HALF WAY HOUSE
ON MILLRACE ISLAND

Springfield Paper Says Resort
Will Soon Be Established

The News has been informed from good authority that a half-way house will be established in the near future, between Springfield and Eugene. A foot bridge will be built across the race and the resort will be built on the island. Near beer will be the stock in trade, or as near the real thing a state law will allow. These who will establish this resort are two young men from Eugene. Of course they will sell nothing stronger than ear beer but just the same we would advise Marshall Lyons to add an extra birth or two to his lodging apartments as the present capacity will be inadequate to accommodate the Sunday evening demand unless conditions are wonderfully changed. Of course Eugene dare not sell the beverage, and the half-way resort will not, so there is but little cause to alarm, but just to be on the safe side, you know.—Springfield News.

EX-GOVERNOR JOSEPH W. FOLK.

Who speaks at the Presbyterian church in Eugene on April 15, in the regular Bucecel entertainment course. His subject will be "Soldiers of Peace."

Folk's Pioneer Work.

Governor Folk closes his administration in Missouri having the enemy of the same lawless and privileged grabbing elements that were his enemies when his term of office began.

It is the finest testimonial that Mr. Folk could have and it is the one he prizes the most.

These enemies of the Governor are the enemies of Missouri. They are weaker now by far than they were even after Folk had first overthrown them. They can never again hope to attain that supremacy in the politics of the state which they held before Folk assailed them.

Folk's record is one of service that had to be performed before the state could go ahead. Folk kept the faith.

And now, Watch Missouri!—Kansas City Star, Jan. 1909.

ested in the Movement

The farmers in the vicinity of Junction met in the city hall Wednesday for the purpose of forming a Vetch Growers association.

The meeting was addressed by A. Blevins of Linn county who explained the advantages of a similar organization in that county.

A temporary organization was effected by electing I. N. Edwards, president and S. B. Simmons, secretary.

The following have signified their intention to form such an organization: C. C. Hayes, Loren Edwards, Oscar Mays, G. H. Bogue, W. M. Pitney, M. J. Harper, Travis, L. C. Vitus, Ed Bailey, I. N. Edwards, G. C. Millet and S. B. Simmons.
