NATIONAL FLOWER SHOW OPENS IN CHICAGO

Chicago, Ill., Nov. 6.—With all the bustle and confusion that usually accompanies the opening of a large exhibition, the first national flower show, under the auspices of the Society of American Florists, began in the Coliseum this afternoon. There was a large attendance, and considering the magnitude of the exhibition the big show was in fairly good order. By tomorrow it is expected to have every exhibit installed and the whole affair in the most attractive shape possible.

The exhibition is the largest affair of its kind ever attempted in this country. Nearly $15,000 in cash prizes and hundreds of medals will be distributed among the successful exhibitors.

Among the interesting features of the display are choice exhibits from private estates in Chicago and vicinity, from the famous country places in New Jersey and along the Hudson and the country surrounding Boston and Philadelphia. Among the noted exhibitors are Thomas W. Lawson of Boston, Henry C. Frick of Pittsburg, and Samuel Untemyer and H. McK. Twombly of New York. The flowers displayed include almost every variety known to the American fancier. Especially noteworthy, however, for the number and variety of the exhibits are the departments devoted to roses, orchids and cyprianthemums.

CALIFORNIA WINTER RACING SEASON BEGINS

Oakland, Cal., Nov. 6.—The season of winter racing in California will be inaugurated tomorrow with the opening of the New California Jockey Club's meeting at Emeryville. All indications point to a successful meeting. The club has substantially increased the value of the stakes and handicaps over the figures of previous years. The most notable increase is in the Burns handicap, which is to have a value of $10,000 added money instead of $10,000 guaranteed.

Albany Apple Fair, Nov. 10 to 12. For the above occasion the Southern Pacific Company will sell round trip tickets to Albany and return at one and one-third fare, on November 10th, 11th and 12th. All tickets limited to November 13th. A. J. GILLETTE, Agent.

WORLD FAMOUS ATHLETES TO MEET IN AMERICA

New York, Nov. 7.—The lovers of athletic sports in this city may soon be given an opportunity to witness a contest for supremacy between John J. Hayes, winner of the Marathon race in the Olympic games at London last July, and Dorando Petri, the Italian runner who finished the first in the great race, but was disqualified because of being helped across the line.

Pat Powers, who is endeavoring to bring the two fast runners together, has received a cable dispatch stating that Dorando sails for New York today. If Hayes can arrange his theatrical engagements the race will probably be held the latter part of this month in Madison Square Garden. It will be over the same distance as the Marathon race, that is, 26 miles, 385 yards.

If Hayes and Dorando meet it will be the real sporting sensation of the winter and undoubtedly will attract an enormous crowd. No athletic contest of modern times created such feelings as the finish in the Marathon race in London last summer. Dorando, who was leading by about four minutes, collapsed after entering the stadium. Half a mile or so before reaching the finish Dorando, it was said, received a drink of wine which caused his legs to give way under him. At any rate he was in a frightful state and sprawled on the track, but the spectators in their excitement helped him to his feet and he managed to cross the line. A protest was lodged by the Americans and Hayes got the race. A special prize was presented to Dorando by Her Majesty Queen Alexandra.

NEW PRESIDENT INSTALLED AT NEWBERRY

Newberry, S. C., Nov. 6.—The inauguration today of Rev. John Henry Harms as president of Newberry College, in succession to Dr. James A. B. Scherer, proved a red-letter day for the famous institution of learning. The alumni body was well represented and the other visitors included many members of the South Carolina synod of the Lutheran church.

The program of exercises, held in Holland Hall on the college campus, provided for addresses by Dr. M. G. G. Scherer, of Charleston, president of the South Carolina synod; Rev. J. A. Sligh, of Newberry, president of the board of trustees of the college, and Dr. A. J. Bowers, representing the faculty.
