THIS MAN MUST HAVE BEEN IN JAIL

Former Medfordite Writes That He Has Seen Sun Here But Once in Six Months

Editor Guard:—The following article appeared in a recent issue of the Medford Mail:

"Word received by private letter from W. R. Higginbotham, of Eugene, states that Mr. Higginbotham has been there since August of last year, and said that he could not like a place where he had seen the sun but once, and that was the 11th of January. He said Jackson county was good enough for him. He will return as soon as the roads are in a safe condition for travel."

In reference to the above we would venture to inquire of Mr. Higginbotham what was the crime you committed that you should be placed in the lock-up or dungeon, as the case may be, during your stay in Eugene? You say you didn't see the sun but once in six months. It would be interesting to know what the penalty would be in the state of Oregon where a gentleman should happen to tell a falsehood twice as big as himself. SUBSCRIBER.

INDICTMENT AGAINST ALLEY DISMISSED

Roseburg Man Freed From the Charges Brought by Heney

Frank E. Alley, a prominent Roseburg attorney and horsebreeder, and Rev. Steven W. Turnell, also of Roseburg, were yesterday released on an indictment which had been returned against them in February, 1936, for alleged land fraud. The motion to dismiss the indictment was made by Tracy C. Becker, special assistant to the attorney-general, who has recently returned from California to handle the government's side of the suit against the Oregon & California Railway Company.

Attorney Alley and Rev. Mr. Turnell, together with A. R. and E. R. Downs, were indicted by Francis J. Heney and the case has never come up for trial. In asking that the indictment be dismissed as to Alley and Turnell, Mr. Becker said that Mr. Alley was an attorney-at-law, and during the years the indictment was pending against him Alley could not practice before the interior department. Mr. Becker also said that it was the wish of Mr. Heney that the indictment be dismissed.

The Downs brothers were never arrested and the indictments against them were allowed to stand.—Oregonian.

CRESWELL NEWS

(Special Correspondence.)

Creswell, Feb. 23.—Hurrah for Creswell! Our new bank opened for business this morning. The two new safes were placed in temporary quarters and work began yesterday on the new bank building.

The weather is still bad. We had quite a snow storm Saturday, but it is all gone except on the hills.

Sam Reed was over yesterday and purchased property in town for a home, paying fifteen hundred dollars for it. He got a bargain, sold by J. L. Clark & Co.

S. A. McKay & Sons have gone out of the real estate business. C. H. McKay going in with J. L. Clark & Co. E. H. Parsons is fitting up everybody in the push.

Creswell will have a boom and Cottage Grove will have to go some or she will have a rival for the county seat of Nesmith county.

Our girls are still in the fight for the honor of going to the Seattle fair.
