

STANLEYS Price Cutters 612 Willamette Street, Eugene, Three Doors South of Ninth St.

HOLIDAY GIFTS.. Useful and Pleasing

TOILET SOAPS.. Large cakes, Three in a box, Our price 69c. Colgate's 75c boxes, Three large cakes, Our price 40c. Handkerchiefs, Ladies' Hand Bags, Jewelry, Scarf Pins, Chains, Brooches, Charms, Cuff Buttons, Rings, Men's and Boys' Dress Shirts, Suspenders in fancy boxes, Neckwear for ladies and gentlemen, Combs, brushes, Toilet Articles, Hose, Armbands.

Perfumes Are nice for Holiday Gifts. We have Colgate's, Rieger's, Eastman's, Dabrooks. Perfumes in cut glass bottles and handsome packages at 10c to $4.00. Stationery Is always most acceptable. We have an elegant line of Eaton-Hurlbut's well-known goods. Prices range from 10c to $1.00. Handkerchiefs Are always favorites—especially such nice ones as reasonable in price as ours. If you want handkerchiefs, don't forget Stanley's.

STANLEYS Have It and the Price Is Less

GROCERIES Dayton Hard Wheat Flour, $1.25. Patent White best valley Flour, $1.10. 10 boxes best Seedless Raisins. They last $3.75 box of 50 in box. DODGE, Successor to Scobert & Dodge

NEW TODAY proved small farm, gentle southerly sloping, sunny, warm and level land with living water; adapted to fruit, grapes, garden truck, poultry and dairying. Must have good house of at least five rooms.

CITY NEWS

Every day matinee at the Bell Theatre, beginning tomorrow. D 16. Every day matinee at the Bell Theatre, beginning tomorrow. D 16. The Smyth Transfer Co. received another carload of sugar this morning. Every day matinee at the Bell Theatre, beginning tomorrow. D 16. A marriage license was granted last evening to Chas. E. Wood and Miss Ethel L. Sprague. The exterior of the front of the new Cherry block has been covered with a coat of cement plaster. The old Matlock place, near Goshen, is being sold off in small tracts. Eli Bangs, of this city, has just bought a good-sized portion of the place. The completed school census shows that there are 2,368 children of school age in the Eugene district. This is an increase of 193 over the number last year. There will be a dance in the hall at Elmhurst on Xmas night, Dec. 25th, 1908. Tickets, including supper, $1.25. Come and enjoy a good time. D 18. H. A. Cook has bought Kuthe & Boddy's cigar store and has taken charge of the business. Mr. Cook is recently from Portland. Chas. Davis will assist him in the store. Passengers on the Roseburg local from the south today, say they never saw the passenger list so light as it was this morning. People are evidently saving their money till Christmas time. Professor Howe spoke this morning on the subject of "Socialism and Literature" at the University assembly. The address was strictly from the standpoint of literature and was enjoyed by a large crowd. Salem Journal: Mr. and Mrs. A. Barnes, of Honolulu, were in Salem yesterday. They went to Eugene this morning, and will stop at the principal towns of Oregon, with the intention of locating in one of them. The cement walk along the West Eighth street side of the Hovey block at the corner of Eighth and Willamette streets is being torn up preparatory to putting in a new walk that will be on a grade with the curbing. Among the carload freight shipments into Eugene last night, were a carload of lumber for the Eugene Planing Mill Co. and a car of lumber for the Booth-Kelly Co. W. O. Cook is shipping out another car of brick to Wendling. Eugene passengers on Sunday's Roseburg local to Portland, report that they encountered a stretch of country four or five miles. A low Salem, where snow covered the ground to the depth of nearly an inch. There was not a sign of snow this side or the other side of there. Logan and Murdock, recent arrivals here, have secured the use of the armory for the greater portion of each week, and will hold public dances on every Wednesday and Saturday night. On Friday evening a strictly college dance will be given. Thursday evening will be devoted to dancing lessons, both gentlemen being masters of the art. Samuel Young, who resides on rural route No. 3, southwest of Eugene, a few days ago received by mail, all the way from Scotland, a good-sized Christmas cake, sent by friends there. It weighed six pounds. Mail Carrier J. C. L. Woolley brought a piece of the cake to The Guard office this afternoon. The Bell theater opened last night under very auspicious circumstances. The house was crowded at each performance which pleased everybody. This little place of amusement promises to become very popular and bright prospects are ahead for the proprietors. The interior of the theater is very handsomely arranged and the stage settings are good. Alex Johnson, the man who was arrested yesterday, charged with stealing two overcoats from the Hotel Gross, was discharged from custody by Judge Bryson, of the justice court, today. A. J. Pickard, the complainant, filed notice of satisfaction of injury and Deputy District Attorney Skipworth moved that the case be dismissed. Early risers saw the first snow of Helen R. Marks Co. Druggists. Hotel Smeede Bldg. The Quality Store. Headquarters for fine IMPORTED PERFUMES and high grade toilet requisites. We carry an excellent selection of CHRISTMAS PERFUMES; Roger & Gallet, Piver, Houbigant, Guerlain and Violet are a few of the French perfumers whose goods we have. In domestic perfumes we have Colgate's, Rieger's, Dabrock's and many others. Look through the New Drug Store for Seasonable Suggestions while doing your Christmas shopping. Stationery In fancy boxes, holly designs, Eaton-Hurlbut and Berlin papeteries, per box, 35c to $1.50. Military Hair Brushes With the full value in the brush. Just the present for a man. $1.50 to $5.00. Toilet Sets comb and mirror. Per set, $3.00 to $5.50. Gillette Safety Razors In leather cases with twelve blades, $5.00. Travelers' Safety..... $7.00. Calendars Hand-painted Calendars, local views, 25c to $1.00. Roll-ups For travellers, waterproof, interlined with rubber, $1.50 to $7.00. A Good Hair Brush Guaranteed finest bristles, would be an acceptable present, $1.00 to $6.00. Manicure Goods Pearl-handled ribbon nail files; fine pointer Scissors, from 75c to $1.50.

