WORDS OF PRAISE.

After the experience of a severe cold which came near developing into pneumonia I have been cured with one 25 cent bottle of your Dr. Bell's Pine-Tar-Honey. The first teaspoonful stopped my cough. To say it is a wonderful remedy is putting it very lightly; I can never say enough in praise of your wonderful medicine, and consider your little booklet that was thrown to my door a friend in need. You may use this letter if you like, for it will always be a pleasure to recommend your Dr. Bell's Pine-Tar-Honey.

Sincerely,
MRS. I. G. LOZIER.
No. 849 26th St., Detroit, Mich.

I AM 89 YEARS OLD, and never used any remedy equal to Dr. Bell's Pine-Tar-Honey. It gives quick and permanent relief in grip as well as coughs and colds. It makes weak lungs strong.

CHAMP CLARK WILL LEAD HOUSE DEMOCRATS

Washington, D. C., Dec. 3.— Though the congressional mill will not begin to grind until next week, the usual preliminaries in the way of committee meetings and conferences are already well under way. Of these preliminaries by far the most interest attaches to the caucus of the Democratic members of the house, which has been called for Saturday to choose a leader to succeed Representative John Sharp Williams of Mississippi, who retired from the minority leadership last spring upon his election to the senate.

There is little room to doubt that the leadership will fall to Representative Champ Clark of Missouri. Mr. Williams and his friends are supporting the Missourian. There is little opposition to Mr. Clark, although the name of Representative Henry of Texas has been mentioned as a possible candidate for the leadership. Mr. Clark's colleague, Representative De Armond, is understood to be opposed to Mr. Clark. Mr. De Armond has aspired to the leadership for a number of years and his defeat for that honor by Mr. Williams was one of the causes of the enmity between the two which culminated in a personal encounter on the floor of the house last winter.

Talks with leading Democratic members who have arrived in Washington indicate that Clark has virtually a sure thing of the leadership. It is claimed today by the Clark supporters that neither De Armond nor Henry will develop any considerable strength in the caucus.

Champ Clark is probably the best known figure on the Democratic side and, without much question, the most popular one. For several reasons his elevation to the minority leadership is worthy of notice. There promises to be some phases of his leadership that will be in marked distinction to the leadership of John Sharp Williams. Many Democrats believe, and in this number are some of the best friends of Mr. Williams, that Clark will make a more effective leader than did the noted member from Mississippi. For one thing, the Missouri representative will go into the leadership with practically the united support of the Democrats of the house. He is accounted a better politician than Williams and less inclined to consult his personal likes and dislikes in the makeup of committees and other matters. He is expected by the Democrats of the house who know him to sink his personal feelings as to members and to make up the committee on the Democratic side with reference solely to personal fitness. One of the important committees to which he will have to give attention is the Ways and Means Committee, in view of the fact that revision of the tariff is supposedly near at hand. It is not to be undertaken in the Sixtieth congress but, as the Ways and Means Committee is made up at this session, it will be for the most part in the Sixty-first congress. Mr. Clark is now the ranking minority member on the Ways and Means Committee. If he becomes the minority leader he will leave the committee himself and it is expected an act of courtesy will put in his place De Armond of Missouri. De Armond is a hard worker and a strong advocate of tariff revision.

Few members of the house on either side have had a wider range of experience than has Mr. Clark. He is fifty-eight years old and a native of Kentucky. He was graduated from Kentucky University at Lexington and studied law at the Cincinnati Law School. In 1873-4 he was president of the first normal school established in West Virginia. After his experience there he removed to Missouri and became principal of the high school at Louisiana in that state. In 1876 he began the active practice of law and for several years served as city attorney of Louisiana. Then came a period of two years of service as editor of a country newspaper.

Mr. Clark's public career dates from 1880, in which year he was chosen a presidential elector and also a member of the Missouri legislature. He was elected to the Fifty-third congress in 1892, and to the Fifty-fifth congress in 1896, and has since been biennially re-elected from the Ninth Missouri district. He is an eloquent speaker and ready in debate, as more than one of his Republican opponents have found out when they engaged him in a forensic tilt. Mr. Clark is supposed to be pretty well fixed financially, a large part of his wealth having been made in recent years on the lecture platform.

Medicine That Is Medicine.
I have suffered a good deal with malaria and stomach complaints, but I have now found a remedy that keeps me well, and that remedy is Electric Bitters; a medicine that is medicine for stomach and liver troubles, and for run down conditions," says W. C. Kestler, of Halliday, Ark. Electric Bitters purify and enrich the blood, tone up the nerves, and impart vigor and energy to the weak. Your money will be refunded if it fails to help you. 50c at W. SPORTING NOTES

The Syracuse football team was the surprise party of 1908.

Bill Edwards, the robust football official, says the new game is here to stay.

The Columbus, Ga., baseball team has signed Jim Fox, the old Atlanta undertaker, as manager.

No racing this year at New Orleans. Anti-betting laws drive more people to work than prosperity.

Minneapolis will have an automobile show about the first week in March, according to plans of the Minneapolis Automobile Dealers' Association.

Battling Nelson says he was only getting local color for his book when he pulled off that dog fight. Ain't Battling the rattling author?

Joe Gans has posted $1000 for a six-round bout with Packy McFarland. Joe hints that six-round work is his little brother and he intends looking after him.

In giving Jack Johnson a chance at the heavyweight championship Tommy Burns has lost all respect for his calling, and besides is a sap-head. Yours respectfully, Jas. J. Corbett.

It is announced in London that Hackenschmidt will wrestle Zybco. In taking on these prettily labeled canned dainties for a few slaps and wiggles, Hack shows that he learned something while in America.

The 1908 record of the Harvard and Yale football teams shows Harvard has won 9 games, tied 1 and lost none, scoring 132 points to their opponents' 8, while Yale won 7 games, tied 1 and lost 1, scoring 153 points to their opponents' 20.

Reports show that eleven deaths resulted from football this season. The list includes 10 players and one spectator at Great Bend, Kas., who got in the way and was run over by the squad.

The Tri-State League has reduced its salary limit to $2300. Not hard to see the finish now of a few of those star performers who jumped a few years ago.

Tom Criger will stick with his old side-kick, Cy Young, another season. Lou doesn't like to make any changes this late in life.

Of the seventeen men who took part in the recent Yale game ten will be available next year. They are Browne, McKay, Dunlay, West, Sprague, Corbett, Crowley, Smith, Leslie and Fish.

Coach Dave Campbell, of Harvard, was thrown out of an automobile twice at Cambridge, but he says he will learn to ride in the thing before he goes home to Denver or he won't go home.

Dan Patch has paced seventy-three miles which average 1:59 1-2. If they had only fed Dan on gasoline wouldn't he have burnt things up?

Eastern critics who have seen Steffens, of Chicago, say that he is the equal of any back in the country. What do the Western critics say?

A Dangerous Operation.
Is the removal of the appendix by a surgeon. No one who takes Dr. King's New Life Pills is ever subjected to this frightful ordeal. They work so quietly you don't feel them. They cure constipation, headache, biliousness and malaria. 25c at W. A. Kuykendall's drug store.

CALL FOR COUNTY WARRANTS.
Eugene, Nov. 30, 1908.
Notice is hereby given that all County Warrants previous to Register No. 6421, registered on June 13, 1908, will be paid on presentation at this office on December 3, 1908. Interest will cease on that date.
