New officers of the Degree of Honor are as follows: Chief of Honor, Carolyn Miller; Lady of Honor, Jeannette Moorhead; Chief of Ceremonies, Josie Moorhead; Recorder, Arvilla H. Powell; Financier, May R. Moorhead; Usher, Iva Miller; Receiver, Clara Lee; Inside Watch, Arda Kirk; Outside Watch, Bert Jackson; Trustee, Amanda Lee; Medical Examiner, Dr. N. L. Lee; Musician, Lois Parks; Captain, Arvilla H. Powell.

City election next Monday. There is no strife for office but it is to be hoped that all will have the best interests of the town in view and elect good men. Those prominently mentioned for councilmen are Fred Pell, Dr. Hicks and Forrest Miller. These are all good, reliable business men.

D. R. Hill has purchased the quarter block north of the residence of S. L. Moorhead on which he expects to build a fine home. He is placing his farm in condition to leave in the care of another. Mr. and Mrs. Hill are excellent people and their coming will be gladly welcomed by their many friends.

Another business house will be built in Junction and as soon as the lumber can be secured at that. W. R. Sumers has let the contract to Wm. Leppert for a two-story frame building 30x50 on the vacant lot adjoining the Star theatre. The building has already been leased to Wm. Leppert and Charles Butler, who will conduct a blacksmith and wagon repair shop, also repairing furniture, etc.

INDIANS DEFEAT JUNCTION HIGH

Chemawa, Or., Dec. 5.—The Junction City high school football team was defeated by the Chemawa second team this afternoon by a score of 36 to 0, in two 20 minute halves. The first half closed with a drop kick, a touchdown with a goal to the credit of Chemawa, which added five more touchdowns and one goal in the second half.

The Indians ran the ends and bucked the line almost at will. They used the delayed pass repeatedly for away for Junction City early in the game and played a splendid game throughout. The officials were Professor Baker of Junction City and Mr. Fleming of Salem.

O. A. C. STUDENTS DIVIDED ON GAME IN PORTLAND

Oregon Agricultural College, Corvallis, Dec. 5.—Since the O. A. C. Oregon game in Portland November 21, opinion is very much divided relative to the advisability of playing the annual game in the metropolis. Those who want the game in Portland contend that it is to the interest of both institutions, in that it brings them prominently before the people of the state and helps athletics financially, also that it provides a neutral field and better facilities for accommodating a large crowd.

The arguments against playing the game in Portland are that it ceases to be a true college game and is played for a pecuniary gain. It costs the students, many of whom are hardly able to stand the expense, much more money and in some cases makes it impossible for all the students to attend.

In order for both Oregon and O. A. C. to perform in Portland it would perhaps be possible for Oregon to play on Multnomah field and for O. A. C. to make a lasting contract with Washington State College for a game in Portland. A game between the Aggies of Oregon and Washington would prove a great drawing card and would be a financial success. It is thought that a majority of the students favor such an arrangement and hope that the athletic management will take some such action in arranging the schedule for next year. During the past three years, O. A. C. has not succeeded in arranging a satisfactory schedule and it is to be hoped that a better one will be secured for next season.

LOST VALLEY NOTES

(Special Correspondence.) Lost Valley, Dec. 2.—Heavy frosts and fogs have been the prevailing elements for the past week.

Several of the neighbors of this vicinity attended the meetings conducted at Rush Island by Rev. D. E. Baker. The meetings closed Thursday evening, Thanksgiving day, and Rev. Baker preached two sermons here at the Dexter school house. Sunday Rev. J. C. Holman preached at Unity and Fall Creek Sunday last.

Word comes to us that William Tate is to purchase a thirty-horsepower road engine and outfit. Mr. Tate is an enterprising young mill man of Trent and will use his road outfit to transport lumber to Eugene.

C. S. Pogue is now to be seen plowing on the farm of Mrs. K. L. Jacobs. What means that well-defined trail from the field to the house?

Charles Chandler and family will move to Donna in a short time. Mr. Chandler has a position there in the mill.

It seems that while two of our energetic nimrods were searching the forests about Mt. June a short time ago they became confused as to the direction and came again into the direction and came again into the direction of the house.

The season for upland birds closed last Monday with very few of the game bagged in this vicinity. Pheasants were very scarce here this season.

MARKED FOR DEATH.

"Three years ago I was marked for death. A grave-yard cough was tearing my lungs to pieces. Doctors failed to help me and hope had fled, when my husband got Dr. King's New Discovery," says Mr. A. C. Williams of Bac, Ky. "The first dose helped me and improvement kept on until I had gained 58 pounds in weight and my health was fully restored." This medicine holds the world's healing record for coughs and colds and lung and throat diseases. It prevents pneumonia. Sold under guarantee at W. A. Kuykendall's drug store, 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.
