CITY NEWS

Co. A's annual masquerade—New Year's Eve—swell prizes.

Some fine prizes to be given away New Year's eve at the masquerade ball.

H. G. Hayes and family have moved from Springfield to Eugene and will reside here.

E. M. Warren has added to the Commercial club's exhibit some fine specimens of grasses.

The mud on the depot grounds between the passenger depot and the Willamette street walk is almost intolerable.

Judge Harris yesterday granted decrees of divorce to the following: Sylvester E. Beckwith from Sarah E. Beckwith and Ancl F. Linn from Florence Linn.

J. P. Hedde, who lives at Springfield Junction, has just completed drilling a fine well on his place, going down 82 feet and securing an excellent flow of good water.

Parties wishing masquerade suits can order through W. F. Wadch at the Army club rooms, between 12 noon and 11 p. m. until Monday morning.

The palms at the depot withstood the recent cold snap nicely. They were housed up in the baggage room but have been taken out again as the weather is now much warmer.

The afternoon Roseburg local arrived last evening at 6:10 o'clock, four hours late, as a result of the freight wreck down the valley, as mentioned in last evening's Guard.

Harry Roland was fined $20 in the police court late yesterday afternoon for roaming the streets after midnight without any good excuse for being out. The amount was paid.

Mr. Swinney, manager of the Bell theatre, will pass all the boys carrying The Evening Guard free at the special Christmas matinee, providing the boys get an O. K. from said paper.

Trainer W. L. Hayward and Captain Dudley Clark, of the University of Oregon football team, went to Portland today to arrange for securing Robert Forbes as coach again next season.

The Ladies' Auxiliary of the Commercial club meets Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock in the club parlors. All members are expected and strangers within the city are cordially invited.

Arthur Lattis, the efficient day clerk at the Hoffman house, has resigned his position. He will spend Christmas with his mother at Pleasant Hill and may go to Portland soon to locate.

The marriage of Lawrence F. Jensen, one of the proprietors of the Eugene Planing Mill Co.'s plant, to Miss Mamie M. Dickson, will take place at the latter's home near Albany tomorrow afternoon at 3.30 o'clock.

The funeral of Joseph Loretz, who committed suicide one day last week by shooting himself in the head, was held at the Gordon undertaking parlors this afternoon and the body buried in the I. O. O. F. cemetery.

Manager Welch, of the Portland, Eugene & Eastern railway, states that the reason the cemetery car has been taken off at 4 p. m. each day, is on account of the lack of power. From now on, he says, it will run till 6 p. m. each day.

Among the carload shipments into

Eugene last night were a car or paper for the Guard Printing Co. and a car of wagons for the Chambers Hardware Co. The Booth-Kelly Lumber Co. received several carloads of lumber and shingles.

Rev. M. P. Dommermaas, who has been absent from the city for several months will return in time to preach a Christmas sermon. Members kindly note that there will be services in the Norwegian Lutheran church at the corner of 6th and Pearl streets on Christmas day at 10:30 a. m.

Husbands, fathers, sweethearts or brothers could not be more appropriately remembered Christmas than with one of our nice pipes (meerschau or genuine French briar), a cigar case, a match box or a box of fine cigars put up especially for gift giving. The assortment is large, with a reasonable price range. McCormick Bros., 506 Willamette street, d23

Eugene chapter, R. A. M., held election of officers last night with the following result: High priest, S. S. Spencer; king, G. O'B. DeBar; scribe, C. S. Freeland; commander of the host, G. W. Norris; treasurer, F. W. Osburn; secretary, D. Bristol; principal sojourner, Y. D. Hensall; R. A. Captain, S. R. Mosher; master of the 32, W. Willis, master of the 22, F. S. Dunn; master of the 12, J. S. Magiady; sentinel, D. L. Cartmell.

McLeod, the tailor will move to the room in the Fraser building at Sixth and Willamette streets, being vacated by the Marx Dye Works, and the Labbe hardware store will occupy the room to be vacated by the tailor shop on East Ninth street. The hardware store is enlarging and will occupy this room in addition to the room on the corner which they now occupy. Marx is moving to his own building on East Ninth street between Pearl and High.
