ROOSEVELT'S DUE AT MOMBASSA

Expedition Will Embark for the Trip Into the Jungles of Africa

Washington, April 21.—Within the next twenty-four hours, barring unforeseen delays, the steamship Admiral will reach Mombassa, where the Roosevelt expedition will disembark to begin the journey into the African jungle. The first leg of the trip into the wilderness will be made by the hunters over the Uganda railroad, which connects the island of Mombassa with the mainland and then extends on to Machakos, a total distance of some two hundred miles. At Machakos Mr. Roosevelt and his party will visit for several weeks with Sir Alfred Pease, a famous hunter with whom Mr. Roosevelt is already acquainted.

The journey from Mombassa to Machakos is an extremely picturesque one. Leaving the British East Africa seaport, the railway runs past Kilindini, and dips down to Salisbury bridge, a magnificent viaduct 1700 feet long, connecting the island of Mombassa with the mainland, and then begins the steep climb to the small station of Changawa. At the latter point is obtained a fine view of the arms of the sea that enfold Mombassa. The ascent to Changawa is still short from the coast, the traveler can observe game from the car windows. At Vei, which is 1000 feet above sea level, the Roosevelt party will have an opportunity to see Mt. Killimanjaro, one of the highest of the mountain peaks in Africa, rearing its crest 19,000 feet into the clouds.

The jungle railway then passes through undulating and fairly open country until the train reaches Tsavo station, on the banks of the little river of the same name. An idea of the abundance of big game in this vicinity may be had from the statement that during the construction of the Uganda railway no less than 600 of the workmen were killed near the Tsavo station by man-eating lions.

A run of some fifty miles farther will bring the hunting party to Makindu, a little over two hundred miles from Mombassa, and over 3000 feet above the level of the sea. The middle of May will probably find the party at Nairobi, the capital of the British East Africa protectorate. At Nairobi the expedition's headquarters will be established for the greater portion of the hunt.

Recent advices from Mombassa tell of elaborate preparations being made there for the reception of Mr. Roosevelt. An official welcome will be extended by Frederick John Jackson, lieutenant governor of the protectorate. Mr. Roosevelt will find a genial companion in Mr. Jackson, for the latter is a famous sportsman and the author of a book upon big game.

MEET TO SELECT UNIVERSITY RECTOR

Washington, April 21.—In Catholic circles much interest is manifested in the annual meeting today of the archbishops of the United States and the board of directors of the Catholic University of this city. The interest is due largely to the fact that the meeting is called upon to select a permanent rector of the university to succeed Bishop D. J. O'Connell, who was recently placed in charge of the San Francisco diocese. While it is generally believed that the present incumbent, Dr. Thomas Shahan, who was appointed by the pope as provisional rector, will be continued in office, his selection is not altogether a certainty, as it is necessary for the board to select three names to send to Rome. Dr. Edmund T. Shahan and Dr. Charles P. Grannan, both of whom are members of the university faculty, are regarded as the most likely candidates in addition to Dr. Shahan.

FINCH'S PECULIAR PLEA FOR LIFE

Salem, April 6.—The State of Oregon today filed its brief in the case against James A. Finch, convicted of the murder of Ralph Fisher. In reply to the contention of the Appellate Court the verdict and judgment of the lower court are contrary to the constitution of the state, in that it sought to take appellant's life and therefore render reformation impossible. The state's attorney says: "No authorities are cited by the appellant in favor of this contention, and we doubt that any court ever heard such a doctrine. It has always been conceded that some persons, and especially assassins, are beyond reformation in this life, and it seems rather strange that it has taken 50 years to make the discovery that the punishment prescribed by the laws of the State of Oregon for murder in the first degree is unconstitutional."

S.S.S. THE CURE FOR SCROFULA

The usual symptoms of Scrofula are enlarged glands, sores and ulcers on the body, skin affections, catarrhal troubles, and general poor health. The inherited poison, transmitted through the blood, pollutes and weakens this fluid, and in place of qualities fills the circulation with scrofulous matter, which saps of the entire system. Thousands of children, born with a scrofulous taint, have spent their childhood handicapped by ill health and stunted growth. In their early life, would have prevented this. It cleansed and purified the blood of the taint, nourished and strengthened their systems, and assisted each to grow into strong, healthy manhood or womanhood. S.S.S. is the very best remedy for Scrofula down to the bottom of the trouble, and cleanses the circulation of scrofulous matter. It supplies the weak, diseased blood with health-building qualities, and under the purifying effects remedy all symptoms of Scrofula pass away. S.S.S. contains in any form, and is an absolutely safe treatment for children, or persons of any age. Literature about Scrofula and any more free.

WRESTLERS AFTER BLOOD

Both O'Connell and LaSalle Sure They Can Beat The Other
Eddie O'Connell, the man who is rated as a world-beater by his friends, and who during the winter has thrown opponent after opponent, whether they be large or small, in the wrestling bouts at Portland, expects to take his match with LaSalle Friday night. If reiterated statements are true, both men want to win badly. Considerable expression of opinion has passed between the men over a match in Portland, and the battle ought certainly to be for blood.

O'Connell is the lighter man, but he has established a remarkable reputation for cleverness, speed and headwork. His build is unusual for a wrestler. Instead of short and heavy, he is rather tall and slim, but with unusual strength and endurance for a man of his weight. LaSalle belongs to the class above O'Connell, the welterweight. In the Berg-LaSalle go here, he showed that he was fast and clever. Against O'Connell, however, he will have the advantage in weight by anywhere from ten to fifteen pounds.

Hamlin Match Postponed
The wrestling bout between Joe LaSalle and Ed Hamlin has been postponed from next Monday night to some date yet to be decided upon. Mr. Hamlin's wife had to undergo a surgical operation last Monday, and until she is out of danger Mr. Hamlin will not resume his training.—Roseburg Review.
