MRS. MARIA GOERTZ, Orienta, Oklahoma, writes: "My husband, children and myself have used your medicine, and we always keep them in the house in case of necessity. It was restored to health by this medicine. People ask about me from different places, and are surprised that I can do all of my housework alone, and that I was cured by the doctor of chronic catarrh. My husband was cured of asthma, my daughter of earache and catarrh of the stomach, and my son of catarrh of the throat. When I was sick I weighed one hundred pounds; now I weigh one hundred and forty. Peruna cures the nerves, and is a great specific for all forms of chronic catarrh."

Among distinguished parishioners of the church, in former times were the Baron von Stauber, who aided the United States in the Revolution, and to whose memory a stone was placed in the church in 1793, and John Jacob Astor. The gift from the German Emperor was in recognition of the fact that the church has been the worshipping place for thousands of Germans during the century and a half of its existence.

CONGRESSIONAL MILL IS READY TO GRIND

Washington, D. C., Dec. 5.—Congress will meet on Monday for the final session of the Sixtieth Congress, remaining in session until March 4, when it expires by constitutional limitation. Much talk has been heard concerning tariff revision and other important business to be brought up this session, but as a matter of fact it is probable that little else than the passage of the various appropriation bills will be attempted. It is generally agreed among the leaders of both parties that the three months are entirely too short a time to consider and act up measures of great importance.
Practically all of the members have arrived in the capital in readiness for the opening of the session. About the hotel lobbies, clubs and other places of resort the victors and vanquished were to be seen today congratulating and sympathizing with one another over the results of the November ballot.
In the House the session will be remarkable chiefly from the fact that it will mark the farewell appearance of many members who for years have been leaders or familiar figures about the House of Representatives. Chief among these are the veteran William P. Hepburn of Iowa, who heads the Interstate and Foreign Commerce Committee, and Jesse Overstreet of Indiana, chairman of the Post Office and Post Roads Committee.
In Representative Overstreet the House has lost one of its ablest legislators. Overstreet is a member of the Postal Commission, which for some six years has been working to institute a complete reorganization of the postal service. No one in Washington understands the needs of the postoffice in all its details better than Mr. Overstreet, and his presence is almost indispensable to a proper consideration of a postal reorganization bill. One of the features of the proposed reorganization is the establishment of the office of director of posts. This is intended to be a permanent official, and it is understood that when the time comes Mr. Overstreet will be the unanimous choice for the position.
The failure of re-election on the part of Representative Hepburn necessitates the choice of a new chairman for the Committee on Interstate and Foreign Commerce, of which the veteran member of Iowa has been the head for a number of years. By reason of the prominence of interstate

GENERAL NEWS FORECAST FOR COMING WEEK

Washington, D. C., Dec. 5.—With the assembling of the Sixtieth Congress for its final session and the reading of the President's message to the eyes of the nation will turn toward the national capital early in the coming week.
President's Roosevelt's annual message to Congress will be the last of its kind which he will submit to that body and it is naturally awaited with keen public interest. At no time during his term of office has the President given attention to the preparation of a message that he has given to this one. Among the subjects of importance which the message is reasonably certain to touch upon are the passage of an anti-trust law along the lines proposed last year, needed labor legislation, additional fortifications for the Philippines and for seacoast defense in this country, increased power for the Interstate Commerce Commission in the supervision of rates, an endorsement of the postal savings bank project, legislation requiring publicity of campaign expenses, a new employers' liability law, the progress in the construction of the Panama canal, staidhood for New Mexico and Arizona, child labor legislation, uniform divorce laws, tariff revision, and the international amity resulting from the cruise of the Atlantic fleet.
Almost simultaneous with the assembling of Congress a series of notable meetings is to be held in Washington by bodies formed to promote the enactment of various legislative measures in which the country is interested. During the week there will be meetings of the governors of all the states and their advisers, known as the National Conservation Commission, to list the natural resources of the United States; the Southern Commercial Congress, to call attention to the resources and possibilities of the South; the National Rivers and Harbors Congress, to work for a coherent policy in the development of the great natural lines of transportation, and the National Council of Commerce, to consider the important features of commercial relations at home and abroad.
An echo of the Brownsville affair will be heard in the United States Supreme Court Monday, when the case of the former negro soldier, Oscar Reid, who was dismissed from the service without honor, owing to his alleged participation in the Brownsville shooting will come up for argument. The suit is for pay during the time of his enlistment. The verdict of the circuit court of Southern New York was against him.
President-elect Taft will go to New York Monday to speak at the annual dinner of the North Carolina Society of New York. His speech is expected to be of a character to command national attention and of particular interest to the South.
The literary world, at least the English-speaking part of it, will be interested in the celebration of the Milton Tercentenary, which is to be observed by colleges, literary societies and other bodies in England and America.
A national corn exposition will open in Omaha and a national apple show will hold forth in Spokane. Both exhibitions are of wide scope and promise to attract much attention.
The trial of Col. Duncan B. Cooper, Robin Cooper and John D. Sharp, who are charged with the murder of ex-Senator Edward W. Carmack, is scheduled to begin Tuesday in Nashville, Tenn.
Unless the governor or board of pardons interferes the death sentence will be carried out on Herman Billock at Chicago Friday. Billock is the fortune teller who was convicted of the murder of five members of the Vral family. His case was carried to the United States Supreme Court and has attracted wide attention.

MARKED FOR DEATH.

The record of "Big Ed" Walsh of the White Sox for '08 makes pretty swell baseball statistics. Ed won 40, lost 15, tied 1, finished 9 and was taken out once.
And Bill Papke still declares he thought the count was six instead of eleven. If it had been Joe Gans Joe would have said seven.
Several of the boys who did a dog-trot-in-can act for several days grabbing the Papke end laying good odds are hoping that Bill will stub his toe on the coast and fall in the ocean.
There are signs that the running game is going to be the means of separating innocents from their money as it was several years ago. Have a care if some rummy comes along claiming to be Dorando, Shrubh or Longboat.

Woman's Power Over Man
Woman's most glorious endowment is the power to awaken and hold the pure and honest love of a worthy man. When she loses it and still loves on, no one in the wide world can know the heart agony she endures. The woman who suffers from weakness and derangement of her special womanly organism soon loses the power to sway the heart of a man. Her general health suffers and she loses her good looks, her attractiveness, her amiability and her power and prestige as a woman. Dr. R. V. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y., with the assistance of his staff of able physicians, has prescribed for and cured many thousands of women. He has devised a successful remedy for woman's ailments. It is known as Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It is a positive specific for the weaknesses and disorders peculiar to women. It purifies, regulates, strengthens and heals. Medicine dealers sell it. No honest dealer will advise you to accept a substitute in order to make a little larger profit.
IT MAKES WEAK WOMEN STRONG. SICK WOMEN WELL.
