CITY NEWS

cars can be obtained. There has been a car shortage for several weeks past.

Many students went to Portland today ahead of tomorrow's excursion. An extra car was sidetracked here last night for them and they more than filled it.

Miss Julia Severson of Minneapolis, has accepted a position in the trimming and silk department of Hampton's store. She previously held this position.

Geo. T. Hall's hotel near the freight depot, will be known as the Park Hotel. Messrs. Wiltse & Kelsey, the lessees, are preparing to occupy the building.

E. Ludford, the painter, has three men at work on the interior of the bank at Junction City, repainting and renovating, also some men at work on the new moving picture theatre there.

Claude Gaby will move his plumbing shop from the Garrett & Mitchell building to the Heller building on West Seventh street and will occupy it jointly with Martin & Briggs, gas fitters.

A car load of household goods arrived here this morning for Mrs. J. A. Humphreys, a recent arrival from Kansas City, Mo. She will reside at the corner of East Eleventh and High streets.

The Commercial Club exhibit has been added to by R. W. Johnson, of Point Terrace, Siuslaw country, who sent some splendid apples and a few potatoes which are wonders for size. Also a gigantic squash from the Hartog farm.

The funeral of Louis Renninger, the old soldier, who was found dead in his son's barn near Marcola Wednesday evening, was held at Gordon's undertaking parlors this afternoon and the remains interred in the I. O. O. F. cemetery. The services were under the auspices of J. W. Geary, post No. 7, G. A. R., and they were attended in a body by that organization, the W. R. C. and the I. of G. A. R.

A number of Eugene men went to Cottage Grove this afternoon as representatives of the Commercial Club to attend the district fair. Among them were the following: J. H. Hartog, W. M. Green, W. G. Gilstrap and Y. D. Hensill.

The Commercial Club today telegraphed to Tom Richardson, manager of the Portland Commercial Club, stating that Eugene had raised $30,000 in three days for a Y. M. C. A. building and with the request that the message be read at the club in Portland tomorrow. The idea was to create enthusiasm for Eugene at the football game tomorrow.

Sergeant E. Skinner of the U. S. army, is in the city and will re-establish the army recruiting station which was abandoned last summer. The office will be in rooms 16 and 17 on the second floor of the Cuckermine & Wetherbee block.

The postponed meeting of the Home Missionary Society of the Methodist church will be held with Mrs. Samuel Roome, West 12th and Lincoln streets tomorrow afternoon at 2:30. Mrs. E. H. Belknap, a prominent worker will be present and a very large attendance is desired to meet her and hear her talk on our work.

There is a good-sized hole in the floor of the south approach of the wagon bridge across the Willamette at Eugene, which should have the immediate attention of the county court before someone's horse steps in it and is crippled. Another thing that should be looked after is the lights in the bridge. None have been there for several weeks.

John H. Hartog, manager of the Commercial Club, went to Cottage Grove this afternoon to attend the fair there and will leave that city on this evening's train for Portland to meet with General Manager O'Brien of the S. P. Co., and the landscape architect to finally adopt plans for the park to be laid out on the company's depot grounds in this city.

Mrs. Elizabeth P. Seavey, Mrs. Theresa M. Jackson and Mrs. Katherine Brown were today appointed administrators of the estate of their mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Kelly, who died in this city on October 31, 1908. The estimated value of the property of the estate is $10,000. The will, which was filed for probate today, leaves the property to the several children.

Constable Plank went to Junction City today and arrested O. J. Curtis, of that place, on the charge of assault and battery upon L. E. Goodman. He was brought up on the afternoon train and taken before Justice of the Peace Bryson, but as the young man had been fined in the recorder's court at Junction, the deputy prosecuting attorney was not disposed to further prosecute him and had the case dismissed.

For the first time in several years all outsiders will be excluded from the annual sophomore dance, to be held December 12. The class of 1911 has night decided that only students, ex-students, the faculty and members of the alumni will be admitted. The dance is a great deal of talk around the campus, as many outsiders, from Portland and other places, have already been invited to attend. It is a fine, festive affair and one of the four best. The dance should be every one's affair, and the outsiders will be the first to be excluded.

Spokane day at the Albany Catholic fair brought out a great crowd and good humor and enthusiasm ran
