MORE THAN ENOUGH RAISED FOR Y. M. C. A.

Over $51,000 Secured by Com- mittees Up to Close of Campaign

In eight days Eugene raised $50,000 and then some for a Y. M. C. A. building, and the news has been heralded abroad as an almost unprece- dented achievement in a city the size of Eugene. Last night at 8 o'clock the time set for making the final re- port on the canvas for funds the sum of $51,087.57 was reported raised and later enough was turned in to make the total $51,250.

Yesterday was the biggest day of the week's campaign. The workers had $10,000 to raise before nightfall to make their goal; at noon over $6,000 had been raised. Every man on the 20 teams worked until late and when reports were turned in finally there was over $1000 to spare. At the appointed hour, headquar- ters at Hull's confectionery store were crowded to hear the final re- ports and when the amount secured was announced, a great shout rent the air.

Speeches were made by prominent workers in the campaign, including

Geo. H. Kelly, Samuel Roome, R. A. Booth, S. H. Friendly, A. C. Dixon, F. R. Wetherbee, I. H. Bingham, P. E. Snodgrass, Carl McClain, J. H. Hartog and many others. Secretary I. B. Rhodes presented the captain of each team with some appropriate souvenir embodying the way in which the respective teams did their work, among the tokens being a miniature phonograph, a shovel, a pick, a wringer and a hatchet and a rake. Cloth badges were pinned on the coats of F. R. Wetherbee and A. C. Dixon, whose teams raised the large- est funds. The presentation of these prizes was made by Mr. Rhodes, who spoke in a humorous vein, and the recipients responded in like manner. The captains of the high school teams Harold Young and Duquain Quiner, were each presented with a hand- some high school pennant, while Albert Gillette, O. Stillman and Andrew Fletcher, captains of the Geary, Central and Patterson school teams re- spectively, were each given a box of bonbons.

The incident which was most amusing and which brought forth the heartiest applause was the pre- sentation by I. H. Bingham to George H. Kelly of a tin cup, which he stated was a loving cup given in appreciation of Mr. Kelly's splendid work in pushing the work forward. The meeting ended with the singing of "Praise God From Whom All Blessings Flow."

Expressions of satisfaction were heard on all hands last night at the success of the undertaking which was started a week ago and which many were doubtful as to its successful outcome. Eugene has raised over $5 for every man, woman and child in the city, which is a record to be proud of by all who took part in the

PANAMA STEAMER SUNK IN COLLISION OFF SANDY HOOK

Three Passengers and Several Officers Lost Their Lives

New York, Nov. 26.—The steamer Finance, of the Panama Railroad & Steamship company, was sunk in collision with the White Star liner Georgic in the main ship channel off the end of Sandy Hook this morning in a dense fog. The Georgic was slightly damaged.

The Georgic had anchored near the spot and put off boats to save those on the Finance, and the life-saving crew at Sandy Hook went to the scene, as well as the tug used by the harbor commissioners.

The collision occurred while most of the passengers were at breakfast and many women and children were still asleep. A panic occurred in which many jumped overboard and were picked up by the boats of the Finance and the Georgic, the crew working nobly with the cooler pas- sengers in the rescue work. All those saved were brought to this city on the Georgic.

The Finance had 85 passengers aboard, but it is believed that only three were drowned: Miss Irene Cambell, of Colon; Henry Muller, conductor on the Panama railroad, and Policeman Rhiland, of the Canal Zone police.

The following officers, who remained on duty, were carried down in the wreckage: Chief Engineer John W. Pickett; Third Assistant Engineer William H. Todd; Officer Charles E. Rice.
