THANKSGIVING SERVICE AT CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH

Union Meeting at 10:45 a. m.
—Good Musical Program

Union Thanksgiving services will be held this year on Thursday morning at 10:45 o'clock at the Congregational church, corner of West Seventh and Charnelton streets. Rev. H. N. Mount, pastor of the Central Presbyterian church, will preach the sermon and a joint choir will furnish the music. Miss Louise Yoran will sing a solo. This service should be a largely attended one. The successful carrying out of the movement for a Y. M. C. A. building will have added greatly to the reasons for gratitude on the part of all citizens of Eugene. The year has been one of great prosperity and peculiar blessings to our city. Let us not fall of a worthy spirit of full program of the service will be given in tomorrow's Guard.

CITY NEWS

Claude V. Swann, the O. A. C. athlete, has married and will live at Ashland.

A marriage license was issued yesterday to Norman S. Russell and Miss Cassie A. Howard.

A marriage license was issued today to Wm. A. Dill and Miss Jennie Wetherbee, both of this city.

J. C. Bryan, of Corvallis, was in the city today. He is about to sell out his property in Benton county.

The Willamette river is at a ten-foot stage but falling. The rains of the past few days brought it up rapidly.

Colonel Mercer is shipping his electric auto truck to Portland. He has had to give up the business on account of ill health.

Stillman H. Atwood, father of Mrs. Georgia Tobey and of the Dr. Atwood, is very ill at his home in this city from paralysis.

A mounted porcupine was added to the collection of animals in the Eugene Gun Company's store today. It is the work of R. W. Veatch.

Architect Hunzicker, of this city, is drawing plans for a 6-room bungalow to be built in Portland by Mrs. W. G. Espey, of that city.

Material for building the sidewalk along the Hovey building at Eighth and Willamette streets up to grade is being delivered on the ground.

The town clock in the courthouse tower stopped at 1:35 o'clock this afternoon and has not run since. It is not started we will all forget when to go home for dinner.

The release of mortgage held by the Germantown Trust Co., of Philadelphia, on the Willamette Valley Co.'s water plant in this city, was filed for record today by City Attorney Bean.

The Warren Construction company's crushers at the west end of the butte will be moved after the first of December, as per agreement with the city to stop blasting there at that time.

B. M. Atkins arrived here from Corvallis today to take a position as bookkeeper for the Willamette Valley Co. He succeeds J. R. Wheeler, who goes to Seaside. Mr. Atkins will move his family here and make this city his home.

The big steam turbine for the Willamette Valley Co.'s electric plant at Springfield, arrived today and the company expects to have it in operation in about two weeks. After that time the light service will be much better in Eugene.

Attorney M. Vernon Parsons has a fine mounted elk's head in his office in the Beckwith block. The animal was killed by Jesse Bonds in the Siuslaw country this fall and the head was mounted by R. W. Veatch, the taxidermist.

Buchholz & Carpenter, the well driller, in sinking a well on the Patner place, on Spencer Creek, struck a flow of mineral water at a depth of 230 feet. A sample of the water was brought to The Guard office. It has a peculiar taste and is unlike any mineral water that we have ever tasted.

J. O. Davis, national lecturer of the Modern Woodmen of America, and J. W. Simmons, state deputy, passed through Eugene this afternoon for Cottage Grove, where Mr. Davis will address the camp of that order tonight. The Eugene camp had a chance to secure the national lecturer for an address, but turned it down.

Charles E. Harris, of Silk creek, was brought down from Cottage Grove for examination as to his sanity, was examined last evening and committed to the insane asylum. Drs. W. Kuykendall and D. A. Paine were the examining physicians. Harris is aged 54 years and is single. This is his second commitment.

G. E. Kress was given a party at his home on East Twelfth street last night in honor of the 74th anniversary of his birth. Five of his comrades of the Civil war were invited and after partaking of a splendid supper and enjoying a social evening they presented Mr. Kress with a present as a token of esteem and regard in which he is held by them.

Prof. I. M. Gien states that his classes at the University are very well attended. Other classes of the University are much better attended than was expected last week. O. A. C. dismissed college, and lost the football game, while Oregon kept to its usual schedule and won, and many of the University faculty are inclined to think their virtue was rewarded.

"Colonial Jack," who is making a tour around the border of the United States with a wheelbarrow, will arrive in Eugene from the north on Thursday of this week. He is walking and pushing his wheelbarrow contrivance in which he carries articles of necessities. He started from Portland, Maine, on June 1, 1908, and is now on his way up the Willamette Valley, being in Salem yesterday.
