

MELY MATRONS PRAISE PERUNA

The only valuable testimony which any household remedy can have is the testimony of those who have used it. It is worse to be useless to discuss Peruna from a theoretical standpoint. It is what Peruna will do, not what people say about it, that constitutes evidence. The housewives of the United States know what Peruna will do. They have tried it. They have realized its benefit in the family. They are the ones that are competent to speak of it. Self-appointed critics know nothing of it whatever.

Peruna Their Family Medicine.

Mrs. Anna C. Hyde, 712 E. Yamhill street, Portland, Oregon, Vice President Literary and Educational Organization of New Hampshire, writes:

"I am pleased to endorse Peruna as an all-round good family medicine, and one that is safe to give children. I give it to mine at the least suggestion of a cold, and take it myself to build up my strength and nerves.

"My sister, who is living with me, uses Peruna, too, and she is loud in its praises.

"Your medicine is certainly worthy of praise."

Backache, Headache.

Mrs. Tressie Nelson, 609 N. Fifth Ave., Nashville, Tenn., writes:

"As Peruna has done me a world of good, I feel in duty bound to tell of it, in hopes that it may meet the eye of some woman who has suffered as I did.

"For five years I really did not know what a perfectly well day was, and if I did not have headache, I had backache or a pain somewhere and really life was not worth the effort I made to keep going.

"A good friend advised me to use Peruna and I was glad to try anything, and I am very pleased to say that six bottles made a new woman of me and I have no more pains and life looks bright again."

Catarrh of Bowels.

Mrs. Maggie Durbin, 1822 North street, Little Rock, Ark., writes:

"I was troubled for five years with a chronic disease. I tried everything I heard of, but nothing did me any good. Some doctors said my trouble was catarrh of the bowels, and some said consumption of the bowels. One doctor said he could cure me. I took his medicine two months, but it did me no good.

"A friend of mine advised me to try Peruna and I did so. After I had taken two bottles I found it was helping me, so I continued its use, and it has cured me sound and well.

"I can recommend Peruna to anyone, and if anyone wants to know what Peruna did for me if they will write to me I will answer promptly."

Testimony of These Three Housewives Demonstrates Beyond All Doubt That Peruna is a Safe and Useful Remedy.

Gained Flesh on Peruna.

Hattie Hamilton, R. F. D. No. 2, Ky., writes:

"I have taken two bottles of Peruna and gained on the third one. I did not need the third one, but thought to take another bottle.

"I was always weighed 102 pounds, and I began taking Peruna I weigh the first time in all my life, and I am thirty-three years old. Your medicine has surely done me a great deal of good, and I have recommended several others who have begun it.

"My mother, who is seventy-six years old and grows so weak she could hardly walk. She took two bottles of Peruna and is fresher and looking well."

Internal Catarrh.

M. F. Jones, of Burning Springs, writes:

"My family should ever be without Peruna, for it is an unfailing cure for internal catarrh, and it is an excellent remedy to take and relieve a cough.

"I had catarrh of the kidneys and bladder. I have taken Peruna until now, and I do not think I need to take it any longer.

"I feel well, and my tongue is clear, and I have no bitter taste in my mouth. I am very thankful for Peruna."

Kidneys and Bladder.

Mrs. Gus. H. Carlson, Box 201, Ortonville, Minn., writes:

"I had catarrh of the kidneys and bladder. I have taken Peruna until now, and I do not think I need to take it any longer.

"I feel well, and my tongue is clear, and I have no bitter taste in my mouth. I am very thankful for Peruna."

Constipation, Torpid Liver.

Mrs. Anthony Rauch, 306 N. Walnut street, Bucyrus, O., writes:

"I was suffering from obstinate constipation and torpid liver, when I took your advice and purchased six bottles of Peruna and Manalin. When I had taken only one bottle I felt much better, and since I have taken two more bottles I feel entirely well, but I will continue taking the medicine for a short time to make sure of my cure.

"I think Manalin is one of the finest remedies for constipation that I ever tried. I will never be without it. It has made me so strong. I can do a day's work and never tire. I am so glad I do not get those dizzy spells any more. I haven't had one since I took your medicine.

