Pour into mold and when cold garnish with candied cherries. Serve with whipped cream, or as a good pudding sauce. Jell-O is sold by all grocers at 10c per package.

MINERS PAY HIGH TRIBUTE TO DEAD PRIEST

Business Suspended in Great District to Attend Funeral

Shenandoah, Nov. 27.—The most remarkable tribute to a priest was paid today at the funeral of Rev. H. P. O'Reilly, rector of the Roman Catholic Church of the Annunciation at this place for forty years. Twenty-five colliers, employing more than 16,000 men and boys, in Shenandoah and Mahoney valleys, shut down to enable the workers to pay their respects to the dead priest. The public schools at this place, at Mahoney and surrounding communities closed and all business in Shenandoah was suspended. More than two hundred priests attended the services, following which the body was taken to Philadelphia, accompanied by fifteen hundred mourners in a special train.

Father O'Reilly during the Molly McGuire crusade and in numerous coal strikes wielded a great influence for peace and law and order.

DIED

At his residence near Grants Pass, Josephine county, November 24th, 1908, after a lingering illness of several years' duration, Benjamin Rush, aged 63 years, 11 months and 22 days. Deceased was born in Alabama on December 2, 1839. He moved with his parents to Arkansas in 1845 and came to Oregon in 1852, settling in Lane county in 1853. He moved to Josephine county in 1897. He was married in December, 1872, to Miss Sarah Cantell, and four children were the result of this union, two sons and two daughters, James Richard, Mrs. Laura Mitchell, of Crescent, Nevada, Mary Elizabeth (deceased) and Philip Joseph. Deceased leaves one brother, Samuel Rush, of Crook county, and one sister, Mrs. John Calloway, of Lane county. The writer had been acquainted with the deceased for more than forty years, and can truthfully say that he was one of the noblest works of God, an honest, upright man. He placed his honor above price, and while he scorned everything which appeared to him mean and base, his heart went out in pity to the poor, the unfortunate and the suffering. He acted well his part in "this brief little journey over the isthmus down into the tide," and always had a kind and cheerful word for those whom he met on the way. H. C. PERKINS.

At the home of her son, William, at Cottage Grove, November 21, 1908, Mrs. Lydia Comer, aged 91 years, 3 months and 11 days. Mrs. Comer was born at Wadsworth, Vt., August 10, 1817, an daughter of a very hardy family, one sister dying recently at the age of 99 years, another at the age of 95, and a third one above 80 years. Funeral services were conducted at the Adventist chapel Monday by Rev. Tabor, with interment in the I. O. O. F. cemetery. Deceased leaves two sons, J. M. and William, and numerous other relatives to mourn their loss.—Leader.

BALLOON CARNIVAL AT NORTH ADAMS

North Adams, Mass., Nov. 27.—Preparations have been completed by the Aero Club of America for the big balloon carnival to be given for its members here tomorrow. Balloons owned by the club members in Boston, Springfield, North Adams and Pittsfield are expected to take part in the ascension. Practically all of the ballooning this season has been done by the New England clubs, and one of the objections filed against the club officers at the recent annual meeting was that nothing had been done in the way of old-fashioned ballooning for the members this year. The new board of directors therefore decided upon the carnival as a means of placating some of the members, and with five or six balloons starting at once, the event is expected to be the largest balloon feature held in the East this year.

STANLEY KETCHEL REGAINS THE TITLE

Arena, San Francisco, Nov. 26.—Stanley Ketchel, of Grand Rapids, Mich., regaining the middleweight championship of the world today and reversed his defeat of last September, by sending Billy Papke, the Illinois thunderbolt, crashing to the floor before a well-directed left swing that caught his opponent flush upon the chin. The end came in the 11th round. Prior to this Ketchel had demonstrated clearly that he was master of his opponent at any kind of fighting. Round by round, Ketchel chose his opportunities, and when opportunity offered, planted the right to head or body, generally escaping without a damaging return. Belying his appearance and forcing the fight throughout every minute, Ketchel was stronger up to the moment of the knockout blow than was his opponent. Once during an aggressive moment they fell in the ringside and toppled through the ropes, wrapped in a close embrace.

There is a disease prevailing in this country most dangerous because so deceptive. Many sudden deaths are caused by heart disease, pneumonia, heart failure, or apoplexy are often the result of kidney disease. If kidney trouble is allowed to advance the kidney-poisoned blood will attack the vital organs, causing catarrh of the bladder, or the kidneys themselves break down and waste away cell by cell. Bladder troubles almost always result from a derangement of the kidneys and a cure is obtained quickest by a proper treatment of the kidneys. If you are feeling badly you can make no mistake by taking Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder remedy. It corrects inability to hold urine and scalding pain in passing it, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often through the day, and to get up many times during the night. SMITH TO HANG FOR MURDER OF HIS PAL

Montreal, Nov. 27.—This is the date fixed for the execution of "Crooked-neck" Smith, an all-around criminal who was convicted last September of the murder of his pal, Mike Malone.

In the early summer Smith and three friends had been attending the races in Montreal. He and Malone had a quarrel over the division of their gambling gains, and each threatened to have vengeance. Smith returned to an optum joint, where he found Malone and without the slightest warning, shot him dead. The murderer escaped to New York, but a few weeks later returned to Montreal and surrendered to the police.
