A New Baby.

Baby! What magic, what mystery, what charm these words have r us. Yet, how infinitely more they mean to the mother. A new life;
e sure, but full of possibilities. Some one must be patient, hopeful, proud and never discouraged. That "some one" is the mother. She her baby's first cry, and whether it be her first or tenth, the feeling ne. Her feeble arms are out-stretched; those arms that will never s long as the mother shall live. And that hand which supports the new-born babe, the mother's hand, supports the civilization of the world.
any wonder, we ask you, mothers, that with all these responsibilities on your all too weak shoulders, we urge upon you the necessity of he babe's medicine with utmost care; the necessity of protecting your worthless, unknown and narcotic drugs as you would protect it from

CASTORIA

The Kind You Have Always Bought, and which has been in use for over 30 years, has borne the signature of Chas. H. Fletcher. and has been made under his personal supervision since its infancy. Allow no one to deceive you in this. FIVE DAYS REMAIN FOR CONTESTANTS TO WIN BONUS

Five days still remain for the contestants in the Guard voting contest to win the five thousand votes offered for all those who make the 20,000 mark by New Year's Day. The twenty thousand mark will be the end of the first round for the Seattle trip, in which the glories and beauties of the Alaska-Yukon-Pacific exhibition will be shown the party entirely free.

A representative of the Guard is at Seattle today arranging for cuts to be used in the paper as illustrations. As soon as he returns further details will be announced for the candidates, not only for the grounds of the World's Fair, but also of the time that will be spent in Seattle itself.

The great sound city is one of the distinctive metropolises in the country. In the American mind it holds a place similar to that which San Francisco and New York occupies. New York is the great commercial center, San Francisco the great way to the Orient, and Seattle to Alaska and the Orient. It will also be the center of the world next summer because of the great fair.

Of course The Guard does not ask its contestants to work on Sunday. Therefore, there only remains for practical purposes four days for the candidates to win the bonus.

Next week will be hustle and hustle on the part of the girls, and The Guard asks the people of Lane county to receive them as kindly as possible.

Special Offer.

For a short time only we are going to make the following offer: This is a grand premium for the subscribers to the Daily or Weekly Guard.

A large fine wall map of the state of Oregon, the United States and the world, showing Panama canal, battleship fleet's trip around the world. These charts are nicely mounted, lithographed on heavy varnished paper and contain as much valuable information as an ordinary atlas. Call and see them, or send your remittance of $3.00 for the Daily Guard, one year, or for the Weekly Guard, and one of these maps will be delivered to you. The map alone is worth more than the price of the paper. Every year's subscription to the Daily or Weekly Guard also entitles you to 1000 votes for your favorite candidate in the contest.

Contest Conditions.

The ballots will be counted three times each week until further notice, the announcements being made on Mondays, Wednesdays and Saturdays in the Daily Guard.

The ballot box is located in the Guard's business office where ballots and coupons may be deposited during business hours.

Voting Districts.

Lane County is divided into districts as follows:

Eugene, three to go.

Cottage Grove and Lorane, one to go.

Creswell, Goshen, Dexter and Jasper, one to go.

Springfield, one to go.

Marcola, Coburg, Wendling and Mabel, one to go.

Junction, Irving and Harrisburg one to go.

Elmira, Blachly, Mapleton, Acme, and Crow one to go.
