FIRST WIRELESS MESSAGES SENT FROM EUGENE

Guard Sends Message to Port- land and Receives Reply
 —Also From Salem

The following wireless mes- sages were received by The Guard this afternoon after the first messages were sent through the wireless station here.

Portland, Or., 5-8-'09.
 The Guard, Eugene, Ore.
 The Journal sends best wishes.

THE JOURNAL.
 Salem, Or., 5-8-'09.
 Here's the first wireless to the champion of the bright- est little city in the Willam- ette valley.
 COL. E. HOFER.

Mayor Matlock, who arriv- ed home from his trip up the McKenzie lake in the after- noon, sent a message to the mayor of Salem, but on ac- count of the latter being off on a trip to British Columbia, no reply was received.

The first official messages from the newly established wireless tele- graph station in this city were sent out this afternoon, the repairs to the instruments having been completed and everything was in good working order.

Dr. L. L. Whitson, president of the board of governors of the Commercial Club sent the following message in the absence of Mayor Matlock, who was asked to send the first message, but was unable to do so on account of being out of the city.

"Tom Richardson, Portland, Or.
 "Our wireless is now in operation. We can now send you plenty of hot air on request at any time."
 "L. L. WHITSON."

The Guard sent a message to C. S. Jackson, publisher of the Portland Journal, and the morning paper also sent one to Portland.

The local officials of the company invite the people of the city to in- spect the plant at any time Sunday afternoon at which time Operator Wood will be there to explain the de- tails of the plant.

SELF PRESERVATION

NATURE'S BIG LAW

But Spiritual Man Cares for Others, Says Lecturer in Sixth Address

There was a large attendance at the Presbyterian church last night to hear the sixth address by Newton N. Riddell, his subject being, "Chris- tian Mysteries Unveiled." The inter- est in these lectures continues and many who are seldom seen inside a church are attending regularly.

"Self-preservation is the first law of nature, and the natural man, the preservation of others is the first law of the spirit and the spiritual man," declared Mr. Riddell. "The natural man is self-centered and egotistic; the spiritual man is centered in others and altruistic. Christ represents a higher type of life than the natural man. By regeneration every man may make the transition from the natural to the spiritual plane, and thereby become Christlike. This re- generative process is governed by definite laws as unerring as gravity and as sure as mathematics."

The speaker then took up the sev- eral distinct psychological changes required in the transition from Adam to Christ, and closed his story with an allegory of Giant Strong.

The local officials of the company invite the people of the city to in- spect the plant at any time Sunday afternoon at which time Operator Wood will be there to explain the de- tails of the plant.

FRESHMEN TEAM OVERWHELM ALL ITS OPPONENTS

Make 93 Points to 29 for Their Three Opponents on Kin- caid Field Today

The University of Oregon Fresh- men overwhelmed its opponents in the academic meet this afternoon on Kincaid field with the score of 93 points out of a possible 122. Hill Academy took second place with 13 points, Salem third with 12 points and Eugene the tail end with but four points, won by Bailey in the hammer, and Abshire's third in the pole vault. Albany did not enter a team.

The most closely contested events were the mile race and the relay, though the interest in others was intense. Davis, of the Freshmen, won the mile from Burns, the famous Hill runner. Garbrandt took third, but by drawing Burns out on the third lap, materially helped the chances of Davis, who overtook the Hill miler in a last desperate sprint.

Kay, of Salem, was the star of the meet and took the 100 and 220 in the time of 10 1/2 and 23 seconds respectively. Hawkins and Latourette carried the hurdles for the freshmen also with good time.

The events are:
 100-yard dash—Kay, Salem; Prehn, H. M. A.; Hawkins, Oregon. Time, 10 1/2.

Mile run—Davis, Oregon; Burns, H. M. A.; Garbrandt, Oregon. Time, 4:45.

120-yard hurdles—Hawkins, La- tourette and Olson, all Oregon. Time, 16 1-5.

220-yard dash—Kay, Salem; Meyer, H. M. A.; Roberts, H. M. A. Time, 23 flat.

Shot put—Means, Henderson and Kellogg, all Oregon. Distance, 47 1/2 feet. 12-pound shot.

Pole vault—Watson, Oregon; Sweeney, Oregon; Abshire, Eugene. Height, 10 feet 3 inches.

220-yard hurdles—Latourette, Oregon; Gammans, Oregon; Prehn, H. M. A. Time, 27 seconds flat.

880-yard run—Davis, Oregon; Main, Oregon; Kaiser, Salem. Time, 2:11 1-2.

440-yard dash—Johns, Oregon; McDaniel, Oregon; Meyers, H. M. A. Time, 54 2-5.

Hammer throw—Kellogg, Oregon; Bailey, Eugene High; Means, Oregon. Distance, 133 feet 8 inches. Twelve-pound hammer.

High jump—Harpman, Oregon; Neuman, Oregon; Kay, Salem. Height 5 feet 4 inches.

Broad jump—Gabriel, Hawkins and Nielson, all of Oregon. Distance 20 feet 9 inches.

Discus throw—Means and Kellogg, Oregon, and Meyers, H. M. A.

220-yard relay race won from H. M. A. by Oregon. Oregon team con- sisted of Baer, Hickson, McDaniel and Hawkins.

OPERATION HER ONLY CHANCE

Was Cured by Lydia E. Pink- ham's Vegetable Compound

Adrian, Ga.—"I suffered untold misery from a female weakness and disease, and I could not stand more than a minute at a time. My doctor said an operation was the only chance I had, and I dreaded it almost as much as death. One day I was reading how other women had been cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Veget- able Compound, and decided to try it. Before I had taken one bottle I was better, and now I am completely cured."—LENA V. HENRY, Route No. 3, Adrian, Ga.

Why will women take chances with an operation or drag out a sickly, half-hearted existence, missing three-fourths of the joy of living, when they can find health in Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound?

For thirty years it has been the standard remedy for female ills, and has cured thousands of women who have been troubled with such ailments as displacements, inflammation, ulceration, fibroid tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, indigestion, and nervous prostration.

If you have the slightest doubt that Lydia E. Pinkham's Veget- able Compound will help you, write to Mrs. Pinkham at Lynn, Mass., for advice. Your letter will be absolutely confidential, and the advice free.
