spokesman in the White House or continue to perform the work which I have tried to perform as a private citizen; but I have not lived in vain. I have given an impulse to honest politics; I have helped to create a sentiment in favor of reform and as a candidate I have but one thing to rely upon—the confidence of the masses in my fidelity to their interests.

Lines Up Taft With Trusts

"My opponent has behind him all those forces which are considered potent in politics; but I would rather have the love of the people, the affection of the multitude in whose behalf I have fought than to hold any office. If I enter the White House I shall enter it free to keep the pledges I have made; free to serve with singleness of purpose. If I am elected I shall for four years, devote whatever energy I have and whatever ability I possess to the one object of making this government again a government in which the people rule and under which every citizen shall draw from society a reward proportionate to the service which he renders to his fellow men."

TAFT'S LAST DAY

OF CAMPAIGN IS

ONE OF ACTIVITY

Youngstown, Ohio, Nov. 2.—The last word of his campaign has been spoken by Judge Taft and he is now speeding to Cincinnati to cast his vote tomorrow.

"Vote the Republican ticket and preserve prosperity, protection to American industry, business integrity, and the rights of labor."

This was the message with which Taft ended his fight. The close of the campaign in this city tonight was in magnitude and enthusiasm a fitting climax to all that has gone before. The six and a half hours Taft spent in Youngstown were crowded with political events, resplendent with pomp and show of party organization, and carnival of hilarity, noise and general abandon by the populace to the occasion. Three speeches were required of the candidate, preceding which he reviewed a parade miles in length, composed of thousands of uniformed marchers.

The last day of the campaign was remarkable in that there was an increase rather than a diminishing of crowds and enthusiasm wherever he went. Beginning his work at Dunkirk, N. Y., this morning, he made addresses at Westfield, New York, Erie, Pa., Ashtabula, Garrettsville, Cleveland and Youngstown. The Cleveland meeting was a monster affair and was preceded by a parade which was reviewed by the candidate, who passed the lines in an automobile. Judge Taft's speech here was a repetition of his argument to show there should be no change in the policies of the government as applied by the present administration, and in addition he took occasion to emphasize as he had done throughout the day that notwithstanding opposition to him and the Republican party by Samuel Gompers he would, if elected, maintain his great sympathy for and interest in the welfare of organized and unorganized labor.

At Cleveland the Taft meeting was presided over by A. L. Faulkner, of the National Order of Woodmen of the World. The city was alive with political activity, throughout the day, meetings being in progress long before the arrival of the Taft special at 4 o'clock.

Among the prominent speakers were Garfield and Representative Burke, of Pennsylvania. Judge Taft's special left here shortly before 11 o'clock.

I AM A MOTHER

How many American women in lonely homes to-day long for this blessing to come into their lives, and to be able to utter these words, but because of some organic derangement this happiness is denied them. Every woman interested in this subject should know that preparation for healthy maternity is accomplished by the use of LYDIA E. PINKHAM'S VEGETABLE COMPOUND

Mrs. Maggie Gilmer, of West Union, S. C., writes to Mrs. Pinkham: "I was greatly run-down in health from a weakness peculiar to my sex, when Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound was recommended to me. It not only restored me to perfect health, but to my delight I am a mother."

Mrs. Josephine Hall, of Bardonia, Ky., writes: "I was a very great sufferer from female troubles, and my physician failed to help me. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound not only restored me to perfect health, but I am now a proud mother."

FACTS FOR SICK WOMEN.

For thirty years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs, has been the standard remedy for female ills, and has positively cured thousands of women who have been troubled with displacements, inflammation, ulceration, fibroid tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, that bearing-down feeling, flatulency, indigestion, dizziness or nervous prostration. Why don't you try it?

Mrs. Pinkham invites all sick women to write her for advice. She has guided thousands to health. Address, Lynn, Mass.

COUNTRY SAVED BY

CAKLE OF GOOSE

Evansville, Ind., Nov. 2.—Congressman A. O. Stanley, of Kentucky, who spoke here last week, was introduced by Mayor Boehne as the next governor of Kentucky. Of this Mr. Stanley said:

"If Augustus Willson and the American Tobacco Company keep up their campaign there won't be any need of my running; the people will elect me by acclamation. My boom seems to be growing fine in Indiana. I haven't heard from Kentucky."

In the course of speech Stanley turned to Longworth for a sarcastic salutation.

"When the guards slept at the gate of Rome one night the foot creeping near ran into a flock of geese, whose cackling uncovered the attackers' plot. The goose was made a sacred bird and emblem. History repeats itself."

"Mr. Bryan and the newspapers have been warning us that the high-handed plan of the president to name a successor was the earnest desire of a dynasty, and that after all the president wanted to leave a fat boy in his seat while he went for a hunt, after which he would return and claim it. There was no way to prove it, yet there was every reason to suspect it."

"Wisdom failed to uncover the plot of the liberties of the American people, like the safety of ancient Rome, have been saved by the babbling of a goose. The Democratic party can now stab its ass, and like the Romans, we will immortalize the goose. In benevolent stupidity, Nicholas has put the donkey out of business."
