times groups about the polling places were dispersed.
In the first ward the attempt of the corporation workers to colonize the students from the "frat" houses and run them in blocks was the cause of much contention. The municipal ownership challengers required every student who offered his vote to swear it in, unless he could show actual residence in Eugene, and in the end not over twenty of the questionable votes were polled. It is reported that those who cast them will be reported to the grand jury, in order that the legality of the student vote may be determined for future elections.
Probably the most humorous feature of the day was the arrangements of the Willamette Valley Company to "paint the town red" at night in honor of Bingham's election. The band was arranged for and the telephone office was instructed to phone to the plant to switch the current on to the red lights that are strung across Willamette street the minute that the returns indicated victory. The company had everything arranged to celebrate its triumph over the people regardless of expense, but the news that came from the voting places never gave them a ray of hope at any time.

The only celebration that was indulged in was purely informal, hundreds of enthusiastic voters thronging The Guard office until a late hour discussing the returns and exchanging felicitations over the popular victory. All the evening the telephone rang constantly in The Guard office, almost every home in the city being informed in this way of the result in which so much interest was taken.
The vote for each candidate was as follows:

decide the question of prohibition today.

Chicago is voting for minor city officers and members of the city council. Three propositions also are up for decision. The one of the most general interest is the project for the erection of a municipal tuberculosis sanitarium. The second proposition relates to the proposed annexation of Evanston to Chicago and the third to the annexation of the town of Cicero.
Of the other cities of the state voting today the most interest is attached to Springfield, where former Lieutenant Governor Lawrence Y. Sherman, one of the political powers in Illinois, is the Republican candidate for mayor.

FORCE OF MEN STARTS FOR WALDO LAKE

RESERVOIR SITE

Will Continue the Construction Work for A. R. Black and Irrigation Company

Civil Engineer Simon Klov Dahl left Eugene today at noon with eleven men and supplies for Waldo Lake to prosecute construction work on the Waldo Lake reservoir for A. R. Black and the Waldo Lake Irrigation & Power Co. It required three teams to transport the outfit to Hazel Dell. It is extremely early in the season to get into the lake on account of the snow in the mountains, and the party will undoubtedly be compelled to buck snow and suffer some hardships for the next three weeks.

Mr. Black is anxious that his part of the construction (probably two months' work) be completed soon as possible, hence the early start.
