Company manners and the front parlor are often a very different proposition from every-day home manners and the kitchen end of the house. Many a beautiful store is the genteel outlet for garments made in places and under conditions that would horrify the buyer if he could visit them, and would make him fearful of disease, as well as unwilling—as a good citizen—to sanction such methods of labor. In this connection it also occurs to the keen mind that a high degree of skill and art in workmanship is always related to a high and proper compensation. A tailor of masterly powers would not demean himself by working under such conditions.

Now for the contrasting picture, as suggested by our artist above. The "Great White Shops" where every stitch of work on is done. He has never "farmed out" so much as a button-hole in his whole 30 years of business.

We wish every one of our customers could see those big, airy, scrupulously clean shops, flooded with sunlight from four sides, with every modern sanitary device and arrangement for the guaranteeing of absolutely hygienic conditions.

Result—clean, safe tailoring. Many tell Fred Kauffmann that he ought to make an extra charge on all his clothes because of the "easy and most uncommon conditions of production." He tells them "No! The additional cost is nothing to him—it is an investment in personal satisfaction—it makes the name of Fred Kauffmann stand for something better than excessive profits—yes, better even than his continental leadership in tailoring. And for the matter of that, the cost of maintaining hygienic production is not a cost at all—it actually pays—in prestige, in distinction, in public confidence—in fact it is one of the things that makes

SECOND DAY OF CONVENTION OF BOYS' CLUBS

Interesting Papers Read At Each Session—All Boys Invited Tonight

Last evening's session of the Boy's Convention proved a splendid success. The meeting opened with a hearty song service, followed by a prayer by Frank Gullid. The five papers on the Boys' Club, "Why We Should Have One," by Rollie Carey of Salem; "How to Start It," by Harold Dalzell of Eugene; "What Should Happen as a Result of It," by Emil Horning of Corvallis; "What Method Will Make Things Happen?" by Charlie Collier of Eugene; "Who should Make Them Happen," by James Bullington, were read and the boys all took part in the seven minute discussion that followed each paper. The papers and the discussion all showed deep interest on the boys' part.

PRESIDENT THANKS FOOTBALL HERO

Cambridge, Mass., Nov. 27.—The self-sacrifice of Ernest C. Verweib, the Harvard football, in withdrawing from the game with Yale in order to permit another player of goal-kicking ability to supplant him at a critical moment has brought the crimson player a letter of praise from President Roosevelt. The president says:

"Like every other good Harvard man, I have the heartiest feeling of gratitude to the entire team who won the great victory on Saturday last. But I feel a special sense of gratitude toward you. It was through you more than any one else that Kennard was put in a position to do the work which he did so admirably, and to kick the goal from the field."

"For the good of the team your individual good was sacrificed, and through the sacrifice and through the admirable work you had already done and through Kennard's fine kick the victory was won."

"However, it was a first rate example of the interest of the individual being subordinated to the good of the team. There cannot be any better lesson for our national life than to teach that the good of the individual must be subordinated to the good of the people."

"Now I have the heartiest admiration for Kennard's feat. He kicked the goal and he did a service that no one else could have done, and too much praise cannot be given him, but you are entitled to every whit as much praise and every man I have met here feels just the way I do. With best wishes and congratulations believe me, sincerely yours, THEODORE ROOSEVELT."

The president closes his letter with a postscript in which he says he would like to thank personally all who contributed to the victory.

SIXTEEN-YEAR-OLD BOY WAS FIREBUG

Baker City, Nov. 27.—Through the confession of a sixteen-year-old boy named Golden Ormond, the identity of the incendiary who has caused almost a state of terror in Baker City the past five months has been solved. The incendiary is none other than Golden Ormond himself, according to the confession he is alleged to have made to Pinkerton detectives working on the case.

During the period named six incendiary fires occurred, three school buildings, one residence and the Standard Oil tanks of the city burned and one laundry badly damaged, but not destroyed.

The losses aggregate $100,000. Detectives employed by the mayor learned of young Ormond's trouble with the teacher and comparison of dates of fires with his days' absence from school furnished what proved a clue which led to the lad's arrest.

DYSPEPSIA IS RESULT OF FOOD FERMENTATION

GET SOME DIAPEPSIN FROM YOUR DRUGGIST AND HAVE YOUR STOMACH TROUBLE OVER WITH FOREVER—ABSOLUTELY HARMLESS, DIGESTIVE AND ANTI-FERMENT.

When your stomach is weak or lacking in gastric juice, anything that you eat, no difference what it is, will sour on your stomach, raise the bile and acids to cover your food like oil on water, causing indigestion, Dyspepsia, Stomach nervousness and belching of sour poisons, which produce foul odors, nasty taste, bilious headache, heartburn, intestinal griping and make you an object of misery. This is stomach trouble which can not be overcome with ordinary digestive medicines. It is caused by fermentation of your food which will be remedied at once by Pape's Diapepsin, a preparation pleasant to take and as harmless as any though it will digest and prepare for assimilation into the blood all the food you eat.

Indigestion is a result, not a cause of your trouble. If the stomach is sour and unhealthy, your food becomes tainted, and that's what is causing indigestion and other miseries. Pape's Diapepsin is an Antacid, most powerful digestive and thorough regulator for weak stomachs. These Triangles will digest any kind of food you eat and will cleanse the stomach and intestines in a natural way, which makes you feel fine five minutes afterwards.

Any good pharmacy here will supply you with Pape's Diapepsin for fifty cents. Just reading about this remarkable stomach preparation will not help. You should go now and get a case. Put your stomach in full health and by tomorrow you will forget the misery of stomach trouble. Your case is no different from many others. It isn't stomach, nerves or catarrh of the stomach or gastritis or dyspepsia. It is the food rotting—food fermentation—that's all—and takes five minutes to overcome.
