FIRST PAYMENT ON Y. M. C. A. FUND IS DUE ON JAN. 2

Building Committee Is Sending Out Notices to Subscribers to the Fund

The building committee of the Y. M. C. A. is sending out postal cards to all subscribers to the fund informing them that the first installment of their subscription will become due on January 2. The wording of the card is as follows: "The building committee reports progress. The first important item in erecting a good building is the plans. The committee is conferring with architects and hopes soon to decide on a plan that will please all and be up-to-date for many years. The directors will need money soon to make final payment on building lot as per contract. The first installment on subscriptions is due Jan. 2, 1908. Pay at the bank or Mr. S. D. Allen."

There is a return card attached with a blank to designate at which bank the subscriber wishes his card left for payment.

FINCH'S FATE IN THE JURY'S HANDS

Portland, 4 p. m.—The Finch murder case was given to the jury this afternoon, but a verdict has not yet been rendered.

He burned several mattresses in use at the dormitory, which had become infested with vermin.

The funeral of Soren Sorensen, who died yesterday, will be held tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock, at the family residence, 356 Washington street, with interment in the I. O. O. F. cemetery. Rev. O. C. Wright will conduct the services.

It was understood here that Multnomah Club would last night decide whether they would play Oregon or O. A. C. on next Thanksgiving Day. A telephone message to the Grand this afternoon states that the meeting of the club directors to decide the matter has been postponed.

The Berger-Bean Hardware Co. have moved all their goods to the new I. O. O. F. block and are now getting straightened up. They will be settled in good shape by the first of next week. They have much more room in their new quarters than they had in their old, and the location is probably the best in the city for that business.

Nearly all the Eugene militia officers attended the annual meeting of the officers of the Third and Fourth regiments, O. N. G., in Portland yesterday. Those who went from here were the following: Major C. C. Hammond, Col. Geo. O. Yoran, Col. J. M. Williams, Captain F. L. Chambers, Captain Geo. F. Willoughby, Captain Raymond Babb, Lieutenant W. Branstetter, Lieutenant W. G. White and Lieutenant H. H. Hunter.

Len Goodman, the Springfield youth, who was arrested Sunday evening for burglary, being charged with breaking into the Underwood skating rink and taking therefrom a couple of lenses of a moving picture machine, was given a preliminary hearing before Justice of the Peace Bryson this forenoon. After hearing the testimony, Judge Bryson bound the young man over to appear for trial in the circuit court. The bail was fixed at $200.

The W. C. T. U. will meet at the home of Mrs. Palmer at 643 Alder street tomorrow afternoon at the usual hour.

H. H. Veatch today filed with the county clerk notice of location of the "Roosevelt" mining claim in the Bohemia district.

D. E. Yoran has resigned as a member of the board of governors of the Commercial Club and F. L. Chambers has been elected in his place.

MARKED FOR DEATH

"Three years ago I was marked for death. A grave-yard cough was tearing my lungs to pieces. Doctors failed to help me and hope had fled when my husband got Dr. King's New Discovery," says Mr. A. C. Williams of Bac, Ky. "The first dose helped me and improvement kept on until I had gained 58 pounds in weight and my health was fully restored." This medicine holds the world's healing record for coughs and colds and lung and throat diseases. It prevents pneumonia. Sold under guarantee at W. A. Kuykendall's drug store, 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

Chicago Wheat Market. Chicago, Dec. 29.—Dec. 1.03 1/2; May, $1.07 7-8; July, 99 5-8; Sept. 98.