Internal Catarrh.

"I cannot thank you enough for what your medicine has done for me. All sick people should give it a fair trial."

Kidneys and Bladder.

Mrs. Gus. H. Carlson, Box 201, Ortonville, Minn., writes:

"I had catarrh of the kidneys and bladder. I have taken Peruna until now, and I do not think I need to take it any longer.

"I feel well, and my tongue is clear, and I have no bitter taste in my mouth. I am very thankful for Peruna."

JUSTICE PECKHAM

ELIGIBLE TO RETIRE

Washington, D. C., Nov. 7.—Justice Peckham reached his seventieth year today and consequently adds another to the list of members of the Supreme Court who are eligible to retirement. It is a pretty general rule among the members of the court to take advantage of the law which permits them to retire with full pay when they have reached the age of seventy, though in the case of a few members which have been least with robust health they have waived the rule and have continued to serve the court for several years after they have reached the age of seventy. At other times the exigencies of politics have caused them to hold on or to retire, as the case may be, in the hope that their places may be filled with men of their own party.

Now that the complexion of the national administration has been settled for four years to come it would not be surprising if there should be some changes in the personnel of the supreme tribunal before many months have elapsed. Besides Justice Peckham there are four members of the court who have passed the retiring age. These are Melville W. Fuller, Chief Justice, who is 75; John M. Harlan, associate justice, who is only three months the junior of the Chief Justice; David J. Brewer, associate justice, who will be 71 next June, and Justice Peckham, who is seventy years old today.

President Roosevelt is not likely to have an opportunity to name a member of the Supreme Court, but his successor, who will take office March 4 next, will in all probability have the naming of at least four members of the court to take the place of those now eligible to retire. Chief Justice Fuller has already given nearly six years more to the arduous task of weighing every matter coming before the court than he would have had to give. He is a hale and hearty, well-preserved old man and bears his three score and fifteen years with grace. Though for the time he is chief justice Mr. Fuller is compelled by precedent and Associate Justice David J. Brewer became eligible for retirement last year, having been born in Asia Minor in 1837, his father having been a missionary to Turkey. Whether he intends to avail himself of the privilege to retire in the near future, is not known. He appears to be a man of excellent health. In politics he is a Republican. It is believed that Justice Peckham will probably avail himself of the opportunity to retire. During the past few years his health has not been of the best and more than a year ago, it was rumored that he was likely to quit the bench. He took his seat in 1895, succeeding the late Howell E. Jackson of Tennessee. He is a Democrat, but was never very active in politics. At the time of his appointment by President Cleveland he was a justice of the supreme court of appeals of New York. He is a native of Albany and has served as a district attorney and a corporation counsel of that city before he became a judge. He is highly esteemed by his associates on the supreme bench as well as by all others who know him.

Next to Chief Justice Fuller, in point of years, comes Justice Harlan. He is a man of large physique, and seemingly as full of health as the best of men. But he has reached an age where most men seek rest from active affairs, and his retirement here long is expected. His has been an exceedingly active career. He comes from Virginia via Kentucky, that is, his ancestors were Virginians. He is a Republican and in 1873 he was the Republican candidate for governor of Kentucky. He has been an associate justice of the Supreme Court since 1877.

UPLIFT COMMISSION STARTS REGULAR WORK

More, Md., Nov. 6.—The membership commission, of which Libby Hyde, native of Corvallis, is chair, is organized up at the agricultural college of Maryland today to organize to build their first hearing. The meeting is preliminary to an extensive tour of the country by the members of the commission, in the course of which they will visit agricultural colleges and confer with farm-laborers and others in various parts of the country. The work from next Monday the members will have a general session in Washington to meet the masters of the State Granges and representatives of agricultural colleges and experiment stations. The session will last two days and at its conclusion the commissioners will leave for the Southwest, going through Tennessee, Oklahoma and Texas, and thence through Arizona, New Mexico and California. Both the northern and southern group of the Rocky Mountain states will be covered. On the return east there will be hearings in practically all of the middle western states. The party will return for a final hearing in Washington about the middle of December.
