

S.S.S. BEST TREATMENT FOR CATARRH

S. S. S. is the best treatment for Catarrh because it is a perfect blood purifier. It is the only medicine that is able to get down into the circulation and entirely remove the catarrhal matter and impurities which produce the trouble. As long as the mucous membranes and tissues are kept inflamed and irritated by this impure and infected condition of the blood Catarrh will remain. Its disagreeable and dangerous symptoms, of ringing noises in the ears, mucus dropping back into the throat, headaches, watery eyes, difficult breathing, and even stomach disorders and weakened health, cannot be permanently relieved until the blood is purified. Nothing equals S. S. S. for this purpose. It goes down to the very root of the trouble, and removes every particle of the catarrhal matter from the blood and enriches this vital fluid so that all the mucous surfaces are supplied with nutritive, healthful qualities, instead of being constantly irritated and inflamed by impurities in the circulation. Then the symptoms begin to pass away and when S. S. S. has entirely purified the blood, Catarrh is permanently cured and the general health greatly built up. Book on Catarrh and any medical advice desired sent free to all who write.

HARD FIGHT TO SAVE JORDAN FROM CHAIR

Boston, Mass., Dec. 4.—What promises to be one of the greatest legal battles in the criminal annals of Massachusetts will begin within the next week or two, when Chester S. Jordan, of Somerville, is placed on trial for the murder of his wife. The killing of Mrs. Jordan and the cutting up of her body by the self-confessed murderer occurred in the early part of last September, and was one of the most gruesome cases with which the Boston police ever had to deal. The confession of the young husband has left him but one ground of defense, insanity. Eminent counsel of New York and Boston have been engaged to conduct the defense, and it is understood that the millions of Jesse R. Livermore, the so-called "cotton king" of New York, who is a brother-in-law of Jordan, will be used freely to save the young man from the electric chair.

Since his arrest a day or two after the murder of his wife Jordan has been confined in the East Cambridge jail, where he has been visited almost daily by his wealthy sisters. Through the close confinement has told somewhat on his health. Jordan has continued to maintain the same comparative calm that he displayed at the time of his arrest, when he contentedly puffed a cigarette while seated on a trunk containing his wife's dismembered body. Jordan is about thirty years old, of splendid physique and handsome appearance. His wife, who fell a victim to his rage, was an actress, aged twenty-three years. Jordan was born and raised in Indianapolis, and came to Somerville with his parents about ten or twelve years ago. The couple were married in 1904. Mrs. Jordan had been previously married and had lived with her first husband in Canada. Mr. and Mrs. Jordan went on the vaudeville stage, Jordan taking the part of a tramp and his wife that of a nurse, in a sketch. They first went to Buffalo, Mont., after their marriage, but remained there only a short time, as the climate did not agree with them. Later they went to Chicago and appeared in some of the smaller theatres there, remaining three months. About three years ago they returned to Somerville and went to live in the little house where the tragedy of last September occurred. Through the generosity of Jordan's wealthy relatives the couple were always well supplied with money. But Mrs. Jordan, according to her husband, had taken to drinking, and he was associating with other men and he became jealous. And it was in a jealous quarrel that the trouble started which ended in the death of the woman. Jordan declared his wife struck him first, that he then knocked her down and was terrified to find that he had killed her. He left the body undisturbed all night, while he slept in an adjoining room. The following morning he conceived the idea of cutting the body up, taking it away on one of the steamers and throwing the parts overboard and then reporting to the police that his wife had left him. With a butcher knife placed the body, and after putting the scalp and hair in the kitchen range, placed the skull in the furnace in the cellar. The legs and arms were cut off in strips, leaving the bones of the limbs practically bare. The bones were then placed in the furnace and the chunks of flesh piled into a trunk with the torso.

With the trunk and its ghastly contents Jordan came to Boston, stopping at a boarding house preliminary to taking a steamer for New York. The discovery of the crime was by mere chance. The cabman who drove Jordan to the boarding house became suspicious about the contents of the trunk while carrying it into the house. Its weight made him think it contained stolen silverware, and the nervous manner of Jordan satisfied him that the man was a burglar. The cab driver, believing he was on the trail of a thief, went to the police and told them of the mysterious trunk. Officers were detailed to go to the boarding house and investigate. When Jordan was ordered to open the trunk he did not appear to be in the least nervous or alarmed, but hesitated to comply with the officer's request. His calm and natural manner and his statements that he was a traveling salesman, and that the trunk contained samples almost threw the police off their guard. Believing it was better to investigate, however, the officers finally opened the trunk and came upon its bloody contents. Jordan submitted without protest to arrest, and upon his arrival at the police station calmly gave the police full details of his crime. An examination was made of the house in Somerville and there the police found the head and bones of the murdered woman and other evidences of the crime.

SEND HERMANN TO WASHINGTON

Word was received here today from Coquille that Binger Hermann, former congressman from this district, had agreed to go to Washington this winter and endeavor to persuade congress to make appropriations for the Coquille river and bar and Coos Bay, says the Marshfield Times. Mr. Hermann was invited by the business men of Coquille valley to represent them and as he secured the original appropriation for the improvement of these harbors, it is believed that he will be one of the most effective agents that could be sent.

It is likely that the Marshfield and North Bend chambers of commerce will send Walter Lyon and Peter Loggie to work with Binger Hermann in behalf of this section.

BABY BOY HAD ITCHING HUMOR

Which Broke Out in Different Places—Nothing Would Help Him—Mother Almost in Despair—Skin Quickly Healed Without a Scar and Trouble Has Never Returned

SINCE USING CUTICURA MOTHER GIVES IT PRAISE

"Several months ago, my little boy, now two and a half years old, began to break out with itching sores. I began to doctor him, and as soon as I got them healed up in one place they would break out in another. I was almost in despair, I could not get anything that would help him. One evening I read a testimonial from a lady who had cured her little boy with Cuticura. I began to use the Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Ointment, and after using them three times, the sores commenced to heal. He is now well, and not a scar is left on his body. They have never returned nor left him with bad blood, as one would think. Cuticura Remedies are the best I have ever tried, and they are surely great. I shall always have them in the house handy, and shall highly recommend them to any one who is suffering likewise. I cannot give them too much praise. Mrs. William Geeding, 102 Washington St., Attica, Ind., July 22, 1907."

RESOLUTIONS ON DEATH OF LOUIS RENNINGER

J. W. Geary Post, No. 7, G. A. R., Pays Tribute to His Memory.

Two of the men indicted during the past few days by the grand jury for selling liquor are James Karhan and "Pony" Witter, both of Springfield. They were placed under arrest last evening and brought to Eugene. Karhan gave bonds in the sum of $500 for his appearance in court, but the latter was placed in the county jail.

There have been several other indictments and more arrests will probably take place soon. The grand jury is still working and many witnesses have been examined.
