LARGER CROWDS AT FAIR THAN ANTICIPATED

Opening Day of Exhibition at Cottage Grove Passed

PAVILION AND POULTRY

(Staff Correspondence.)
Cottage Grove, Nov. 20.—The first day of the Cottage Grove fair passed off with a larger attendance than was anticipated when the day opened.
After the morning exercises the crowd increased in numbers along in the afternoon until at times there was a jam in the pavilion and poultry house.
In the pavilion is placed the women's exhibit, and to say what it consists of would take up too much space. There are pieced quilts, embroidery work of all descriptions, hair work, such as wreaths, chains, etc., oil, pastel and photographed pictures, hand-painted china, Battenburg lace, bead work, pyrography specimens, crocheted, knitted and plm work, sofa pillows and all the work that a woman makes a delight in manufacturing.
One special feature in this department was a postal card upon which was written a message of 23 lines and done by a man 90 years of age.
The text is clear, the lines being uniform and the letter perfectly formed.
Several drawings and paintings are exhibited, being the work of children ranging in age from 6 to 12 years.
This feature is especially worthy of mention.
In the culinary line are to be found such products of the housewife's skill as bread, cakes, pie, home made candy, doughnuts and other dainties.
The minting exhibit was not as large as was expected, still there is a fine showing from the Champion mine, which consists of free milling gold ore.
The showing of vegetables is exceptionally fine, consisting of all kinds of vegetables grown in this latitude. There are mammoth pumpkins, gigantic squashes, huge potatoes and beets and carrots as long as the moral law, onions that rival in size Lane county's biggest apples, cabbage heads that weigh as much as 25 pounds, and other things in proportion. Perhaps the largest individual display is that of Hardy Crow, of Loraine, and consists of a general line of vegetables and apples. Fred Walker, of Cottage Grove, has on display some yellow dent corn which compares favorably with that grown in Iowa or Nebraska. There is also a good showing of flint corn and some popcorn grown on land that was broken up 53 years ago. All of this has reached a high state of perfection.

The exhibits of the pupils in all grades of the Cottage Grove schools is very creditable. There are maps, compositions and papers on various subjects, as well as specimens of penmanship that are far above the average. One feature of this showing is that of the first graders, who have submitted samples of their ability in the paper cutting line, imitating flowers and fruits.
The Cottage Grove Manufacturing Company has a fine booth in which they have a fine showing of mission furniture, such as tables, chairs, pedestals, stands, doors and mantels.
The Oregon Mineral Water Company also has a fine showing of its celebrated brand of London mineral water. This company makes its headquarters in Cottage Grove and is doing a good business.
E. C. Morton, the Crosswell harness maker, has on exhibition a set of double harness which is pronounced by those who know to be one of the finest specimens of harness maker's art ever shown to the public. The harness is the handiwork of Mr. Morton's son, who learned the trade in his father's shop at Crosswell.
Veatch & Dawson, the popular Grover hardware dealers, also have a booth arranged in which they show a line of the finest bedroom and parlor furniture, carpets, rugs, etc.
Livestock Section
In the livestock section there are not as many exhibits as the management would have liked to see, but still the stock shown is of a high class and worthy of mention. In the big line are seen Poland Chinas and Duroc Jerseys, shown by J. A. Morgan, Curtis Veatch, W. M. Wheeler, registered Southdown sheep shown by S. B. Morse; Angora goats representing the herds of Edgar King and Curtis Veatch; Felix Curran has on show a fine five-months-old Short-horn bull and Mrs. Sarah Cochran is showing one of the finest Jersey bulls in Lane county. This animal is two years old. A Durham bull is also shown by J. I. Jones. This bull is five years old and is from the herd of the Ladds at Portland.
In the section set apart for the showing of fine horses are to be found several of the best bred equines on the Pacific coast. Prominent among those on exhibition is a grade Morgan stallion owned by Will Hainbridge, a Percheron and some colt six months old by J. D. Anderson, who also shows a grade Clyde mare two years old that is a beauty.

J. I. Jones shows several fine horses, consisting of a grade Shire colt five months old that is as large as an ordinary yearling, a grade Shire two-year-old that stands 17 hands high and weighs in the neighborhood of 1700 pounds, the imported Shire stallion "Bouncing Boy" that weighs an even ton and is owned by what is known as the Shire Company, of which Mr. Jones is manager. W. B.
Cooper has on exhibition a Wilkes-Hackney stallion—a roadster, as well as his driving mare, "Alice Roosevelt," a full sister to the stallion above and who is called "Teddy R." The mare is said to be the finest driver in this part of the state, and Mr. Cooper has refused $500 for her several times.
The exhibit of horses is under the immediate supervision of J. B.
Wheeler, a horseman of years of experience and a gentleman who at all times places his services at the option of others in showing the stock at improvements in the place.
Judging of the exhibits will take place today and then The Guard will endeavor to give its readers the full list as decided by those who are to pass upon the merits of what has been shown at the fair.
Cottage Grove Notes
Hanna and Cline have purchased the cigar store formerly conducted by M. A. Clark and have made several improvements in the place.
S. E. Wallace has a force of men engaged in tearing down the walls of the Veatch block recently damaged by fire and when this is completed will begin the erection of a new building. The new block will set back from the street five feet further than the old one, to line with the other buildings in the block.
There is more or less talk on the streets here about a new county, with this city as the county seat.
The new Burkholder block is nearly completed. Carpenters are at work fitting up the interior and the building will soon be occupied by a dry goods store.
Cottage Grove has a new theatre—the Arcade—which opened its doors to the public last night.
