REPORT SAYS FOUR OREGON MEN ARE ON ALL NORTHWEST

A report in Eugene today says that Clarke, Moulton, Pinkham and Dodson have been chosen for the Northwest team by the Oregonian. While the report is but a rumor, the football men are not unlikely selections for the team, though it was not expected by many that Oregon would receive four players in the all-Northwest line-up.

In the last two games Dodson has played a wonderful game and, and praise has been elicited from every critic for his playing. Pinkham is one of the most aggressive players in the Northwest and for that reason will undoubtedly be given a place. Moulton and Clarke are men who cannot possibly be omitted, for their individual feats in the Oregon contests of this year.

DIRECT DESCENDANT OF ROGER WILLIAMS DIES

Stillman Howard Atwood died this morning at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Georgia Tobey, of a combination of apoplexy and paralysis. He was 82 years and ten months old, to the day. He was a direct descendant of Roger Williams, who founded Rhode Island.

The deceased came to Oregon seven years ago from Maine, where he was born, and where he lived the greater portion of his life. His birthplace was Concord. While in Eugene he lived with his daughter at 527 High street.

Besides his wife, Sarah, and his daughter, Mrs. Georgia Tobey, he is survived by a sister 92 years of age in Maine, and by a son, Charles Atwood, of Portland.

SCHOOL BOARD CONVENTION DISCUSSES REFORM IN SCHOOLS

State Taxation Is Advocated by Leading Educators in the Country

The second annual school board convention for Lane County was held in the court house this morning. Delegates were present from many of the districts over the county, and listened to addresses on the subject of education.

Besides other matters concerning the district work, recommendations in the changes of the school law of the state were made by the convention. The reforms desired will be placed before the representatives of Lane county to the Legislature.

The main feature of the Oregon school district that has been criticized is the unequal burdens on the districts. Education is not only of local concern, but of general importance.

The advanced stand taken by the leading educators of the country, including State Superintendent Ackerman and Dr. H. D. Sheldon, is that state taxation should help equalize the district burdens, especially of those districts which are in poorly settled sections of the country, where the wealth is not great.

Superintendent Ackerman of Salem, Prof. L. R. Trauer of Monmouth, and Dr. H. D. Sheldon of the University, delivered the principal addresses.

ATTORNEY RALPH FISHER MURDERED BY FINCH

against him in the supreme court. Mr. Fisher being appointed prosecutor. The charge against Finch was that he appeared in court during the trial of a case intoxicated. He formerly ran a newspaper in Albany.

Only a few days ago the Portland Journal printed the following story of which today's tragedy is a fitting sequel:

Ralph B. Fisher, who is the prosecutor of the Oregon State Bar Association, has informed the police that for some weeks past he has been receiving anonymous letters threatening his life. Mr. Fisher has been appearing as prosecutor against several members of the bar against whom disbarment proceedings have been instigated, and it is supposed that some one of them has taken this method to try to induce the prosecutor to drop the charges.

Another letter was received this morning, typewritten and purposely misspelled, so as to hide the writer's identity. It reads as follows:

"Mr. R. Fisher:
 "Sir:
 "From rumors I have heard you are to be shot or disposed of and I think my duty to tell you to be careful. Of course this may only be talk, but the shooting of Mr. Heney makes the matter worse. If it were known that I had warned you it would be bad for me."
