NEW TARIFF LAW
WILL RAISE PRICESThe Hosiery Manufacturers
Have Secured a Great Victory

Eugene merchants in common with those of the entire country, are aroused over the provision of the new Payne tariff bill increasing the already high duty on hosiery by 20 per cent. They say this clause, if enacted, will make prices on such goods, almost prohibitive, the following discussion being taken from a circular letter issued by Marshall, Field, & Co., the great Chicago dry goods house:

"A careful study of the tariff bill reported on March 16 to Congress, discloses the fact that although the country at large desired an honest revision, meaning that wherever necessary the schedules be lowered, yet a few domestic manufacturers have succeeded in having many rates radically advanced and other maintained at the present high figure. We desire to draw your attention to two of your lines most seriously affected, namely cotton hosiery and women's leather gloves, believing that public sentiment should be emphatically manifested at once against the advances on these goods."

A group of hosiery manufacturers have received a 20 per cent increase over the prevailing 60 per cent rate, making a total of 80 per cent against foreign goods. This would exclude all foreign 25c hosiery, and would enable domestic manufacturers to raise their prices proportionately. At 35c and 50c the public would have the option of accepting an inferior foreign article to that sold heretofore, or buying a domestic substitute which is less desirable.

That the present rate of duty is high enough to pay liberal wages to the operatives and a generous profit to the manufacturers, is shown by the latest Government Census:

Domestic output, 1900, $22,759,319; 1905, $43,590,597; increase of 100 per cent.

During 1908 domestic manufacturers themselves estimated their output at between $50,000,000 and $60,000,000.

"To prove how completely they are getting control of the home market under the present tariff, note the amount of foreign hosiery imported: 1890, $5,162,085; 1900, $4,016,432; 1905, $6,645,570."

"The above official figures show conclusively that the amount of foreign hosiery imported from year to year remains about the same, while the American supremacy has increased 60 per cent in five years."

"The little competition American manufacturers are getting today is only a healthy stimulus, and tends to keep domestic prices in bounds. Today nearly 80 per cent of the fashioned hosiery made in this country is year remains about the same, while the American supremacy has increased 60 per cent in five years."

"Do you want Congress to tax the American people 20 per cent more for their hosiery or to force them to accept proportionately inferior goods at the same price?"

"Superiority of foreign goods in knitting, dyeing and finishing is the principal source of education to the domestic manufacturer. The average tax levied against these goods today is 60 per cent. The rates asked for would average 80 per cent. Do you and your customers want these desirable goods practically excluded from the market?"

"The greatest proportion of hosiery manufactured here is known as seamless, of which American manufacturers have complete control, on account of the high duty now prevailing, so that none but fashioned goods are imported."

"During the past ten years American manufacturers of fashioned goods have made an enormous increase in their output. Their business is thriving to such an extent that they are constantly buying new machinery and adding to their plants. Two years ago a million dollar corporation was formed for making hosiery and the of the largest mills in the country was erected. Would such an enterprise be undertaken unless the industry is profitable under the present rates?"

"We welcome the advance the American manufacturers are making, and we welcome the control they are getting, but we do not welcome a spirit of avariciousness or greed on their part. Their action must be so considered when they ask for 20 per cent more duty in addition to the already exceedingly high rate now in effect."

"The glove manufacturers have not been backward about making similar requests, and their demands are no less justifiable and outrageous. They have secured a tariff that will exclude foreign gloves altogether. They would put practically the whole industry into the hands of a group of manufacturers in Fulton County, New York."

"Under the present act gloves not over 14 inches are taxed according to length, in Schinchen 1.75 to $2.75 per dozen, in Lamb Suede, $2.50 to $3.50 per dozen, in Lamb Glove, $2.50 to $4.50 per dozen and in Kid $3.00 to $4.75 per dozen, while under the new act the rates are uniform on gloves of all kinds of leather ranging from $4.00 to $9.50 per dozen, according to length. Manifestly these rates are prohibitive and intended to be so."

"The rates suggested are an increase over the present rate of 125 to 150 per cent for Schinchen, 60 per cent to 174 per cent for Lamb and 33 per cent to 102 per cent for Kid, which is in direct opposition to the wishes of the people of this country who have declared themselves in favor of reductions in the present rates of

"Such increases mean levying of a tax of 33 cents per pair upon the cheapest glove imported and, from that rate, advances to 80 cents per pair; and these taxes are exclusive of the additional duties provided for lined, embroidered, pique, pris-acum and silk lined gloves."

"Statistics show that the domestic product for the year 1905 was $17,740,385, as compared with importations of $4,899,793. From this it is clear that the Domestic interest have control of more than 75 per cent of the market for leather gloves in this country."

"Congress must consider the consumers and the revenue to be derived from imports. It should not, on the one hand, indirectly tax every man and woman in this country who wears leather gloves for the benefit of the already too highly protected domestic manufacturers, chiefly located in Fulton County, New York, and on the other hand, by excessive duties, prohibit the importations of gloves and deprive the Treasury of the revenue therefrom. This revenue for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1907, amounted to $4,243,363.57."

"President Taft on December 16, 1908, said in New York: 'I believe that the way to stamp out trusts and monopolies is to avoid excessive rates which tempt monopolies. It would be better to have no revision at all unless we are going honestly and favorably to revise the tariff on the basis promised by our party.'"

"The present majority of the Ways and Means committee has shown some disposition to handle the tariff in the public interest, but it cannot escape the tyranny of custom, based on greedy and organized private interests. That tyranny can be broken down only by the force of an intelligent, persistent, widespread public sentiment expressed throughout the country."

MUNICIPAL OWNERSHIP PLATFORM

To the Voters of Eugene:—

This is our declaration—For the enforcement of law and order, and a progressive administration, we stand upon our record of the past two years.

We pledge ourselves to complete the McKenzie power plant at the earliest possible time, in order that the city may have and own the power necessary and adequate for pumping water.

We have already taken steps to secure wells of pure water for our water system. It will be our aim and object to accomplish this purpose, without delay.

We propose to continue the extension of the water mains throughout the city until every householder can be supplied with water.

We are decidedly in favor of municipal ownership of lights, when authorized by the people.

It will be our policy in the future, as it has been in the past, to administer the city government in the interest of all the people, without fear or favor, and free from the dictation of corporation interests.

GOLDEN OPPORTUNITY

You can make a clear profit of $1500 per month or over if you lease and operate this mill. This is a sawmill property, located right in the city. Now examine these figures—take them to any good sawmill man for verification, and you will be convinced of this rare opportunity. The mill is located at the river bridge in Eugene. Logs cost $5 to $6 per 1000; lumber averages $13.33 per 1000. Common grade, $11.50; finishing grades, $30. Cost of sawing, $2 per 1000; cost of logs, $5.50 per 1000; total cost logs, sawing and selling, $7.50 per 1000; over-removal log scale, 25 per cent, $1.87; take this from $7.50, leaving you $5.63, the total cost of your lumber right here in the best market in the state. Now logs will saw 1-3 clear, and it is worth $17 green and rough, $25 to $30 dried and planed. But take the lumber rough. The common is worth $11.50, clear $17, making an average of $15.33. The profit will be $7.50 per 1000 and on a cut of 20,000 feet per day, which the mill will do if pushed. This will show a profit of $4004 per month of 26 working days. You can't beat this proposition in Oregon. I will give you a very reasonable lease on this property. See M. S. Barker, 333 Pearl street, Eugene, Or.
