Anthony Miller Dies—Thanks-giving Skating Carnival

Born—November 24, 1908, to Mr. and Mrs. Chris. Christensen, a daughter. This is the first heir and joy and gladness reign supreme in that household.
Herchel Johnson has sold his corner building and 34 feet of ground to Wm. McFarland, the deal being closed last Saturday. This is a good corner and will increase in commercial value. The consideration was $1,800.
Two of our prominent carpenters were hunting, Wednesday we believe it was. The wages lost was $3 each;

COUNTESS OF WARWICK.
Titled English reformer and one of Great Britain's most beautiful women, who is to pay a visit to the United States.
spent $2 for ammunition; blistered their hands, using oars, and other blisters which causes them to eat their meals standing. P. S.—They killed three ducks.
Anthony Miller died at the residence of his son, E. J. Miller, Saturday, November 21, 1908, at the ripe age of 87 years, 11 months and 25 days. He had been in failing health for some time, and on account of his age his family were aware of the sad fact that the end was near. Friday night he had a serious relapse and he passed his last the following afternoon.
The Thanksgiving masquerade carnival proved a grand success and all sorts of characters were represented. For the best make-up and sustained lady character Miss Ada Powell received first prize, a pair of kid gloves. She represented a jockey. The gentlemen's prize was captured by Louis Patno, who represented an Indian. The prize for the most comical girl character was won by James Washburne, and the boy prize was won by Joe Satterfield, who represented a monkey.—Times.

How Is Your Digestion?
Mrs. Mary Dowling of No. 228 8th Ave., San Francisco, recommends a remedy for stomach trouble. She says: "Gratitude for the wonderful effect of Electric Bitters in a case of acute indigestion, prompts this testimonial. I am fully convinced that for stomach and liver troubles Electric Bitters is the best remedy on the market today." This great tonic and alterative medicine invigorates the system, purifies the blood and is especially helpful in all forms of female weakness. 50c. At W. A. Kuykendall's Drug Store.
