Our Happy Family.

Who is it times and near-perspires
O'er copy by the reams and quires—
Who pens all day at rightful speed
On copy no one else can read?
The Editor!

Who is it smokes his magic pipe
And "heads" the news in Gothic type,
In stately letters, side by side,
Across the page 7-columns wide?
The Headwriter!

Who is it writes important news
On people, things and varied news,
Exposing life's dark schemes and tricks,
And dopes the trend of politics?
The Star Reporter!

Who is it tabs the social well,
Describing folks and gowns so well,
Announcing balls and weddings you
And I are ne'er invited to?
The Society Editor!

Who is it frames the daily chart
And gives the odds in whole or part—
Who dopes the pugilist and horse
And kindred things? Why, yes, of course,
The Sporting Editor!

PATRONIZE HOME MERCHANTS

Volumes have been written by local newspaper men to prove to the home people that it is better and more profitable to patronize the merchants of the community than to spend money for goods abroad. Everybody knows this is true, but still we go away from home when we have a few dollars to spend, for the reason that we are under the impression that we may get better goods or more for our money.

It is rank fallacy to harbor the impression that business men of Eugene do not sell as cheaply as in Portland or any other city. They buy in the same market as these retailers, and are therefore in the position to do as well by their customers, if not better, because rents and other expenses are lower in the smaller cities.

Here are some of the reasons why you should patronize the home merchant, to the exclusion of all others:

Because—You examine your purchase and are assured of satisfaction before investing your money.

Because—Your home merchant is always ready and willing to make right any error or any defective article purchased of him.

Because—When you are sick or for any reason it is necessary for you to ask credit, you go to the local merchant. Could you ask it of an outside house?

Because—If a merchant is willing to extend you credit, you should give him the benefit of your cash trade.

Because—Your home merchant pays local taxes and exerts every effort to build up and better your market, thus increasing both the value of city and country property.

Because—The outside merchant does not lighten your tax or in any way help the value of your property.

Because—The outside merchant does nothing for the benefit of markets or real estate values.

Because—If your town is good enough to live in it is good enough to spend your money in.

Because—If you will give your home merchant an opportunity to compete, by bringing your order to him in the quantities you buy out of town, he will demonstrate that, quality considered, he will save you money.

The United States government has come to the relief of Italy with an appropriation of $800,000, which probably is a great deal more money than any other nation of the world will give toward allaying the suffering of the earthquake sufferers. But it is money well spent and everybody is anxious to see the stricken people get it as quickly as possible. The most of the money will be wired to the quake zone, and food and clothing supplies purchased at points where they can be rushed to the needy ones as rapidly as steam can carry them.

Next week the legislature will convene at Salem, and there will be many matters of interest to the people of Eugene considered. Knowing this, The Guard will have a special correspondent in the capital city, who will make daily reports of the proceedings to this paper. Our readers may rest assured that our reports will be complete and that nothing will be overlooked. They will thus be enabled to read at home the reports of the legislative sessions on the day they take place—not the day after.

Corvallis will ask the legislature for the modest sum of $170,000 for new buildings at the O. A. C. Now if the people of Lane county, remembering last year's action of Benton county, should invoke the referendum and vote three to one for it at the polls, wouldn't it jar the fellows who have been so anxious to kill off the State University?

It's pretty cold at Salem now—but just wait another week or so and see how tropical it is down there. When a Republican legislature gets busy electing a Democratic senator it will warm up enough for summer clothing, and then some.

If we failed to have one of these freak winters every ten years or so, we Oregonians might become altogether too chesty over our climate. Pride goeth before a fall.

Eugene's street cars have not stopped running. That's where we score one on Portland.

Now if only the sleigh supply was ample, what a time we might all have.

Wonder if the earthquake has anything to do with this freak winter weather!

It is certain that it is a good deal worse in other places.

Well, What do you think of this?

LAST NIGHT'S MEETING BEST OF THE SERIES

Rev. H. Wyse Jones Delivers
Sermon on "Dead in Earnest" to Large Crowd

The union revival service last night at the Presbyterian church was the best of the series. Evangelist Jones gave one of his most effective sermons on "Dead in Earnest." The largest audience of the week was present. At the after meeting fifteen openly confessed Christ. Miss Daisy Gilbert sang effectively a solo preceding the sermon. Prof. Spear conducted a stirring song service which the large audience greatly enjoyed.

Special announcement was made for the meeting tonight and also Saturday night. Sunday will be the concluding day for Evangelist Jones, when he will conduct, in addition to the morning and evening services, a special meeting for men at three o'clock. There is a possibility of continuing the meetings another week, if Prof. and Mrs. Spear can be secured for that length of time longer than Mr. Jones must leave Monday morning for an important engagement in Southern California. The remaining services of this week will undoubtedly be unusually interesting.

