PRESIDENT GOMPERS FULLY ENDORSED BY LABOR LEADERS

Denver, Nov. 19.—When the report of President Gompers to the American Federation of Labor was called for today, Gompers relinquished the chair to Seventh Vice President Valentine.

There was no discussion of the committee's report until the sub-head, "Litigation harassing labor" was reached. On this subject the committee declared that when a judge issued an injunction in labor disputes it is the duty of organized labor to disobey and go to jail, and advised that the funds of the organization be not used to defend any such suit "because it believes it would be a useless expenditure."

James Duncan, of the Granite Cutters, first vice president of the Federation, opposed the recommendation. He said that union men were law-abiding men and should proceed like any other citizens to defend themselves at all hazards.

President Andrew Furuseth of the Seamen's union, upheld the report of the committee.

COMMITTEE DEFEATED

Denver, Nov. 19.—In a test vote on the report of the committee on the report of the president, President Gompers was defeated today in his desire to have that portion of the report on "litigation harassing labor" referred back to the committee.

Gompers desired the whole matter sent back to the committee, but the convention did not sustain him.
