BIG LAND OPENING FOR CLOSER UNITY IN CHURCH WORK

Philadelphia, Dec. 2.—Practical co-operation and united service form the keynote of the first convention of the Federal Council of the Churches of Christ in America, which assembled in Philadelphia today for a session of six days. The meeting is regarded as the greatest and most representative gathering in the history of Protestant Christianity in America. Concrete propositions on which the united action of all churches is considered beneficial will be recommended by the convention to the various sectarian authorities.
The convention is attended by more than 400 delegates representing 20,000,000 of communicants in twenty-seven religious denominations. Among the delegates are more than thirty bishops, many presidents of universities and colleges, some of the most noted collegians and preachers in the country, officers in mission boards and other departments of church work and a large number of laymen of prominence.
A leading feature of the program will be the public meetings in the Academy of Music, the first of which is held this evening. Included among the men of prominence who will address these meetings are Governor Hughes of New York, Senator Dooliver of Iowa, Governor Asael of South Carolina, Judge Grosvenor of Chicago, Bishop Doane of Albany, Bishop Hendrick of Kansas City, Rev. Washington Gladden of Columbus, Ohio, and Dr. Barton, secretary of the American Board of Foreign Missions.
