GIRAFFE LOOSE IN A REDWOOD FOREST

Could Not Be Lassoed and Took Six Long Holidays

North America has many national parks, but it is probable that the only one of these that has ever had the distinction of possessing a real, live giraffe is the big Redwood National Park located in the California Santa Cruz mountains. It is true that the park is now dispossessed of its long-necked acquisition, but the fact remains that "Nosey," the pride of the Greater Norris & Rowe menagerie, roamed its primeval depths for a period of six days and as many nights.

Ordinarily any animal with a collar rack the length of that possessed by a giraffe will, upon gaining freedom, take to the open, but when "Nosey" gave his keepers the slip at the Norris & Rowe circus headquarters last winter and made for the hills, he found himself in a forest of unusual proportions. Once in the sheltering depths "Nosey" stayed there. He would allow his keepers to approach just so near and then he would gallop away. It was useless to attempt to use the lasso, and the giraffe refused to be coaxed into a clearing.

The keepers swore, "Nosey" gave them the giraffe laugh and ambled on. He was having the one holiday of a long captivity. Only one thing disconcerted him. It is well known that giraffes are fond of the tender green shoots that are to be found at the very tops of trees. "Nosey" couldn't reach the sky end of those California redwoods by five giraffe necks and a long tent stake.

But all good things have the reputation of coming to an end, and a giraffe's holiday is no exception. On the seventh night of "Nosey's" vacation the keepers succeeded in corralling him by connecting ropes from tree to tree and thus forming an immense circular enclosure. When morning came they climbed inside, captured the runaway, and conducted him without further mishap to headquarters.

LINE INTO BEND FROM THE SOUTH

Recent Activities Point to the Extension of Harriman's California Road

Bend, Or., April 16. — Reports reaching this place from Klamath Falls have led some to believe that Harriman may be intending to build his railroad into this section from the south, thus opening up this part of the state to San Francisco, and that he is only quibbling over the Deschutes road to gain time and to cover his advance from the south. A Harriman crew has been working all winter on a difficult rock out a few miles north of Klamath Falls. The reports reaching Bend state that a road on northward has been let and that work has commenced.

In connection with these reports it is being called to mind that several San Francisco commercial men have visited Bend recently and stated that while they did not expect much at present, they were here to work up future business; that their houses would not send them here without information assuring them that the San Francisco wholesale houses would soon have this field opened up to them.

The fact that the Harriman lines are known to have heavy interests in San Francisco and California in general lends further credence to the belief that he may be trying to annex this territory to the San Francisco field.

LOST VALLEY NOTES

(Special Correspondence.)
Lost Valley, April 16.—Spring weather is the leading spirit in this vicinity. It is leading several of our citizens to the shaded nooks.

Fishing is far below par yet, several parties having been out and report poor success. Geese travelling northward can be heard most every day now. But that is nothing. We have heard of geese travelling in some direction being heard all winter.

Old timers say now is the time to put out your poison for squirrels. We think some dogs should eat the squirrels.

Revs. Holman and Kelp went to Rush Island last Sunday.

Mrs. W. H. Fenton and Miss Grace Keever went to Eugene last week. Miss Keever persuaded the dentist to use his drawin' instrument a couple of times.

Gainey Mathews is reported to be quite ill.

Thomas Gashage has sold his one-half acre on the creek bank to Jesse McPee, who has taken possession.

Easter Sunday passed off quietly here. Almost every one hid themselves to the Sunday school convention at Pleasant Hill. All report an excellent time and a good convention.

Wanted—By E. T. Templeman, a traveling companion. Reason, to travel with him over the district hunting for the good roads.

Assess. Beater was through this week. He says his next trip will be in his airship. There is already hot air enough in this vicinity to ship, please hurry. Mr. Beaver, before we get above supply.

LABOR LEADERS IN CONTEMPT CASES

Appeal Will Be Heard From the Decision of the Lower Court Monday

Washington, D. C., April 17.—In the District Court of Appeals next Monday argument will be heard upon the appeal taken from the decision of Judge Wright, adjudging Samuel Gompers, Frank Morrison and John Mitchell in contempt for their alleged violation of the injunction granted against them upon the petition of the Buck's Stove and Range Company of St. Louis.

This is the case in which Messrs. Gompers, Morrison and Mitchell, as president, secretary and vice president, respectively, of the American Federation of Labor, were sentenced to jail by Judge Wright for contempt of court.

The case originated in November, 1907, when J. W. Van Cleave, president of the Buck's Stove and Range Company and also president of the National Manufacturers' Association, and who is known as one of the most active foes of organized labor, brought an action for $240,000 damages against the American Federation of Labor and its executive council, and at the same time applied for an injunction pending the determination of the original action, to prohibit the federation from in any way advising organized labor and its friends that the company is unfair to its employees. On Dec. 23, 1907, the court made permanent an injunction forbidding the federation and its officers from continuing their campaign against the Buck's Stove and Range Company or publishing the name in the "unfair list."

Mr. Gompers and his associated labor leaders determined to make a firm stand against the writ of injunction. The official organ of the American Federation of Labor technically obeyed the order regarding the publication of the unfair list, but each month Mr. Gompers had vigorous editorials on the subject and also delivered a number of public speeches outlying his position in the matter. As a result of these proceedings, the three principal officers of the Federation were cited before Judge Wright, who found them guilty of contempt of court in their alleged violation of the injunction and sentenced them to jail for one year each. It is the appeal from this decision that will be argued by Alton B. Parker of New York before the District Court of Appeals Monday.

CENTENNIAL OF METHODISM OBSERVED

Vincennes, Ind., April 17.—Plans have been completed for an elaborate celebration of the centennial of Methodism in the city of Vincennes, the church having been established here in the year 1809. ### CURED BY CUTICURA AFTER LONG SUFFERING

"When my little girl was 6 months old I noticed small red spots on her right cheek. I did not pay any attention to them but finally the spots grew so large that I sent for the doctor who said it was ringworm. He prescribed an ointment which I used for two weeks, but instead of helping the eruption, the ointment seemed to make it worse. Then I went to a second doctor who after examining the baby said it was eczema. He also gave me an ointment which did not help either. The disease in the meantime spread all over the face and the eyes began to swell. I became very anxious. The itching grew intolerable. I had to tie the baby's hands to the cradle to prevent her scratching. The cheeks were covered with blood and it was a terrible sight to see. I consulted doctors from September to December, but they were unable to cure the baby. I paid out from twenty to thirty dollars without relief.

"One of my friends told me of the Cuticura Remedies and I sent at once for a set which I began to use that evening. The next morning the baby's face was all white instead of red and you can imagine how surprised I was. I cannot find words enough to praise Cuticura and I do not know what would have become of my baby only for it. I used the Cuticura Remedies until the eczema entirely disappeared. The child is now three years old and quite well. I used three cakes of Cuticura Soap, two boxes of Cuticura Ointment and one bottle of Cuticura Resolvent and I never use any other soap. I always recommend them whenever there is a chance for doing so. I will send you one of her pictures which she had taken just after she was healed. Mrs. R. E. Gumbin, Sheldon, Ia., July 13, 1908."