FOR SALE—12-room house within 3 blocks of business part of city. Inquire 466 High st. FOR SALE—Three work mules, from five to eight years old; weight about 1200 lbs. Write T. C. Brown, Creswell, Or. 422. HAY FOR SALE—Clean chest or vetch hay delivered to any part of Eugene or Fairmount at $15 per ton. Call or address W. H. Lord, Irving, or phone Farmers 124. 418. PIANOLA-PIANO PLAYER FOR SALE—Must be sold quickly. Address No. 375 W. 8th st. 417. FOR SALE—Carrots for feeding. Call or phone Farmers 258. 439. AUTO FOR SALE—1908 machine for $550; 40 hp., glass front, top, magneto, gas tanks, new tires and in perfect running order. Demonstration given in Portland. The Oregon Co., 395 Wells-Fargo Bldg., Portland. 422. H. A. LERP, M. D.—Regular physician and surgeon, Laboratory, electric and hot air treatments given. Obstetrics a specialty. Temporary office 492 Willamette street. Christmas block. Phone Black 4481.

PERSONAL F. A. Rankin has left on a trip to the East. Dr. D. A. Paine went to Portland on business today. M. J. Arnel, of Marcola, spent last night in the city. P. D. Gilbert came in from the south this morning. A few flakes fell about seven o'clock, but none has fallen since. Snow fell in Portland last night and covered the ground and more was expected today. People coming up from Junction today state that there was quite a fall of the "beautiful" there last night but it did not remain on the ground. Frank Hayer, local representative of the Kola Nels Hop Co., of Salem, as bought of Miller Bros. the remainder of their crop of hops, consisting of 240 bales, at 5 cents per pound. They are plowing up their yard of 75 or 100 acres and will go out of the hop business as they, like a great many others, have lost money during the past few years on the crop. W. J. Mulkey was in the city from Creswell today. Geo. E. Potter, of Marcola, was in the city over night. R. R. Wood, of Roseburg, is in the city on business today. T. H. Garrett went to Junction City today on business. William Hodess made a flying trip to Junction City today. John Yarnell and William Boggs left for Seattle today. T. C. Brown, of Creswell, was in town on business today. Mrs. A. T. Bennett returned this afternoon from Harriaburg. F. Gement was a stage passenger for Waterville this morning. Wick Huff was a passenger to Irving on the noon train today. Wm. Clark, of Medford, is in the city on business for a few days. G. N. Miller, of Oroville, Cal., was an arrival in Eugene last night. Cliff Abrams went to Portland today to be gone a week or more. Uncle Daniel Hunsaker went to Goshen this afternoon on a visit. F. A. Hills and wife, of Scott's Mills, arrived in Eugene last night. C. F. Hurlbut came up from Junction City this afternoon on business. Fred Ware left on the noon train today for Seattle to be gone a few days. J. M. Martin, after a siege with the pneumonia, is able to be down town again. Dr. Rehban and wife and Oscar Nelson and wife, of Wendling, were in the city over night. Attorney E. O. Potter went to Salem today to argue a case before the supreme court tomorrow. Mrs. Beula Gehrens returned to Portland today, after a few days' visit with friends in Eugene. Mrs. P. H. Skages, of Junction City, after a visit with friends at Coburg, returned home today. Julius Demfch and O. H. Howard, of Springfield, spent last night in the city. A. D. Applegate went to Yoncalla this afternoon to look after the work of setting out a walnut grove on his farm there. Mrs. Thos. Elliott came up from Portland this afternoon to visit her son, Samuel Elliott, an instructor in the University. Mr. and Mrs. P. E. Snodgrass were passengers on the noon train today for Portland, where they will visit a few days. J. Kavanaugh, manager of the Singer Sewing Machine Co.'s office in Eugene, left last night for a trip to Southern Oregon cities.

Don't Forget the CORNER SHOE STORE Big Sale of Ladies' Welt Shoes, $3.00, $3.50, $4.00 and $5.00 values, fifteen different styles, kid, patent and gun metal, your choice per pair $1.95 Formerly The WELLS SHOE STORE, Corner Willamette and Ninth Streets, Eugene, Oregon.