W. Eighth street, Eugene, Ore., says: "I have used Doan's Kidney Pills with fine results and have also given them to different members of my family, troubled with weak kidneys. I suffered from a lame and aching back and a tired, listless feeling which made life a burden. Doan's Kidney Pills, procured at De Lano's drug store, soon relieved me of these annoyances and I do not hesitate to recommend this remedy to other persons similarly afflicted." GREATEST EXPOSITION WORLD EVER SAW IS FREE TO GUARD WINNERS

MISS ETTA MORRISON.

Popular young lady of Eugene, who is now the leading candidate in district No. 1. Miss Morrison's friends have been working hard in her interest for the past two weeks and promise to keep up their efforts until the contest closes.

The winner in The Guard's popular voting contest will have the opportunity of seeing the greatest world exposition ever held in this country. Seattle is noted for its enterprise in all respects and purposes to show the civilized world what a combination of brains, energy and money can accomplish. Her people have the advantage of the experience of other great exposition cities, Chicago, Buffalo, St. Louis and Portland, to guide them and will profit by it. That all of these will be outdone by the metropolis of the Northwest, is a safe prediction and that many new and novel attractions and features will be added, is already assured. The wonders of the world, the greatest achievements in art, science and manufacture, the products and people of every country will fill the spacious buildings and grounds.

Entrance to this great exposition will be free to the Guard's party and the management promises to place guides at their disposal and extend courtesies that ordinary visitors will be unable to procure. There will be excursions to points of interest about the city and Puget Sound, and entertainment at the splendid new Washington Annex hotel, the city's finest American-plan hotel, whose courteous manager, Mr. J. H. Davis, assures us that he will look personally after the comfort of The Guard's excursion party. Altogether the trip will be the event of a lifetime—a round of pleasure and sightseeing that will never be forgotten by those who participated in it as members of the excursion from Lane county.

To win in this contest will be an honor because of the high standing and popularity of the candidates, and the actual interest of the city being taken in it all over the county. Every neighborhood is interested and almost every copy of the Guard that goes to subscribers has the vote coupon cut out and deposited in the ballot box. Every mail brings hundreds of these from outside of Eugene—the truest test of general interest in the result.

To have the highest grand total of all the candidates now the ambition of every young lady in the contest, because of the two grand prizes to be awarded. The highest vote carries with it the choice either of a $200 residence lot in the city of Eugene, or the naming of the abanone for the party. The second highest has second choice.

EASTERN VIEW OF COMING EXPOSITION

In its January number the Review of Reviews says editorially:

"Within a decade the industrial interests of our far Northwest have developed so amazingly that all former standards of comparison have to be reversed. Take, for example, the matter of Alaska's gold product. The receipts of the Seattle assay office for the ten months ending with October last, amounted to $17,202,704, or about one-fifth of the total production of the United States for an equivalent period. Ten years ago the Alaskan gold output for an entire year was less than $5,000,000. The total for the past year would have been much greater but for a shortage in water supply throughout the mining districts of Alaska. The fact that so great an increment to the world's stock of the yellow metal should reach civilization through one of the youngest of our prospective coast cities reminds us that new channels are being formed to meet the needs of trade and finance upon our Northwestern border. Seattle, with her quarter of a million people, is not only the metropolis of the state of Washington; she sits at the gateway to Alaska, and takes toll from those who come and go. Years ago Seattle saw the advantage of fostering the Alaskan trade, and she has profited by that foresight. Industrial and commercial Alaska is today, to all intents and purposes, annexed to Seattle. The Alaska-Yukon-Pacific exposition, to be opened at Seattle in June next, is likely to astonish those Easterners who will chance to see it. This fair will represent an investment of $10,000,000. Apart from extensive government exhibits, provided for by congress, Uncle Sam will have no financial interest in the enterprise; not a dollar of a government loan has been solicited by the management. Several of the buildings are already completed and others are nearly ready for occupancy. This fair will be a revelation of Alaska's recent progress and especially of the genius of Northwestern America."

Vote for the party. The second highest has second choice.

Voting Districts.

Lane County is divided into districts as follows:
Eugene, three to go.
Creswell, Goshen, Cottage Grove, Dexter and Jasper, two to go.
Springfield, one to go.
Marcola, Coburg, Wendling and Mabel, one to go.
Junction, Irving and Harrisburg, one to go.
Elmira, Blachly, Florence, Mapleton, Acme and Crow, one to go.
The contest closes February 27, at 10 o'clock.

Grand prize—The candidate receiving the highest vote gets free a $200 lot in Blair street addition to Eugene—and the Seattle trip also.

Contest Conditions.

The ballots will be counted three times each week until further notice, the announcements being made on Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday. The ballot box is located in the Guard's business office where ballots and coupons may be deposited during business hours.

ALL ELDERLY FOLKS SHOULD TRY THIS

The great majority of men and women at the age of 50 years begin to feel the first signs of advancing age in some form of kidney trouble and bladder weakness. Few are entirely free from that torturous disease, rheumatism, which is not a disease in itself, but a symptom of deranged function of the kidneys. Such have become clogged and sluggish, failing in their duty of sifting and straining the poisonous waste matter, uric acid, etc., from the blood, permitting it to remain and decompose, settling about the joints and muscles, causing intense pain and suffering.

exactly at night and early morning. Hundreds of readers who suffer will find the following, which is known as the Dandelion mixture, the most harmless and effective treatment to clean the system of rheumatic poisons, remove irritation of the bladder and relieve urinary difficulties of the old people. It is a true vitalizing tonic to the entire kidney and urinary structure, reinvigorating the entire system."

The Dandelion mixture consists of the following simple prescription, the ingredients of which can be obtained from any good pharmacy at small cost: Compound Kargon, one ounce; Fluid Extract, Dandelion, one-half ounce; Compound Syrup Sarsaparilla, three ounces. Shake well in a bottle and take in teaspoonful doses after each meal and upon going to bed, also drink plenty of water.

This prescription, though simple, is always effective in the diseases and affections of the kidneys and bladder and rheumatism.
