STAGE BETTER THAN RING

Jim Jeffries Expects to Make $100,000 in 40 Weeks

New York, March 8.—Making his Eastern debut in this city this afternoon, James J. Jeffries, the champion heavyweight pugilist, is to appear on the vaudeville stage during the next twenty weeks, under the management of William Morris. The salary paid to Jeffries is said to be the largest that any fighter has ever received for appearances outside the prize ring.

The exact figure has not been made public, but it is believed that if the champion fulfills his twenty weeks on the Morris circuit and Mr. Morris exercises his option for another twenty weeks, then the giant pugilist will be able to return to his California home with nearly $100,000 stowed in his pockets, which is as much if not more than he could hope to realize by meeting Jack Johnson in the ring.

BIG RIFLE SHOOT IN APRIL

England, Australia and America Will Compete in Motherland

Washington, D. C., March 8.—Great interest is being attracted to the coming match between England, Australia and America for the indoor championship of the world with miniature rifles. This match was the result of an invitation from the Society of Miniature Rifle Clubs, of Great Britain to the National Rifle Association of America, and a similar association in Australia. The competition will be held during the week beginning April 19 in England, and each contesting country will be represented by fifty of its best marksmen.

The work of selecting the American team is now in progress, and during the week of March 22 the try-outs will take place on the local ranges. Most indoor shooting in this country is at fifty feet and as the international match is to be at 75 feet considerable practice is going on among marksmen who hope to make the team.

BEAN SAYS OREGON WINS

Both Oregon and O. A. C. Held Back by the Weather

Manager Ormond Bean, of the University track team, says that his distance men will stand excellent chances of defeating the O. A. C. relay team on Kincaid field next Saturday. The men have been working as consistently as the weather has permitted. Fortunately for the Oregon runners, the Corvallis contingent has suffered from the inclement weather, as much as they, themselves. In meets with Eastern Washington colleges, the Inland Empire teams have a decided advantage, for in that section there is not much more than half the rainfall that there is in Western Oregon.

Dallas Wins 43 Games.
The Dallas basketball team is on its way home from San Francisco. On the trip—with Multnomah and O. A. C. yet to be played—the team won 43 games and lost 8. The scores at the first of the trip were the largest, indicating the strain put on a team. The aggregation was financed by the Dallas business men and distributed advertising matter of the town.

High School Wins.
The Eugene High school defeated the University freshmen five Saturday evening, 36 to 12. The High school faculty five beat the High school second team 7 to 6 in a preliminary game.
