ITALY FACES PROBLEM THAT CAUSES ANXIETY

How to Feed and Care for Two Hundred Thousand Destitute

Rome, Jan. 21.—Italy is confronted with the great problem of caring for 200,000 persons made homeless by the earthquake last month in Sicily and Calabria, who have dispersed in great numbers, not only in the interior of their native provinces, but have gone to Naples in other large cities of the country. It is estimated that it is costing over $100,000 per day to provide the simplest necessities, which neither international charity nor the state can long bear. Furthermore, the bestowal of charity is having an ill effect upon the lower classes and many disorders are reported as a result.

More Shocks Are Felt

Constantinople, Jan. 21.—An official dispatch says six hundred houses were destroyed by an earthquake yesterday at Phonea, near Smyrna. The shocks continue and the people are seeking refuge in the mountains.

CITY TREASURERSHIP IN SAME CONDITION TODAY AS YESTERDAY

Reisner Still Holds the Books and Money —Suit May Soon Be Commenced

The city treasurer situation is today just as it was yesterday. Former Treasurer Reisner still has the books and the money and refuses to give them up and J. J. Walton, the newly-elected treasurer, has the office, but nothing to do. Acting City Attorney Pipes stated this afternoon that if Reisner's attorneys do not do something to bring the matter to a head immediately he will begin suit in behalf of the city to see whether Reisner is in or out. Mr. Pipes says there are court decisions on such cases both ways, and made the remark that "when judges disagree what are the lawyers going to do?" Mr. Pipes says Reisner was legally removed and Attorneys Woodcock and Hardy say he is not. The latter claim that previous notice of removal is necessary whether the charter provides for it or not.

EVANGELIST MARTIN DISCUSSES BAPTISM

At the revival service last night, Dr. Martin spoke upon the subject of "Christian Baptism." The treatment was in every way true to historical testimony and the letter and spirit of the Word of God. The elaborate proof offered by the evangelist should in no way come short of producing an overwhelming conviction to every mind receptive of the truth. Dr. Martin does not lay any more stress upon the command of baptism than upon faith and repentance, and yet he in no way evades or apologizes for the teaching of the Book upon this equally important command. No one should think for a moment that man-made doctrines can take the place of those laid down in the Bible, which is the court of the last appeal as Paul tells us in Rom. 2:16:—"God shall judge the secrets of man according to my gospel, by Jesus Christ."

Dr. Martin will use the subject, "Satan's Devices" for the theme this evening and without doubt all who attend will receive a most uplifting message.

Do not forget the magnificent song service given at the beginning of each meeting and come prepared to enjoy it promptly at 7:30 this evening.

WANT HATPINS ONLY TEN INCHES LONG

That any one who is hired to circulate a petition on initiative and referendum shall be guilty of a misdemeanor as well as a man who hired him is the penalty carried in one measure introduced in the legislature yesterday. In line with the same measure is one making it a misdemeanor to make a pledge while candidate for the legislature. Should these bills become laws, they would seriously impair the effect of the direct primary law. A bill is now under consideration which prohibits a woman from using a hatpin more than ten inches long. Other bills introduced are for the creation of a state fire marshal; creation of an insurance department; for the establishment of normal schools in Portland; the bill prepared by the conservation commission proposing a water code; providing for a children's playground in Portland and for the tax necessary to establish it.

"Tracey's Escape" at the Lyric theatre next Friday and Saturday. Good program for tonight. j23

The East Eugene W. C. T. U. will meet tomorrow (Friday) afternoon at the home of Mrs. Hall.

The river at three o'clock this afternoon registered 14½ feet above low water mark and was rising very slowly.

The Aloha theatre will open to the public tomorrow night. This is one of the most attractive little places of amusement in the state.

Mrs. Charles Stark was brought down on the train from Wendling last evening and placed in the Eugene hospital for treatment.

The sewers are badly congested during this high water in the river and the street commissioner and his force of men are unable to keep them flowing, in many cases the water bubbling up through toilets and overflowing.

The river was at a 14-foot stage this morning and seemed to be at a standstill at that time. The rain has fallen heavily since then, and there has been a slight rise during the day. The rainfall for the 24 hours ending at 8 o'clock this morning was .82 of an inch.

The annual banquet and business meeting of the First Baptist church will be held tonight, January 21, in the parlors of the church building, beginning promptly at 7 o'clock. Music by the orchestra, vocal and instrumental solos. Members of the congregation are expected to be present.

The Y. P. S. C. E. of the Central Presbyterian church held its annual meeting last night and elected officers as follows: President, Miss Kate Hanna; vice president, Miss Vesta Holt; secretary, Miss Frances Young; treasurer, Louis Johnson; pianist, Miss McCormack; corresponding secretary, Miss Chase.

Dr. D. A. Paine went to Salem today as a member of the Eugene Commercial Club committee appointed to fight the bill for creating a new county out of portions of Lane and Douglas. E. S. Rolfe and J. M. Williams are the other members of the committee. Mr. Rolfe is already there and Mr. Williams will go down tomorrow.

"Jack Frost" is reported to have played havoc with the small birds in this section of the state. A man by the name of Vanderpool reports that on a small creek about six miles north of Albany he found hundreds of birds in a bunch which appear to have been killed by the late cold weather or starved. Among the number were many bob-whites and quail.—Herald.

A. C. Woodcock went to Portland today to secure a stallion to replace Eaton Ransome, the English Shire, which died last summer. The animal belonged to a company of farmers consisting of Mr. Woodcock, J. N. Edwards, T. B. Davidson, C. M. Young, E. E. Awbrey and L. C. Vitus. He was bought from A. C. Ruby and when he died Mr. Ruby agreed to replace him with another one.

Lester N. Phelps has begun suit in the circuit court against Della Phelps for divorce. They were married at Westfield, Mass., on May 21, 1893, and have three minor children, Clifford, aged 14 years; Camilla, aged 12, and Lester, aged 8. They are in the East with relatives. Mrs. Phelps resides at Springfield, Mass., and the plaintiff in Eugene. The plaintiff alleges that his wife deserted him in 1902 and has since refused and neglected to live with him. Williams & Bean are attorneys for the plaintiff.
