Pittsburg, Nov. 24.—The stockholders of the Westinghouse Electric and Manufacturing Company met in this city today for the special session to provide for the carrying out of the reorganization plan, which is to take the company out of the hands of receivers. MILITARY WEDDING AT FORT MEYER

Washington, Nov. 24.—The picturesque little post chapel at Fort Meyer was the scene of a notable military wedding today, when Miss Helen Hatfield, daughter of Colonel Charles A. P. Hatfield, commander of the fort, became the bride of Lieutenant Berkeley Thorne Merchant, U. S. A. The bridegroom, the ushers and other attendants were in full dress uniform, and the music for the occasion was furnished by a military band. The wedding ceremony was performed at noon and was followed by a reception and breakfast at the home of Colonel and Mrs. Hatfield.

Washington, Nov. 24.—To the list of equestrian statues for which Washington already is famous another will be added tomorrow when a handsome statue of General "Phil" Sheridan will be unveiled and formally presented to the city. The statue cost $50,000, and was modeled by Gutzon Borglum of New York. It has been placed in the center of Sheridan circle, at the intersection of Massachusetts avenue and Twenty-third streets.
