ROSEBURG ROBBERS CAUGHT IN HILLS

Found Carrying Stolen Goods
After Hard Chase of Two
Days by Officers

Oakland, Or., April 26.—An exciting capture of two robbers by Sheriff Fenton, of Douglas county, happened here yesterday afternoon on the Hart ranch. The men are wanted for robbing several Roseburg clothing dealers last Thursday night, when they secured $150 worth of valuable clothes and silks.

Sheriff Fenton had been hot on the trail of the men ever since the robbery was discovered, and had been driving over the mountain roads night and day in his efforts to take them into custody. Yesterday morning the two were located on the road between here and Roseburg, but eluded their pursuers by getting into the hills, where they were again found in the afternoon, and they gave their pursuers a fast run across the fields, and it was necessary for the officers to empty their guns at the fugitives before they were finally captured and taken to Roseburg by the sheriff. They had with them all of the stolen goods. Tracey claims to be a pugilist. He is about 25 years of age, while Johnson, who says his home is in Seattle, is about five years his junior.
