DUDLEY BUCK SEVENTY YEARS OLD

Famous Composer and Organist
Living Quietly in Brooklyn

New York, March 10.—At his home in Brooklyn, where he has lived quietly since he retired several years ago from the active pursuit of his profession, Dudley Buck, the famous organist and composer, received the congratulations of his numerous friends today on the occasion of his seventieth birthday.

Since the death of Edward Alexander McDowell Mr. Buck is, perhaps, the leading living American composer. A legion of churchgoers of three generations have sung his songs and listened to his music. For a quarter of a century he was organist in Holy Trinity church, Brooklyn, and director and organist of the Apollo Club, one of the acknowledged powers in the American musical world. For nearly forty years he was the best known church organist in America.

Mr. Buck was born in Hartford, Conn., and supplemented his early studies in the United States with an extended course at the Leipzig conservatory, and in Dresden and Paris. On his return to America he became organist of the Park church, Hartford; later of St. James' church, Chicago; in 1872 of St. Paul's, Boston. Later, in this city, he acted as assistant conductor at Theodore Thomas' Central Park garden concerts, and became organist at St. Ann's, Brooklyn, resigning this position to take a similar one at Holy Trinity church.

Mr. Buck was one of the first American composers to receive general recognition. His work includes a long list of cantatas for male and mixed choruses, a great deal of organ and church music, a symphonic overture called "Marmion" and a comic opera, "Deseret."

KING EDWARD'S WEDDING ANNIVERSARY

London, March 10.—Forty-six years ago today, in St. George's chapel, Windsor, the beautiful Princess Alexandra, of Denmark, became the bride of Albert Edward, Prince of Wales, now King Edward VII. Owing to the absence of his majesty in the south of France the wedding anniversary was allowed to pass without any formal observance. Numerous messages of congratulation, however, were sent to both the king and queen.

King Edward and Queen Alexandra are now the oldest married pair among the crowned heads of Europe. It is almost impossible to believe that when they were married Lord Palmerston, now but a memory, was the great figure in the political life of Great Britain.

NEW INSTRUMENT ARRIVED

Dr. Franc Lucille Hard has just received a fine new opthalmometer from Hardy & Company, of Chicago. This instrument is electrically lighted and of the very latest pattern and make, and is for the purpose of accurately measuring the curvature of the cornea of the eye, which measurements are decidedly necessary to a correct diagnosis of eye troubles.

Dr. Hard is constantly enlarging and improving her business, which is growing bigger and better every day.

ATTENTION, EIKS!

The committee appointed at the last meeting of the lodge to look up property and devise ways and means for the erection of a new hall will be ready to report at the meeting this week, and as the matter under consideration is very important, it is expected that each and every one of you will make it your business to be present to hear the report.

NEW HEAD AT DE PAUW UNIVERSITY

Dr. McConnell Installed to Succeed Dr. Hughes, Resigned

Greencastle, Ind., March 10.—De Pauw University today installed Francis John McConnell as president of that institution, in succession to Edwin H. Hughes, who resigned a year ago to become a bishop of the Methodist Episcopal church. The installation ceremonies were witnessed by a large number of the most prominent educators of the United States.

The program of the day began with an academic procession this morning to Meharry hall, where the inauguration took place. Hon. Hugh Doherty, president of the board of trustees, presided over the ceremonies. Addresses were delivered by Henry McCabe Dowling, representing the De Pauw alumni; President Herbert Welch, D. D., of Ohio Wesleyan University, and ex-president Bishop Edwin H. Hughes. President Doherty spoke in behalf of the university corporation, and performed the solemn inaugural services. President McConnell stood with bowed head while the words which were to make him president of De Pauw University were being spoken. A moment later he took the oath of office and the ceremonies closed with the delivery of his inaugural address.

The new president of De Pauw is 38 years of age and a native of Ohio. He attended the public schools of Indianapolis and later graduated from Phillips Andover Academy and Ohio Wesleyan University. After entering the ministry in 1894 he occupied Methodist pulpits in several cities and towns in Massachusetts. From Cambridge he went to Brooklyn to become pastor of the New York avenue church in that city, where he remained until called to the presidency of De Pauw University upon the resignation of Dr. Hughes.
