HOW EUGENE SPENT THE DAY OF THANKS

Union Church Services Held in the Morning—Football Game This Afternoon

Eugene people spent Thanksgiving in the usual quiet manner All business was suspended in the middle of the forenoon and the rest of the day was spent by the merchants and other classes of citizens in various ways. Many attended the union services at the Congregational church in the forenoon, but a majority stayed at home and rested up for the big turkey dinner that nearly every household in the city enjoyed at noon or this evening.

This afternoon a football game is being played on Kincaid field between the teams of the Eugene and Portland East Side high schools. Several hundred people are in attendance. Some of the sportsmen are out at the game preserves after the festive ducks, while a good many lovers of college football are in Portland to see the big game between the University of Oregon team and that of the Multnomah Athletic Club. Those who stayed at home and are interested in the game have been telephoning The Guard all afternoon to learn the result, while others have stood in front of The Guard's bulletin board waiting for the message that tells whether or not to yell.

The Church Services

The union services at the Congregational church were well attended. The music was excellent and the sermon by Rev. H. N. Mount, pastor of the Central Presbyterian church, was commented upon by those present as being one of the best Thanksgiving addresses ever heard in Eugene. Following was the program of the services:

DORANDO IS AGAIN WINNER OF MARATHON RACE

New York, Nov. 25.—Amid the crash of rival bands, one American and one Italian, and the thunderous cheers of thousands who urged on their favorite, Dorando Pietri, who was supported over the line the winner in the Marathon race at the Olympian games last Summer, but was disqualified because of assistance, again claimed title to the honor by defeating John J. Hays, of New York City, in the race which started tonight at 9 o'clock.

PIETRO DORANDO.

The Italian runner who lost the Marathon race by a narrow margin will run in America against Uncle Sam's most speedy men.

Dorando was a victor by a third of a lap and his time for the 26 miles, 385 yards, was 2 hours, 44 minutes 20 2-5 seconds. Hayes' time was 2 hours, 45 minutes 5 1-5 seconds. To cover the distance it was necessary for the runners to make the circuit of the ring at Madison Square Garden 262 times. At the ten-mile post both men were fighting for honors, with Dorando three efeet in the lead. The race was started by Richard Croker, who fired the pistol which sent both runners flying around the track.