Mr. Jones and Prof. Spear will conduct the Y. M. C. A. meeting tonight at 6 o'clock in Deady hall.

DR. MARTIN AT THE CHRISTIAN CHURCH

The large auditorium of the Christian church was again filled last evening and the audience was held in the closest attention while Dr. Martin delivered what was no doubt the most soul-penetrating sermon since the beginning of the meetings. The interest in the services grows with each succeeding evening.

As the noted evangelist proclaims the word, the hearers are indeed made to feel that the gospel is the power of God unto salvation to every one that believeth.

An inspiring solo by Professor Higgatt also added much to the meeting. The singing capacity of the choir left was taxed to overflowing and the chorus of more than 100 voices led the audience in a rousing song service.

"Look out," said Dr. Martin, "for something of great importance will be given tonight."

No one should fail to be there at 7:30.

NOTICE

SUGGESTS COUNTY COMPOSED OF WESTERN LANE AND DOUGLAS

Gardiner People Would Like to Have County Seat As Well
As Cottage Grove

"The people of Gardiner, Douglas county," remarked a traveling man here last night, "want a county of their own, as well as Drain and Cottage Grove. They think that Western Lane and Western Douglas might combine to the betterment of the two sections, which are now entirely under different organizations."

"Gardiner," he continued, "explain, 'is the seaport of Douglas county and Florence of Lane county.' The character of both towns is about the same, and the sections surrounding each other are also very similar. Neither section has any vital interest in common with any of the interior points of either Douglas or Lane county, and another coast county similar to Coos would surely be more satisfactory to the people of both districts."

A bystander wondered what the population of such a county would be, and the visitor admitted that it would be small. However, he thought by taking in Drain and that section on one side, and drawing the line in Lane county east of Mapleton some distance, the property valuation would be equal to over one-half of that of the whole of Douglas county at present.

Gardiner would be the logical county seat. That port would be near Florence and Sluslaw districts, and not far from upriver section in Douglas county. A name for the new county might be Umquaga, Sluslaw, Coast, or the name of some famous man, as Applegate or McLaughlin, who are so closely connected with Oregon history.

The want ads, probably have a few messages for you to-day.

Some of them, perhaps, will not "wait" either.

UNIVERSITY GIRLS DON'T KNOW WHAT TO DO

Some Won't Be Able to Wear
Their New Ball Dresses

Apprentices, seamstresses, anybody that can sew a plain or a fancy stitch, are wanted by the dressmakers who cater to the young ladies of the University. The freshman dance, the chief social event of the season after Christmas, has been set one week earlier than previously announced, and the sorority houses, the boarding places of University women are so hurried and the girls are so flustered that the poor dressmakers don't know what to do with themselves, the girls or the dresses.

The dance was to have been on January 23. The freshman president made the announcement yesterday that makes the heart of many a fair fashionable beat faster. Many of the girls have planned for weeks and months on their gowns and the modistes are said to be rushed with work. Not only are those of Eugene feeling the anxiety and worry of their poor hurried patrons, but so are those of other towns in Oregon where the studentwomen had placed their orders.

DO YOU GET UP WITH A LAME BACK?

Kidney Trouble Makes You Miserable.

Almost everybody who reads the newspapers is sure to know of the wonderful cures made by Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder remedy.

It is the great medical triumph of the nineteenth century; discovered after years of scientific research by Dr. Kilmer, the eminent kidney and bladder specialist, and is wonderfully successful in promptly curing lame back, uric acid, catarrh of the bladder and Bright's Disease, which is the worst form of kidney trouble.

Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root is not recommended for anything but if you have kidney, liver or bladder trouble it will be found just the remedy you need. It has been tested in so many ways, in hospital work and in private practice, and has proved successful in every case that a special arrangement has been made by which all readers of this paper, who have not already tried it, may have a simple bottle sent free by mail, also a book telling more about Swamp-Root, and how to find out if you have kidney or bladder trouble.

When writing mention reading this generous offer in this paper and send your address to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. The monthly five-cent and one-dollar size bottles are sold by all good druggists. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

Patriotism

The stomach is a larger factor in "liberty and the pursuit of happiness" than most people are aware. Patriotism can wither and languish but not dyspepsia. The confirmed dyspeptic "is fit for treason, stratagem and spoils." The man who goes to the front for his country with a weak stomach will be a weak soldier and a faint leader.

A sound stomach makes for good citizenship as well as for health and happiness.

Diseases of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition are promptly and permanently cured by the use of
