

EDITOR MOORHEAD RECEIVES HIS ORDERS

(Junction City Times.)
We have received a card from the secretary of the Lane County Medical society informing us that the society forbids their names being used in connection with medical or surgical cases. We won't, dear doctor. Neither will we use the usual prefix or suffix. Hereafter you are just plain John Smith, or whatever your name might happen to be. Too bad, though. We were under the impression that we owned this paper and could publish any news item within our knowledge, but we are forbidden to do so. This edict may apply to some of their bungling surgical operations, or in administering the wrong medicine. It would no doubt violate the law of ethics to mention the doctor before the undertaker completed his task. Awfully glad you mentioned your command. In an unguarded moment we mentioned the Abbotts whose patient sleeps in the cemetery west of here; then there was another patient not a hundred miles from here, died in the physician's office. We considered him blameless, but we apologize for mentioning it. We'll not do it again, that is, we'll not side in. This M. D. mandate will not be strictly observed by this paper, it will rather provoke a tendency to give "full particulars" should any case come to our notice wherein the physician is at fault.

Several students of Yew Park, Salem, were dismissed yesterday for wearing loud socks, contrary to orders. It was a malicious, combined effort to have a loud time.

the famous cod liver and iron medicine, without oil. Vinol is much better than cod liver oil and emulsions, because, while it contains all the medicinal value they do, it disagrees with no one. As a body builder and strength creator for old people, delicate children, after sickness, and for stubborn coughs and colds Vinol is unequalled.

NEW ENGINE PUT IN AT SPRINGFIELD ELECTRIC PLANT

New Power Will Probably Not Be on Until About Dec. 25

The Willamette Valley company lights were off at their big electric plant from early morning till 6 p. m. Sunday evening in order to make steam connection with the big turbine engine which was being installed. The new transformers have arrived and are now being put in. We are informed that the new power will be ready for use between the 20th and 25th or about Christmas time and we can then expect or at least look for a much improved service.

Chas. Bowman informs us that his son Ned, was seriously hurt while working at a shingle mill near Crow two weeks ago, and last Sunday had to submit to an operation. He was working in the timber near the mill and was chopping off a branch from a tree when the end flew up and struck him in the groin, causing a painful wound which later developed into an abscess.

D. P. Ohlson, father of T. E. Ohlson, hookkeeper at the Booth-Kelly mill, drove over from his fine ranch west of Eugene last Monday to take a first look at his young grandson.

The corner meat market owned by J. S. Kirkley has changed ownership, the new proprietor being J. A. Rodgers, a gentleman from California, who will take possession about the 10th of January.

UNABLE TO IDENTIFY MYSTERIOUS $2410

Ogden, Utah, Dec. 18.—The ownership of $2,140 received through the mail in a newspaper by Charles probably will not be established.

It was believed that the money was part of the loot of the East Side bank at Portland, Oregon, which was robbed recently but it is learned that positive identification of the money is impossible as the bank as they had no record of the numbers of the bills on hand.

The postal authorities claim that it is no affair of theirs and it seems probable that a lengthy legal tangle will ensue.

HENEY DENIES PUBLISHED REPORT

Los Angeles, Cal., Dec. 18.—There is a distinct belief here that Francis J. Heney is paid from the secret service funds of the government for his work in San Francisco," says Harry C. Carr, Washington correspondent of the Times, in an article printed here yesterday.

"As a sequel of the Aldrich resolution introduced in the senate the secret service system will be thoroughly investigated and various dark mysteries laid bare," continues Carr. "The resolution has special reference to 'special attorneys' employed in the investigation of possible crimes."
"The big question before the senate was whether the president of the United States had the right to use government money to send special prosecutors into California on a purely local city fight. The question did not come out from hiding, but the significance of it was appreciated by the senate body as a whole."

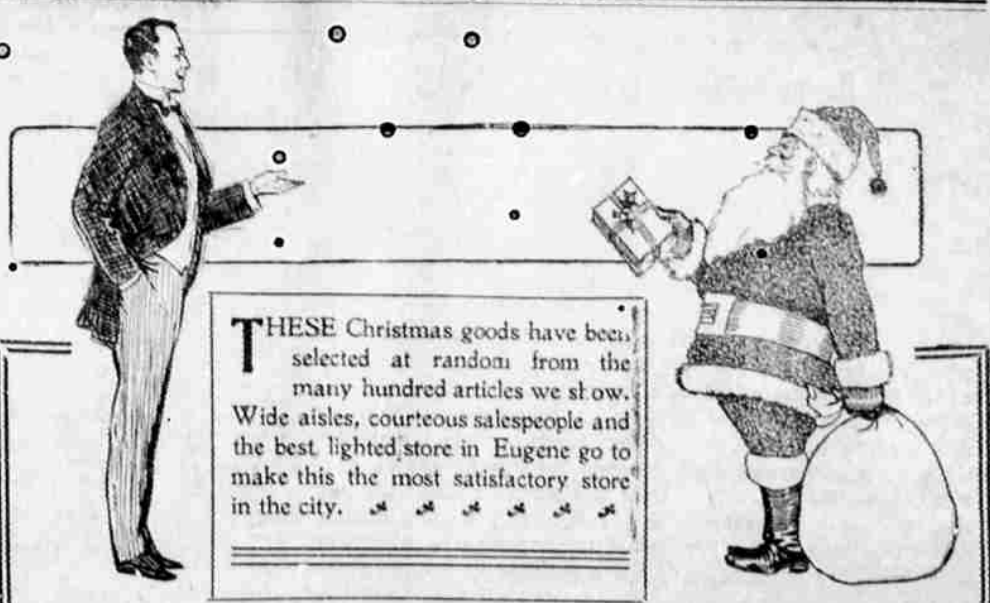

San Francisco, Dec. 18.—Francis J. Heney in a statement to the United Press yesterday denied flatly and emphatically that President Roosevelt had anything to do with his activities in the San Francisco graft prosecutions.

Referring to the article by the Los Angeles Times correspondent Heney said: "It is absolute rot. There isn't the shadow of a reason for making such statements."

"Any statement that I received money from the government for my work in San Francisco is false. President Roosevelt had nothing to do with my coming to San Francisco to take up the fight. Neither did he have anything to do with Detective William J. Burns' coming here. Mr. Burns resigned from his position with the government that he might be able to devote all of his time to the work here."

"Any talk about the government having control over me is absurd. There was no time when I was prosecuting cases for the government that I was not at liberty to drop the work. I withdrew from the government cases so that I could give the time that was necessary to the San Francisco prosecutions."

BOURNE WANTS MORE PAY FOR PRESIDENT

Washington, Dec. 18.—Senator

Jonathan Bourne, of Oregon, yesterday introduced a bill into the senate providing for an increase of the president's salary from $50,000 to $100,000 and that of the vice president from $25,000 to $25,000. He says the salaries are inadequate to permit the maintenance of an official establishment by anyone except the wealthy presidents or vice presidents.
