ANOTHER GOLDEN RULE.

Though justice be thy plea, consider this—
That in the course of justice none of us
Should see salvation. We pray for mercy,
And that same prayer doth teach us all to render
Th deeds of mercy.
—Shakespeare.

LOW RATE GRANTED

No news that has been received by the people of Oregon during the last twenty-four months is so important as the announcement that the trans-continental railroads will make a rate, beginning March 1st and continuing until April 30th, from Kansas City, Omaha, St. Paul and Minneapolis, Winnipeg and other similarly situated towns, to all main line railroad points in Oregon for $25.00, says the Portland Commercial Club Bulletin.

The people of no state in the Union have profited more by these one-way tickets than have those of Oregon during the last four years. The rate from Chicago is $33, from St. Louis $30.50, with a proportionate low fare from all points in the United States. This should add many thousands of actual settlers to the population of Oregon. These are one-way tickets, and if travellers desire to return to their former homes in the older Eastern States they will have to pay full fare.

Every commercial club and advertising bureau in the state as well as every real estate firm, should begin immediately to advertise these rates. Every citizen of Oregon should write personal letters to old friends and acquaintances, reminding them that the rate is good to their town. But the ticket must be bought to the point of destination—it is just as cheap to the most distant Oregon point as to one just over the border of the state.

SENATOR LA FOLLETTE'S VIEWS

Following is the way Senator LaFollette talks of the Oregon senatorial situation in his new magazine:

"Thornton Haines is on trial for advising the commission of a crime, and Frank Hitchcock, who is also widely accused of advising the commission of a crime, is guilty of one equally heinous.

"It is said Hitchcock has actively endeavored to induce the legislators of Oregon to violate their promise to support the candidate for the United States senatorship receiving the most votes at the primaries.

"If both men are supposed to be guilty, the only difference between them is one of courage. For Haines' crime, if he is found guilty, the law provides a penalty. The one charged against Hitchcock is unpunishable.

"We decline to suppose that Hitchcock is guilty. In view of the impossibility of legal vindication it would seem that he can do no less than deny the aspersion."

Goodwin's Weekly makes a timely argument in favor of Republican government when it says that while by executive order the soldiers in Cuba are folding their ensigns, embarking for home and turning the fairest and richest island in the world back to the rule of its own people, the congress of the United States is voting $800,000 to the unfortunates of Sicily and Italy, two ships are detailed from the great fleet with rush orders to reach the scene of the cataclysm with their supplies, and the tender is that, if desired, the whole battleship fleet will be turned into hospital ships to help succor the maimed and the starving. In the meantime, the American Red Cross Society is upon the ground at work, while every city and hamlet of the great republic are collecting and hurrying forward their contributions. The world, it seems to us, ought to have a pretty good opinion of the United States, and beyond our country and people a rather high opinion of the efficacy of free institutions in moulding the character of a people.

Here is a list of the big buildings Eugene has assured for this year: Federal building, $60,000; Y. M. C. A., $50,000; new grade schoolhouse, $40,000; city hall, $75,000; new hotel, $60,000. Besides this there will be the extension of the electric road to Springfield and quite likely over several new streets in the city, a large amount of street paving, and the usual list of new business blocks and residences. Never was the future so bright for Eugene as it is today, and the city's population will reach the 15,000 mark by next New Year's day. If you only continue to boost.

Now they say the backbone of winter is broken, and they will have warm weather for the rest of the season. Well, that's a pretty safe guess since such a cold spell as we have just passed through only comes once in twenty years, and is not likely to be repeated during the same winter.

The State Woolgrowers' Association is making an energetic campaign for a bounty on coyote scalps.

To get right down to brass tacks, there are a whole lot of people who do not regard the boosting of official salaries by congress as the first step toward reducing the cost of living in this country, and that is a mighty live issue.

An aged Brooklyn minister says: "Mr. Roosevelt is a dear, good friend of mine, but he is too combusive." By listening closely you may be able to hear the echo of the congressional shout, "That's right."

If the news from Central America isn't the work of fakirs, that peace brotherhood, so widely advertised by a meeting in Washington last year, must be loafing on the job to beat the band.

Secretary Wilson says the outside scientists are hampering the work of the Department of Agriculture by their jealousies. Put 'em on the payroll, Jim, and there will be no more jealousy.

All this talk about the franking of a typewriter—machine—by Senator Tillman will probably put an end to the franking of household furniture by over-thrifty congressmen.

Speaking of superfluous things, an article on "How Women May Woo With Propriety" is about the limit, as every woman since Eve has been familiar with the stunt.

If our memory is not at fault, the senate also once undertook to dispute the late Grover Cleveland's right to withhold information it wanted, and did not make good.

No class is enjoying the wordy scrap between the president and congress more than the railroad and trust magnates—it insures them a rest.

Even the most careless must have observed that the pitchfork used as a defensive weapon is less effective than when used to attack.

DOCTOR MARTIN

EULOGIZES CONWELL

Last evening at the Christian Church Dr. Martin took occasion to speak a short time concerning Russell H. Conwell. In his characteristic hearty manner he paid a handsome tribute to this renowned man. He said among other things: "There will be no service here Saturday evening as every man and woman, boy and girl should hear Russell Conwell. No one can afford to miss this opportunity of hearing this great man in his famous lecture, 'Acres of Diamonds.' I know the man, I know the lecture and he is a wonderful man with an inspiring message. People go hundreds of miles to hear him and Eugene is to have him right in her midst so by all means don't fail to hear Russell Conwell. It is nothing to me as I haven't the slightest pecuniary interest but I would that every person in this locality should hear him. He is a great preacher, a great writer, a great philanthropist, and a great lecturer. Although Mr. Conwell was a soldier in the Civil war and is getting along in years his spirit and mind are as young as a man of forty. Many of the great poets who adorned American literature with their writings were, boon companions of Russell Conwell. I like to preach the Gospel but I also like to hear a man who can speak better than I can. I will be with you Saturday evening to enjoy the instruction and entertainment of Russell H. Conwell."

Your grocer will grind it—better if ground at home—not too fine.

Aids Nature

The great success of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery in curing weak stomachs, wasted bodies, weak lungs, and obstinate and lingering coughs, is based on the recognition of the fundamental truth that "Golden Medical Discovery" supplies Nature with body-building, tissue-repairing, muscle-making materials, in condensed and concentrated form. With this help Nature supplies the necessary strength to the stomach to digest food, build up the body and thereby throw off lingering obstinate coughs. The "Discovery" re-establishes the digestive and nutritive organs in sound health, purifies and enriches the blood, and nourishes the nerves—in short establishes sound vigorous health.

If your dealer offers something "just as good," it is probably better FOR HIM...it pays better. But you are thinking of the cure not the profit, so there's nothing "just as good" for you. Say so.

Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser, In Plain English, 16mo Simplified, 1008 pages, over 700 illustrations, newly revised Edition, paper-bound, sent for 21 one-cent stamps, to cover cost only. Cloth-bound, 31 stamps. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.
