LITTLE SHAKEUP IN SQUAD

Clarke to Outfield, Coleman to Short —Tryont for Second

Just a little bit of a shakeup will be made in the Oregon team for the Multnomah games Saturday. Coach Father Kelly says the team has done "fine," and he has nothing to be dissatisfied with. But just the same there will be a little uncertainty of the possibilities to put the men on edge for the rest of next week.

Among the changes "Dud" Clarke will go to the outfield, a place he is eminently fitted to fill. On the Inland Empire trip the meadows back of the diamond had a large crop of errors, and Tom Kelly must have some mind toward strengthening those fields.

Coleman will be shifted to short to fill the big tracks that Clarke has made in the dust, and three new men will be given tryouts on second, where Coleman has been playing. McIntosh, Dobie and Tom Word will be the fortunate youngsters.

Gabrielson has been playing a heady game behind the bat, and if Word can be shifted into the infield, so that the inside performers of the Oregon baseball circus will be a little faster in their displays of cleverness, the change will be made.

The outfield for the rest of the season will probably be Clarke, Sullivan and Hurd and Henckle as alternates. Both of these pitchers demonstrated such class in the recent northern journey that Kelly will probably depend upon them for most of the games during the remainder of the season.

A.-Y.-P. COLLEGE BASEBALL

Teams from the Orient and the East May Take Part

The University of Washington's scheme of organizing a college baseball league to play a series of games during the A.-Y.-P. exposition has received attention all over the United States, and is now reaching toward the Orient. A letter comes from Oaho college, Honolulu, asking admittance to the league.

The Oahu manager believes that this turnament will interest the exposition visitors, but that a team from the Hawaiian Islands would make it a great drawing card.

The college of the Pacific turned out a strong team last summer, and it went to the exlense of playing at home the champion team from Kelo University, Japan, and the Santa Clara, Cal., nine. It is confident of its ability to make some of the colleges hustle, and help make the series lively, although it does not class itself with Princeton and Brown. It would be the manager's plan to pick a team from this year's material and "old grads."

Oregon will probably take part in the series, and afterward, if possible, tour Japan.

TENNIS TO BE AT PORTLAND

Washington Accepts Date of May 21 and 22 at Multnomah

In reply to a telegram from the University of Oregon yesterday, Tennis Manager Bert Hanson, of the University of Washington, telegraphed Washington's acceptance of the proposal to compete in the intercollegiate Northwest tournament, to be held in Portland May 21 and 22, on the Multnomah courts.

With four colleges entered and two more contemplating entering, the meet will be the biggest intercollegiate tennis event ever held in the Northwest. Washington, Oregon, Idaho, Oregon Agricultural College, Pullman and Whitman will be represented when the first match begins. This will be the first trip taken by a tennis team from Washington. Last year Pullman and Oregon went to Seattle with the explicit understanding that Washington would send a team to compete against them this year.

Three dates have been considered, May 7 and 8 here, May 14 and 15 at Eugene, or May 21 and 22 at Portland. Manager Snow, of Oregon, has secured the courts of the Multnomah Club for this latter date, and, although these courts are constructed of asphalt, all the teams have been practicing on dirt courts, so it will be an equal handicap on all.

Odds and Ends

Manager McGraw, of the Giants, has been greatly bothered of late by a poisoned hand.

According to the figures, 78,000 spectators witnessed the first three games at the Polo Grounds in New York.

So far the Cincinnati Reds have played great ball, and "Old Fox" Griffith is good to look at.

Tommy Devlin, of Philadelphia, will box Danny Goodwin, of Chicago, before the Utopia Club of Memphis early in May.

Umpires O'Day and Emslie are the only veteran umpires of the National League who are now working together.

Johnny Kling says that the Cubs can win the championship without him. Wonder if John had his fingers crossed when he said that.

Somebody touched Umpire McTague for his watch the other day. It is all right to hand an umpire something, but to take anything from him is going too far.

"Big Si" Perkins, the New York American pitcher, has been sold to Newark. He played with the Yankee "sod-busters" during the spring trip.

Three California league pitchers took part in a recent Boston-Washington game, Walter and Arellanes with the Red Sox and "Dolly" Gray with the Nationals.

Jack Thoney, of the Boston Americans, has not been sent to Muldoon's farm. Jack can find plenty to do in the big yard of the Red Sox without hunting work at Muldoon's.

Governor Hughes, of New York, is out to put the kibosh on the fight game. If he is as successful as he was in the war against the racetracks it will be good night for the pugilists.

Jack Johnson, Al Kaufman, Sam Langford and Sanady Ferguson all say they intend to tour Europe. Some of the powers on the other side might take a fancy to this quartet and make them join the army.

MISS NELL MURPHEY GIVES MUSIC RECITAL

Will Be Assisted Thursday Evening by Miss Edith Prescott

Pianoforte recital by Miss Nell Murphey assisted by Miss Edith Prescott will be given in Villard Hall on Thursday evening, April 29. No charge will be made for admittance.

Program.

1. Sonata, Op. 7 ..... Grieg
   Allegro moderato, andante molto, menuetto, molto allegro.
2. The Sweetest Flower.....
   ..... F. Van der Stucken
   Remember Me....E. Tesclmacher
3. Nocturne, Op. 48, No. 1
   Etude, Op. 10, No. 5 ...Chopin
   (b) Poeme Symphonic (Danse Macabre) ..... Saint Saens

The Dance Macabre or "Dance of Death" is based upon a grotesque poem by Henri Cazalls. Death is described as a fiddler summoning the skeletons at midnight for a dance. Striking of the old clock, then the effort at tuning the cracked, unused fiddle, begins the dance. The ghostly merriment is kept up until the cock crows, the signal for the disappearance of the grim and clattering revellers. Second piano part, Miss Alberta Campbell.

4. Aus Meinen grossen Schmerzen..
   ..... Robt. Franz
5. Aufforderung zum Tanz .....
   ..... Weber Tausig.
