NEWS OF LOWER SIUSLAW VALLEY

Born—in Florence, Friday, November 13, 1908, to Mr. and Mrs. Chas.
Allen, a daughter.
S. L. Taylor, of Indian Creek, after a short visit at his home last week, left on his way back to McKenzie Bridge, where he is stationed as forest ranger for uncle Sam. Mr. Taylor expects to move his family out there before long.
Viola Saffley was born in the state of Arkansas, November 11, 1891, and died at the home of her parents near Acme, Oregon, on Thursday, November 12, 1908, after a long illness which she bore with uncomplaining fortitude, never forgetting her faith in Him "who doeth all things well." She was a member of Spruce Pine No. 56, I. O. T. M., of Acme, and while we mourn her loss we feel that she lived a consistent Christian life and has answered "present" at the rollcall of the great review above.
Her patience and forbearance can be a lesson to us all.
Last Saturday Win Saffley and Niels Christensen talked with their hands over some difficulty and both received a few marks.
A new flag was received for the highland school, a few days ago and spread to the breeze amid the rejoicings of the teacher and pupils.
Preparations are being made for holding the teachers' institute for Western Linn county at Florence on December 4 and 5. The school district superintendent, Dillard, of Oregon, will be in charge of the institute, and C. H. Jones, of Salem, will be present.

WALTERVILLE NOTES

(Special Correspondent) Walterville, Nov. 21.—Bert Neah and his step-father bought a portable engine from Cottage Grove Wednesday, taking it to Leeburg, where they intend to use it to run a saw mill.
Three of our town Wednesday looking over the old car line for the electric light and power plant. The old car line was built four years ago. We are still looking for our car line.
Our committee will have a meeting before they meet at the post-office.
Lawrence Milligan is putting up a comfortable cottage on a lot which he purchased from his brother, Oscar.
Our school is progressing finely under the management of Miss Belle Milligan and Miss Susan Iryin.
Clarence Belknap has gone home to attend school in his home district.
Cliff Jaman is still running the sawmill.
Mrs. Owens has moved into the new house built for her by her brother-in-law, J. M. Mason.
The young people are going to have a basket social Saturday evening to raise money to buy an organ. Fay Brownson will act as auctioneer.

NEWS OF SPRINGFIELD AND VICINITY

The many friends of Miss Lottie Winzenried, who died last week, believe that the improvement of her health after two weeks of serious illness, during several days it seemed that her case was quite critical, but now a speedy recovery is hoped for. She has been afflicted with blood poisoning.
The work of putting crushed rock on Main street has been completed, and the appearance of the thoroughfare has been greatly improved, the sides of the street being filled, even to the gutters. The center of the street could be improved now by hauling off the mud, thus bringing the center of the street down to the solid bed.
The editor returned from a outing from Idaho, where he went to meet Mrs. Debus, Karl and Frank, who were returning home from Nebraska and Iowa where they have been for the past three months visiting with Mrs. Debus's family and friends. The family had an excellent summer, but were mighty glad to get home again.
Rev. E. J. Emmons has started on of the finest residences in Lane county. The structure is brick, built upon a cement foundation. The building will be 32x51, with ten rooms. Rev.
Emmons will personally oversee the construction of his new home to bed and of course we can guess on what one. Mr. Emmons informs us that the cost will exceed $10,000.
The People's meat market has again changed hands, the new proprietor, A. D. Dwyer, formerly of Cottage Grove, has for the past 14 months been in charge of the market. The building is that of the old market and is in the best of repair. The meat market is a good one and has been in the hands of the same man for many years. The market is a good one and has been in the hands of the same man for many years.
