CHANGES IN PLAN OF THE FOREST SERVICE OFFICE
New Plan Will Provide Convenience in All Stages of Business

On December 1, the Forest Service office in Washington, abandoned in its extensive work the working force will be distributed along the six district boundaries in the West. The new plan to facilitate the handling of public business and chiefly to increase convenience in making arrangements, contests, claims, that will be provided. A. B. Coburn, supervisor of the Stulow forest reserve, there are about 400 employees going to the district offices, which will be distributed in Portland, San Francisco, Denver, Ogden, and Albuquerque, New Mexico. The district office in Portland is the best equipped in Oregon, Washington and Idaho. In all the forest reserves there are perhaps 1200 employees, but a handful of them in Washington, D. C., all going to the district offices. Gifford Pinchot, the head of the forest service, with his small corps, will be on matters of policy. Supervisor Coburn described the new plan as a wonderful one, on what to him is so many a millionaire, and cases for his forest work. The new plan will be in effect on November 1. Under his policy and advice, Congress in 1894 provided that settlers on lands in the forest reserves, if they actually live upon the land, should be permitted to be filled upon. In the Stulow reserve 175 such applications have been made and the forest reserve well. One that the supervisor brought into his office something like $1500.

IS UNNEGCARY TO SUFFER WITH STOMACH TROUBLE

IT SEEMS STRANGE THAT SO MANY PEOPLE CONTINUE TO BE STOMACH SUFFERERS WITH PROMPT RELIEF SO HANDY—GUARD READERS WILL FIND PROMPT RELIEF IN DIAPEPSIN.

Miserable is the man or woman who suffers from the dread Indigestion or Dyspepsia. There are few diseases which create such misery, long drawn-out suffering, as indigestion. It pursues them before meals, after meals and between meals; they take it to bed with them. It is with them wherever they go, though indigestion is the simplest disease of all to cure.

Tell such afflicted ones, dear reader of Pape's Diapepsin; urge the sufferer to go to any pharmacy here and give 50 cents for a case. Such a sufferer would ever bless you, because five minutes after taking there would be no more indigestion, no feeling like a lump of lead in the stomach, or heartburn, or fullness or discomfort, no belching of gas or eructations of your food, debilitating headache, nausea, water brash and other symptoms of a sour, disordered stomach.

Pape's Diapepsin will digest anything you eat without the aid of the stomach.

Diapepsin is a wonderful stomach purifier and splendid to keep the intestines clean and fresh; then your food will not ferment and poison your breath with nauseous odors.

Diapepsin will rest the stomach and increase the gastric juices; this is what is mostly needed—more and better digestive juices—and no Gas—then indigestion and all stomach trouble will go.

Each 50c case contains sufficient to usually thoroughly cure the most chronic dyspepsia.

Mind Your Business.

If you don't nobody will. It is your business to keep out of all the trouble you can and you can will keep out of liver and bowel trouble if you take Dr. King's New Life Pills. They keep biliousness, malaria, and jaundice out of your system. 25c at W. A. Kuykendall's drug store.
