Nov. 6.—Politics will furnish the principle topic for the twenty-eighth annual convention of the American Federation of Labor. It is said by local union leaders that the Federation, with its two million members and more than one million voters, will adopt a permanent amendment to its constitution. There is vigorous opposition to any policy looking to binding the union to follow any fixed political lines, though many feel that such a plan is advisable.

Germany is ready to accept a proposal from France whereby with mutual expression of regret the entire incident will be referred to arbitration.

Bank Wrecker Receives Long Prison Sentence

New York, Nov. 6.—C. W. Morse, whose sensational rise in the financial world dazzled America, was sentenced to 15 years in the penitentiary for misapplication of the funds of the National Bank of North America, of which he was a director and controlling owner. Alfred H. Curtis, former president of the bank, was found guilty, though clemency was recommended and sentence suspended. A stay of ten days of execution for Morse's sentence was granted to permit appeal.

A murmur of approval and a faint attempt at applause was heard when sentence upon Curtis was suspended by the Court. When the sentence was pronounced on Morse the room was still as a church, broken only by the sobs of the faithful wife of the guilty man, who was led to the ante-room where she was soon followed by Morse who endeavored to comfort her.

Lots of Men, in Buying Clothes are, not half particular enough about quality; they'll buy almost anything that looks stylish and fits if the price is low. It's the wrong way to buy clothes. We hope you don't buy yours that way. The right way is to be sure first of the quality you are getting. Is it all wool? Is it well tailored? A price means nothing unless you know what you are getting for it. In this store we want you to know what you are getting for your money; we're not afraid to tell you, either. Ask if the goods are all wool; ask if they are tailored right; ask about style; wear; try the clothes on. But if you see the Hart, Shaffner & Marx label in the clothes, just consider it an answer to your question; all wool; clean, honest tailoring; correct style; wear; price will be right.
