HOME FROM FOUR MONTHS' TRIP EAST

Mr. and Mrs. Charles F. Littlefield Arrive in Eugene This Morning

Mr. and Mrs. Charles F. Littlefield arrived home on this morning's train from their trip East, returning by way of California. They left Eugene four months ago, and first went to Everett, Wash., where they visited for five weeks. They then took in Spokane and went from there to Princeton, Idaho, where they visited Mr. Littlefield's brother, then going on to Minnesota, visiting in several cities in that state with friends and relatives. Chicago was their next objective point and after seeing everything of interest in the windy city they turned westward toward home, coming by way of Omaha, Denver, Salt Lake, Los Angeles, San Francisco, and other California cities. They report good weather in the Middle West, with no rain to speak of, and in California everybody was praying for rain, the country being literally burned up. As to business conditions in the East, Mr. Littlefield stated that everything seemed to be picking up, factories were resuming operations and everybody had hopes that normal conditions would soon prevail again. He states that in all his travels he failed to find a town in Eugene's class that was making the improvements and growth that this city is enjoying.

ORCHESTRA UNDER DIRECTION OF PROFESSOR READ.

The Men's Sunday Evening Club have secured the services of Prof. L. C. Read, of the Eugene Military band. Beginning Sunday, November 22, he is to take charge of an orchestra at the Methodist church. The first half hour of the evening service is to be devoted to a sacred musical concert. The chorus choir, led by Mrs. Daisy Middleton, will be assisted and supplemented by an orchestra of string and wind instruments under the direction of Prof. Read. This combination promises something unique to the Eugene music loving public.

The half hour musical will be followed by pointed, spicy addresses by the pastor, Rev. W. H. Trimble. The men's club will inaugurate this program Sunday, Nov. 22, and continue it during the winter months. They invite you to enjoy the treat with them.

Breakfast

Will be served at Otto's Grill from 5:30 a. m. tomorrow.

WATTS FOR WATCHES

Murphey's Jewelry

We wish to make the statement that at the time we purchased this store we found a fine assortment of high-grade jewelry, much better quality than is usually found in a store of this kind. It is too good for us, so we want to get rid of it. So for the Christmas trade we will sell it at one-half price. Come and see it.
